ASSEMBLY APPROVES RUDEE INLET AUTHORITY BEACH, COUNTY LEADERS SPEAK AGAINST HOTEL-MOTEL TAX

Kellam Leads Opponents of Tax At Committee Hearing Tuesday

A delegation of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County leaders, headed by Sidney S. Kellam of Virginia Beach, were joined with other leaders of Tidewater in opposing the proposed 5 per cent tax on hotel and motel rooms before the House Finance Committee in Richmond Tuesday.

Kellam contended before the legislative committee that the proposed tax would be an economic blow to the tourist industry. He said the tax would make Virginia "a sun up to sun down" state because tourists would skip over the state to stay in other states.

The former head of the State Department of Conservation and Development contended Virginia "would be killing the goose that laid the golden egg" by imposing the tax.

Another opponent appearing at the hearing was Lloyd U. Noland of Newport News. Noland told the committee he was appearing on behalf of three chambers of commerce on the Tidewater peninsula.

After the hearing the committee said it would wait to see if the House adopts the 80.5 million dollar budget before taking up the hotel-motel room tax.

posed 5 per cent tax on hotel and motel rooms.

The tax bill was introduced by Del. Toy Savage Jr. of Norfolk as part of a stop-gap program to raise 80 million dollars in new revenue for the 1960-62 state budget.

Hotel men from all over Virginia opposed the bill at the committee hearing.

Sen. E. Almer Ames of Onancock, who represents Princess Anne and Virginia Beach, said earlier this week, "I'm very much opposed to the hotel tax. It would hurt the tourist business, which is one of Virginia's largest."

Virginia Beach already has a 3 per cent hotel and motel room tax to raise revenue for the city's sand erosion program.

If the state were to impose an additional 5 per cent on top of that, Virginia Beach hotels and motels might be put in an unfavorable position with those in other Atlantic resort areas.

Del. P. B. White of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne said he was opposed to the proposed room tax too.

With the sales tax dead in this session of the General Assembly, it began to look more and more like the legislature would enact new liquor, beer, and tobacco taxes. But it was more doubtful whether the hotel-motel room tax could be enacted.

Sen. Ames' anti-annexation bill passed the Senate this week and went to the House, but in an amendment form that reduces its applicability to Princess Anne.

As amended by a Senate committee, Ames' bill would prohibit any annexation for five years in counties touching Norfolk or Richmond, unless the board of supervisors or one-fourth of the voters in the county to be annexed request it.

Under existing state law, Princess Anne already is immune to annexation by Norfolk for 5 years from the final order entered in the annexation that became effective January 1, 1959.

Two other pending bills would give Princess Anne the power to impose a tax on utility bills. Cities now have this power.

Both Ames and White are in favor of extending this power to Princess Anne. One of the bills would empower all counties in Virginia to tax utility bills. The other would apply only to Princess Anne.

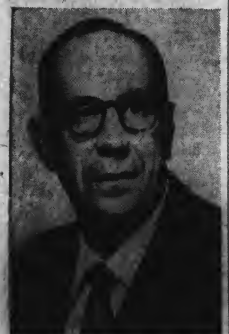

A utility bill tax would affect telephone and electric power bills. Any utility operated by a city or county or public authority would be exempt.

White's proposal to exempt the Fraternal Order of Police in Princess Anne from property taxes was vetoed by Governor Almond.

Almond said he thought such

Willis Heading Special Section Of Cancer Fund

Grayson K. Willis, Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach furniture store executive, has been appointed chairman of the special gifts division of the forthcoming Cancer Crusade fund raising campaign. It has been announced by Fred A. Haycox, general chairman of the campaign.

Willis announced that his committee has started their work and that they expect to complete the special gifts phase of the fund campaign during March ahead of the general solicitation in April.

The Special Gifts Chairman has long been active in civic affairs here and expressed pleasure in being able to serve the local cancer unit in its fund appeal which is a part of the American Cancer Society program.

"We must join together to strike back," Willis said. "Our goal is $15,000 and the special gifts division is expected to raise a substantial portion of this figure," Willis stated.

General Chairman Haycox stated that he and other Cancer officials were delighted that Willis could serve as special gifts chairman. Haycox also reported that plans are well under way for the general drive and that the response for workers has been gratifying.

Cancer officials urge everyone not only to give to the fund campaign but to get a health checkup at the same time. They believe that a health checkup should be a must for everyone and that each April—Cancer Crusade Month—would be a good time to get a checkup.

Calling all Blood Donors

Senate Clears Bill to Make Princess Anne Judicial Circuit; New Judge To Be Named

Princess Anne and Isle of Wight will make up the 28th Judicial Circuit and a second judge will be named as a result of legislation which cleared the State Senate Tuesday.

The bill, which at one time created some friction as to the division of the Circuit, cleared the Senate without dissent. The action makes Princess Anne a judicial circuit with Isle of Wight County.

Coincidentally with the bill the City of Portsmouth becomes a new separate judicial circuit to be known as the 38th Judicial Circuit with Judge Henry W. McKenzie Jr. as the resident judge. Judge McKenzie is presently senior judge of the 28th circuit.

Passage of the judgeship bill now means that Princess Anne must present a candidate for the second judgeship within the next 10 days.

Speculation has been rife as to who will be the second judge. Judge Robert S. Wahab Jr. will be the senior judge of the 28th circuit and will take over the appointive powers previously held by Judge McKenzie.

Most prominently mentioned to fill the second judgeship has been Attorney Richard B. Kellam, who resides at Princess Anne and who is a brother of the late Judge Floyd E. Kellam, senior judge of the circuit for many years.

Another possibility is Commonwealth's Attorney Robert L. Simpson, who was appointed to succeed Wahab in that post and then elected to the post in 1959.

Others mentioned as possible nominees for the judgeship are Virginia Beach city attorney Roy Smith, former Princess Anne Commonwealth's Attorney Paul W. Ackles and another Kellam brother, Edwin C. Kellam.

The names of County Court Judge J. Davis Reed Jr. and Virginia Beach City Councilman Edward T. Caton III also have been mentioned.

The judgeship bill was launched by Sen. E. Almer Ames Jr., with a companion bill to make Portsmouth a separate judicial district by Sen. William B. Spang Jr. The proposal was launched as a Portsmouth-Princess Anne affair out resulted in a fight by political factions in Isle of Wight County headed by Lt. Gov. A.E.S. Stephens of Smithfield and Sen. Milla E. Godwin Jr., who represents Isle of Wight, Nansemond and the City of Suffolk.

The lieutenant governor's backers wanted Isle of Wight tied to Portsmouth, but Godwin won the club by winning the bill to the Isle of Wight to Princess Anne in judicial affairs.

The same bill creates a new judgeship in Henrico County. The General Assembly will appoint both the Princess Anne and Henrico judges before adjournment next week.

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit the Virginia Beach Convention Center today (Thursday) from 12 noon until 6 p.m. and the visit is being sponsored by the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The immediate goal of the Jaycees is to top the record 146 pints collected a few years ago when the Bloodmobile visit was sponsored by the Virginia Beach Rotary Club. However, a total of 200 pints of blood are needed in the area.

Dr. Alvin Q. Jarrett is serving as chairman of the Jaycee project and members of his committee include William B. Alderman, Raymond Hodges Jr., Bill Lutz, Dr. Henry McCoy and Norman Scott.

A unique feature of the visit today will be the awarding of two special prizes. Donors will be eligible for the first prize of a fifty dollar savings bond and the second prize of a twenty-five dollar bond.

Anyone between ages of 18 and 60 whose medical history and present health meet the established requirements are eligible to donate blood. It was pointed out by a Jaycee spokesman. It requires only an average of 45 minutes to donate a pint of blood.

The Jaycees are offering free transportation for those donors who require it. Transportation requests may be made by calling GA 5-1922. The Jaycees request an early call.

As usual sandwiches, fruit juice and coffee will be served to all donors.

Legislation Introduced by White Expected to Develop Area for Marina; Body Empowered to Issue Bonds

The Virginia Senate Tuesday gave its approval to legislation to set up a Rudee Inlet Authority that would create a boat marina in the area located at the south end of Virginia Beach.

Originally introduced in the House of Delegates by Delegate P. B. White and passed by that body, the bill won Senate approval Tuesday and except for a minor amendment that sends it back to the House temporarily the bill will next go to the Governor for his signature.

Creation of the authority to develop Rudee Inlet seems almost too good to be true for many local citizens who have envisioned for years the need and desire to develop this area.

According to the bill creating the authority the body will be empowered to issue bonds and develop the inlet as a boating haven in conjunction with the resort facilities at Virginia Beach.

The Senate also gave final legislative approval to a special bill that would raise the salary of the Princess Anne and Chesterfield county clerk of court by $1,000.

This bill would specify that the extra $1,000 per year would go to clerks of court in counties where there is a city under Circuit Court jurisdiction. The only such situation in Virginia is in Princess Anne, which also serves Virginia Beach, and in Chesterfield, where the court serves Colonial Heights.

Princess Anne representatives also appeared Tuesday before a committee considering a proposal to allow counties to levy a tax on utilities.

Richard J. Webbon, Princess Anne County secretary, told the Senate Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns that Princess Anne needs the power to tax utility bills as Norfolk does in order to serve the needs of the people of the county.

The bill was referred to a subcommittee, but there appeared to be little doubt that the legislature will grant the power to the county.

Harold Kellam Governor-Nominee For Rotary's 760th District

Harold B. Kellam, a past president of the Virginia Beach Rotary Club, has been declared the Governor-Nominee for District 760 of Rotary International. It has been announced by District Governor Winston K. Pendleton of Arlington.

Kellam will officially become Governor of the District on July 1, which is the beginning of the new Rotary year throughout the world.

An official of the Kellam-Faton Insurance firm in Virginia Beach, the new governor-nominee became a member of the Virginia Beach Rotary Club in 1944. Kellam has served his club as secretary, treasurer, vice president and as president. He is a former leader of District Group 547 of District 760.

In 1956 Kellam received the J. Owen Campbell award which is given to the member of the Virginia Beach Rotary Club deemed to have best served his club, his community and his God.

Governor-Nominee Kellam has been a tireless civic worker and an outstanding member of the Rotary Club. He recently served two years as President of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce and is a former president of the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Kellam is chairman of the official board of the Virginia Beach

HAROLD B. KELLAM

Methodist Church and has served as the teacher of the Men's Bible Class for the past 15 years. He is currently serving as an associate lay leader on the Norfolk Methodist District.

The new District Governor-Nominee is married to the former Frances Arthur and they reside on 71st street.

Heart Fund Mail Donations Coming in; Total $1,500

The Virginia Beach Fire Station was headquarters Sunday at 1230 when Mrs. C. L. Hershberger, general chairman of the Heart Fund Drive for a part of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, met with co-workers to tally donations.

Mrs. Hershberger is chairman of the health and mental health department of the Woman's Club of Princess Anne County, the organization sponsoring the Heart Fund Drive this year.

Because donations by mail have not all been received, the total amount realized cannot be ascertained, however actual cash donations collected by the Woman's Club of Princess Anne County was $1,538.45.

Chairmen under Mrs. Hershberger were:

Mrs. Waverley J. Dickens Jr., Mrs. V. Alfred Etheridge, Mrs. J. A. Clark, Mrs. E. Guy Robertson, Mrs. M. F. Camp, Mrs. Wm. C. Ashman, Mrs. Roy Aycock, Mrs. Aubrey Holmes, Mrs. J. D. Wilson, Mrs. D. Murray Malbon, Mrs. Glover R. Miller, Mrs. N. B. Reed, Mrs. J. T. Malbon, Mrs. Robert E. Hogue, Mrs. Jean Yeatts, Mrs. Betty Tower, Mrs. O. L. Byrd, Mrs. John Garrow, Mrs. Meredith Halyer, Mrs. R. E. Davenport, Mrs. Charles Walton, Mrs. E. G. Donovan, Mrs. J. G. Parnell Jr., Mrs. T. Cornell Berry, Mrs. Roy Dudley, and Mrs. R. A. Wallace.

Busy Heart Fund Workers

First Citizen and his First Lady

Mrs. Shipp to Head Residential Cancer Drive

Mrs. George O. Shipp has been appointed residential chairman for the 1960 Cancer Crusade for the Princess Anne County Cancer Society.

The Cancer Society is announcing today by Mr. Fred A. Haycox Sr., Crusade chairman, and Mrs. Paula Dolgin, president of the unit.

In accepting this chairman-ship Mrs. Shipp urged "all public spirited citizens of our community to make this a full-scale offensive against cancer."

"The family theme will again be the chairman called it, pointing out that cancer is second only to heart disease as a cause of death.

"Of course cancer control is a year-around program. But this is the time of the year when we go out to try and save more lives. And it's the time when we ring doorbells and collect funds to sustain the ever-increasing momentum of war against this ancient enemy of mankind. A war that must ultimately end in the defeat of cancer and the saving of countless lives in the generations to come. At the present rate, 265,000 lives every year!

"Our local drive must be a drive to save these lives," stated Mrs. Shipp. "If our literature reached every single household, and if a member of every household makes himself, or herself, responsible for safeguarding the rest of the family, we could eliminate this shocking loss of loved ones."

Mrs. Shipp stated that many volunteer workers will be needed to carry out this most important job of fund raising. Anyone interested in helping is urged to call the office of the Princess Anne Unit at GA 8-4151.

'Guard Your Family' Crusade Theme

For a second successive year "Guard Your Family" will be the rallying note of the Cancer Crusade which opens here April 1.

The family theme will again be linked with the life-saving phrase, "Fight cancer with a checkup and a check." It was announced today by Mr. Fred A. Haycox Sr., Crusade chairman, who discussed plans for the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society's year.

Social Welfare Annual Meeting Set for March 10

"The Later Years — Independent and Productive" is the topic to be discussed at the annual meeting of District I, Virginia Council on Social Welfare, which will be held Thursday, March 10 at 1:30 p.m. in the Social Hall of the Navy YMCA, 130 Brooke Ave., Norfolk. This will be the fourth in a series relating to the District Theme "New Trends in Essential Social Service."

This program on our aging population will present a challenge in human relations just as the previous programs have presented challenges in the field of education, health and community organization. It will be in the form of a panel discussion with Mrs. Alvin Margolis acting as Moderator.

Mrs. Margolis is a former chairman of the Committee on the Aging of the Virginia Council on Social Welfare and at present serves as chairman of the Committee on Aging, United Communities Council of Social Agencies, Norfolk. H. Burton Aycock, Regional Representative White House Conference on Aging, Charlottesville, will be the first speaker. He will discuss "The Challenge of the Older Citizen," emphasizing how some of the social attitudes on aging need to be changed. Prior to Aycock accepting his position with the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, he was Chief of Services to the Blind and Associate Regional Representative in the office of Vocational Rehabilitation. He has served as former president of the National Council of State Directors of Vocational Rehabilitation.

"Economic Implications of an Aging Population" and "Current Opinions Among Demographers" will be discussed by George Behn, Instructor in Sociology, College of William and Mary, Norfolk. Behn is a graduate of Yale University's class of '32 and holds a Master of Arts degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science, University of London, England. He has specialized in anthropology and done research in housing and politics.

M. N. Pearman, assistant vice president, Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co., Richmond, will present "Industry's Responsibility Toward Plans for Retirement." Pearman, a graduate in engineering from VPI, has held a number of positions of responsibility with the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. In 1945 he was District Plant Manager in Norfolk. In 1954 he became General Personnel Assistant in the group headquarters of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. in Washington. He held this position until his present appointment.

Members of the program committee planning this meeting are Mrs. Beulah Wheeler, Child Welfare Consultant with the State Department of Welfare and Institutions, Richmond; Miss Elizabeth Burns, Chief Medical Assistance Supervisor, Norfolk Social Service Bureau; and William S. Lee Jr., Chief Administrative Officer, Norfolk.

Hilltop Baptist Chapel Meeting in Linkhorn School

The public is cordially invited to attend Sunday School services at the newly organized Hilltop Baptist Chapel, now meeting in the Linkhorn Park School. Classes are provided for every age group. Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m. Mr. Hardwick Hatcher is Sunday School superintendent.

Folk Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court.

Preceding the program the annual business meeting will be held. Paul J. Canady, chairman, District I, will preside. A representative from the State Office of the Virginia Council on Social Welfare is expected.

Mrs. Stuart C. Mallory, executive secretary of the Princess Anne County Chapter, American Red Cross, is planning to attend the meeting. The meeting is open to the public and annual memberships from organizations and interested citizens are being encouraged. This District Meeting on the Aging is a forerunner to the State Meeting of the Council on Social Welfare which will meet in Norfolk the last of April, where a more extensive discussion will ensue. All meetings on the aging are preparatory to the White House Conference on Aging, which will be held in Washington, D.C. on Jan. 9-12, 1961.

Basic Seamanship Course Begins

U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 57, Lynnhaven, will begin its spring session of public training for all new or prospective boating fans this Thursday evening, March 3, in their classrooms, located in the Lynnhaven Colony Chapel, just south of Clyde's Corner off Shore Drive on Great Neck Road.

Registration for all interested (men or women over 16 years of age) will be at 7:30 p.m., with the first of the eight regular weekly lessons to follow. There is no charge for the course, except for a $2 registration fee to cover the cost of printed material and course materials.

The Coast Guard-approved course covers elementary seamanship, basic rules of the road, and aids to navigation, compass and chart fundamentals, first aid and safety, float, plus rope splicing and knot tying.

Instruction is given by members of Flotilla 57, most of whom are experienced offshore sport fishermen or charter boat captains, under the supervision of Training Officer Milton Palmer.

More than 6 million color telephones have been installed in homes and offices over the past few years. They are making indirect but valuable stimulus in business today.

Local Comet Dealers Named

Washington, D.C.—Franchisees to sell the economy Comet when Ford Motor Company's new car is offered to the public in March have been awarded to two dealers in the Norfolk area.

The new dealers, according to William B. Grete, Washington district sales manager for Lincoln-Mercury Division, are:

M. D. North, Inc., of Norfolk, and Alphin Motors, Inc., of Virginia Beach.

Mr. Grete revealed that the new economy car will be offered in a wide selection of models and will be powered by an economical six cylinder engine of the most modern design. The Comet has a suggested retail price of $1,998 for the two-door sedan. This is similar to the "sticker price," but does not include state and local taxes or delivery charges, which vary from state to state.

The Comet has a 114-inch wheelbase for the best combination of maneuverability and riding comfort, Mr. Grete said. "This fact, plus the Comet's smart, tasteful styling, its 28-mile-per-gallon economy, its price in the lower end of the compact, and its extra luggage capacity lifts the Comet out of the second-car, city driving type and elevates it to the usefulness of a true family car," he added.

MRS. DRILL TO ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF MISS BUCKLIN
On Friday afternoon, March 4, Mrs. Joseph Deal, Holly Point, will entertain at tea in honor of Mrs. Bertha Bucklin of Philadelphia. Miss Bucklin is here for a week evaluating the Friends School. Other invited guests are the faculty members of the Friends School. Mrs. Deal teaches fifth grade at Friends School.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Needs Demand New Schools

On March 15 the voters of Princess Anne County will cast their ballot either FOR or AGAINST the $5,500,000 school bond issue. The bond issue has been proposed by the Princess Anne County School Board and here are some of the pertinent reasons given:

(a) Princess Anne County Schools experienced their greatest increase for the session 1959-1960; an increase of 3,000 pupils over 1958-1959. Information from reliable sources such as housing developments, planning commission, and school authorities indicates a continuation of this trend for several years.

(b) Princess Anne High School is operating with 600 pupils above its intended capacity. To accommodate the 900 ninth graders who would normally attend Princess Anne High School, Kempsville Junior High School will continue to operate on an abbreviated schedule in 1960-1961.

(c) Kempsville Junior High is now operating on an abbreviated day for our eighth grade and must extend the schedule to the ninth grade in 1960-61.

(d) At least 75 per cent of the first and second grades in Princess Anne County will be on shifts for the 1960-1961 session due to shortage of classrooms.

It is elementary to say that more and more schools are necessary in this fast growing area. The need is urgent and we feel certain that the people will vote FOR the bond issue on March 15.

Norfolk—'All-American City'

We have watched closely with justifiable pride the progress and advancement made by the City of Norfolk through the years and particularly the progress that the city has experienced since the close of World War II. The Norfolk Story is truly one of achievement.

And, now our good neighbor has been recognized throughout the Nation by being selected for a special award as an "All-American City." This gives us a good feeling to witness this deserved recognition come to the City of Norfolk.

Norfolk is to be congratulated in being one of the select few cities in the Nation to be so honored by the "All-American Award." We certainly extend our congratulations.

The transformation that has taken place in Norfolk has not come about by chance. It has come from sound leadership by Mayor W. Fred Duckworth and other members of the City Council and by energetic and resourceful civic leaders. It has been a cooperative effort spearheaded by the city government of which Mayor Duckworth is the leader.

We congratulate Mayor Duckworth and the good people of Norfolk and have come to learn that this progress will continue through the fine spirit evidenced by the citizens of Norfolk and its leaders.

A Good Annexation Bill

The Ames-Marsh annexation bill which was approved by the Senate committee this week by a 21-17 vote is a fair bill and would place a five-year moratorium on expansion.

If the Ames-Marsh bill is finally adopted into law it will not work a hardship on anyone. It is true that the cities feel that it will be like a noose around their necks in the matter of future annexation, but this is not the case.

Should the bill become law there should remain the peaceful and friendly cooperation that has existed between Norfolk City and the County of Princess Anne.

It is absolutely necessary that the two localities, that is, Norfolk and Princess Anne work together and in harmony. This bill will not prevent annexation of as much as five square miles holding at least 5,000 persons.

This bill will not work a hardship on the City of Virginia Beach, either, in any future annexation plans it might have. Under the bill's provisions the City of Virginia Beach would be permitted to proceed at any time it feels it is justified after the waiting period contained in the bill.

We earnestly believe the bill as now approved by the Senate is workable and is one that both counties and cities can live with.

Personal Mention

The Rev. and Mrs. Edmund Berkeley, the Rev. and Mrs. Henry C. Burton Jr., and the Rev. and Mrs. Emmanuel C. Bach returned last Friday to their homes here after attending the Clergy Conference of Southern Virginia at the Roush Episcopal Conference Center at Roanoke.

Cmdr. and Mrs. J. B. Stetson and three children, who have been residing on 3rd Street, left Monday to make their home in San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. John B. Norfleet is spending several days in Richmond visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Maser Jr.

Mrs. Charles M. Lovitt, Headmistress of the Country Day School for Girls in Philadelphia, Pa., attending the National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rockwell of Washington, D.C., spent last weekend at the Princess Anne County Club.

Mr. Edmund H. Johnson and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. H. Johnson Jr., and her two sons are spending two weeks in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Wilson Jr. spent last weekend in Baltimore, Md., with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Woodruff III.

At the end of September, 1958, there were over 65,000,000 telephones in the United States. Of this total, there are fewer than 3,000 telephones which cannot be connected with the others.

Japanese Tea Theme of Golden Years Club Meet

Tea was served in Japanese theme to 30 members and guests of the Golden Years Club of Virginia Beach, Thursday, Feb. 25 in the Thunderbird Lodge dining room.

Mayor Frank A. Dusch, guest of honor, spoke in brief compliment of the club. Miss Faye Cuppel, local soloist, rendered two lovely solos during the tea with Mrs. Russell Glimbert accompanist.

Mrs. J. J. Burch Jr. of Norfolk gave an interesting theme on "Bakari" (Japanese dish garden) and the interesting and beautiful art of the Japanese women was brought with sincere appreciation and delight. The club offers an excellent means of uniting more fellowship among the "older" group in the community.

African Violet Society Welcomes New Members

The Lynnhaven African Violet Society met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Diggs.

Mrs. John Simile and Mrs. O. V. Glikin were voted into the club as new members.

It was decided the society shall hold a Violet Clinic this spring, date to be announced later.

All members are requested to make a list of 25 of their favorite violets and turn them in to Mrs. Diggs to be sent to the National African Violet Society.

Ribbons for plants were awarded to Mrs. Harry Billups, Mrs. Carl Lindblad, Mrs. C. L. Hershberger and Mrs. C. H. Diggs.

Those winning ribbons for arrangements were Mrs. Hershberger, Mrs. Diggs and Mrs. Harry Billups.

King Named Football Coach At High School

Claude King, assistant backfield coach for the past several years and Jayvee basketball and golf coach at the Virginia Beach High School, has been named head football coach.

At the same time another annexation bill proposed by Delegate Charles B. Cross, Jr. of Norfolk County would lengthen the time between annexation proceedings by a city from the present eight year period to 10 years.

Child Neglect Charge Brings 12 Months Sentence

A United States Navy man with a nearly perfect 17-year service record was sentenced to 12 months imprisonment Tuesday in Princess Anne Circuit Court for child neglect.

The Navy man sentenced was Henry C. White, 38, who was charged with neglect of his 21 year old illegitimate son. The infant, Robert Hunter, now blind, with apparent brain damage, is in a state institution.

Judge Wahab said of White: "My only regret is that I cannot impose a stronger sentence." Twelve months is the maximum for the charge.

Seahawks Surprise Of Tournament

The surprising Virginia Beach Seahawks fell before the favored Southampton basketball team last Saturday in the finals of the District One, Group Two play at Craddock, but only after holding the champions at bay. The score was 56 to 47.

Virginia Beach, seeded seventh, surprised everyone in its march to the final round. It beat Prince George in a thriller, 71 to 69, in the semi-finals. George Chapel sank two foul shots for the victory.

educational and fund raising drive. "We believe that you can't measure human life in dollars and cents. Certainly not the half million lives of the men, women and children who develop cancer every year. Last year the people of America confirmed our belief. We know that this year the people of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne will give their voluntary and generous support to help sustain the momentum of our three programs of research, service and education.

"The cancer society supports more than 1,000 scientists who are trying to defeat cancer for all time. But there is so much we can do about this disease right now. Right now, we can, and must, try to save the lives that are wasted every year. I refer to the 85,000 people who die of cancer simply because they don't get to the doctor in time.

"This 'now' aspect of our program is heartening and unique. It depends on our public and professional education programs, and our service program. And they depend on you. There are areas in these programs that urgently need expansion. If we can meet these unmet needs, we can save more lives. It is as simple as that."

"The theme of 'Guard Your Family' is very apt," Mr. Haycock pointed out. "Two of three families in our community will be confronted by the tragedy and burden of cancer—sooner or later. That's true in every community in the country. It will continue to be true until the disease is conquered. As it will be, given time and money."

"Meanwhile, it's up to you to guard your family, to give them the best possible chance in the event that cancer strikes. And that's up to you, what you can do to prevent cancer."

"We know that a regular health checkup often uncovers a 'harmless' condition that might, if neglected, lead to cancer. And a checkup can also find a tumor while it is still small and hopeful to cure."

exemptions as proposed by White and other patrons of the bill (The Virginia Tuberculosis Association and other charitable agencies were included) would be a bad precedent.

The state tax commissioner, C. H. Morriess, told the House Finance committee the bill was unconstitutional, but the committee reported it and the House and Senate passed it.

The bill to create a Rudee Inlet Authority passed the Senate this week. It was introduced in the House by White, and passed there earlier. The authority would dredge the inlet and create a marina for deep-sea fishing parties.

The Ames bill to authorize the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors to hold regular meetings each month also has passed both houses.

Another pending Princess Anne bill is the Ames' bill to permit the county to expand the acreage used for refuse disposal. It has passed the Senate and is being considered in the House General Laws Committee.

If the Assembly enacts a state-wide cigarette tax, it might become more difficult for Princess Anne to enact the local one it is seeking. The county wants to enact a cigarette tax, such as Virginia Beach, already has.

Missing 10 Months, Oceana Navy Man Decides to Come Back

An Oceana Naval Air Station sailor, missing for 10 months, turned himself over to authorities near an Oceana used car lot Monday morning.

The sailor is William Thomas White, 28, a disbaring clerk at Oceana, who disappeared last May 11 after leaving his home and driving to Shell's Landing in Princess Anne County.

White had called Capt. H. Mason June, Oceana's chief criminal investigator, last Sunday evening and told June that he wanted to give himself up.

From the story White tells he continually used his correct name during the period of his absence. It had appeared that White had vanished from the face of the earth.

Throughout the 10-month period White lived at Bellhaven and Washington, N.C., a distance of about 100 miles from Norfolk. He worked first on shrimp boats and later as a truck driver.

He continuously used his own name. On two different occasions a trucking manifest called for a delivery at the Naval Station in Norfolk. White bethily made the deliveries, signing his own name as he was checked through the gate.

His North Carolina chauffeur's license was applied for in his own name.

And so were the paychecks that he received. And his social security payments.

June emphasizes that some statements "have to be checked out," but from all appearances it would seem that not once during this entire time did the sailor attempt to represent himself as any person other than William Thomas White.

The story he told June Monday—before being turned over to the Oceana NAS legal office and transferred to the brig at the Norfolk Naval Air Station—went like this:

When White got up that morning in May, he had "made up his mind that he had had enough." He was deeply in debt, had a wife and child to support. Another baby was six months on the way.

Freedom lay in his boat. He headed it down North Landing river into Currituck Sound and into the Interoceanic Waterway.

Swinging across the mouth of the Pasquotank River, he spent six days on Fog Island hauling fish nets to acquire gasoline money.

Saturday, he continued south down the Alligator River to Bellhaven. There he worked on shrimp boats until the latter part of July when he moved to Washington and a job as a truck driver.

A week ago, one trucking job took him through his hometown of Martinsville. By sheer coincidence, he saw his sister walking down the street.

It was all he could do to drive past without stopping. He did—but it nearly tore his heart out. He wanted to give up.

Then last Saturday came the straw that broke the camel's back. White had been saving his money for a trucking manifest called for a delivery at the Naval Station in Norfolk. In the event of being picked up, he reasoned, he could make sure his wife received it.

Saturday in Jackson, Tenn., he stopped for a sandwich and coffee. When he returned, he discovered he had forgotten to lock the cab. His money—all $800 of it—was missing.

Back in Washington, he related to his boss the history of the past 10 months. "I'm giving myself up," he said.

White called his father in Martinsville. White Sr., his son's wife, sister and brother-in-law, met him in Emporia. There a telephone call was made to a startled Capt. June.

June says that charge papers are being drawn up, but that their course will determine whether or not White receives a summary or general court martial.

As for White: "I'm glad it's over," he says.

Nation's 'Coach of Year' at Sports Jamboree Monday

Once again the Virginia Beach Sports Club brings to the resort City a noted sports figure for its Annual Sports Jamboree. For the fourth year in the club's eight year history, it will present a "Coach of the Year." This year Coach Ben Swartzwelder, coach of the famous Syracuse University football team, will be the principle speaker.

The meeting will be held on Monday night, March 7th at the Cape Colony Club with the Social Hour at 6:30 followed by Dinner at 7:30.

Last year the "Coach of the Year" chosen annually by sports coaches and sports writers throughout the nation, was Coach Leo Diezel of the LSU Tigers. Others have been the late Jim Tatum when he was a Maryland, and "Peasehead" Walker, former Coach of the Year in Cape Colony Club.

In past years such outstanding names as Mel Allen, sportscaster; Andy Gustafson, University of Miami coach; Jack Lavelle, toastmaster par-excellence and scout for the N. Y. Giants football and baseball teams and Coach John Michaelson of Pittsburgh University.

The Virginia Beach Sports Club was organized in February, 1952 and has a membership of approximately one hundred members, some of who meet each Tuesday at 7 p.m. to hear some sports authority or see a sports film. Once each month the clubs holds an evening meeting so that the many members who work away from Virginia Beach during the day may have a chance to be with the group more.

Usually these evening meetings are in the form of Oyster Roast, Fish Fry or dinner with an outstanding sports speaker.

Konrad Crosser is the outgoing president and Fred Isaacs will be installed as president for the coming year.

Each year the Sports Club makes a presentation to the "Sportsman of the Year" in its first year of operation; W. W. "Bill" McClean, for his part in promotion of Golf Tournament at Virginia Beach.

For national importance, Leo Kerner, Princess Anne Country Club golf pro, for his work with the young golfers of the area; Tom Daley, Coast Guardman, for his many hours of work with the Little League; John Tucker, for his work with his nationally publicized girls AAU basketball teams and work with youth baseball programs.

B. M. Stanton for his work with the Babe Ruth baseball movement at Virginia Beach. Last year Dickie Mumford was honored for his untiring efforts in helping in any sports activity at the beach.

Scorekeeper, chief umpire for Little League and Babe Ruth League, referee and all-around booster.

Membership fee in the Virginia Beach Sports Club is only $10 per year and from this the club sponsors basketball and baseball teams, and makes contributions to other sporting activities. The club makes annual awards to the football and basketball teams at Virginia Beach High School and entertains them.

teams at one of the regular meetings. In past years the Sports Club has played a major part in bringing to the area golf tournaments and basketball games. It has sponsored the State AAU Women's Basketball Tournament and given help to the World's Champion Surf Casters team. Each summer the club's membership spearheads the work in promoting the Annual East-West High School Football game.

Princess Anne County School officials are spreading the word on the reasons for the $5,500,000 bond issue to be voted on March 15 in the form of an attractive brochure.

Distribution of the brochures is currently underway throughout the county. The printed matter has a front panel that shows the overcrowded classroom conditions which now exist and then is pictured the adequate facilities the bond issue would provide.

The pamphlet says "the decision is yours" which means the issue is up to the people. The brochure urges passage of the bond issue on March 15.

Another feature of the brochure is a graph which clearly depicts the large deficit at the present time and the inadequate number of classrooms. It also shows the projected school enrollment in 1965.

According to the brochure the estimated population of Princess Anne County in 1945 will be 145,000 as compared to approximately 88,000 persons at the present time.

Watchtower Convention Set

Local Jehovah's Witnesses have completed their plans for attending their semi-annual circuit Bible Assembly. The assembly is being held at the Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina High School. Sessions will get underway tomorrow night at 8:45 p.m. and continue through Sunday.

According to M. C. Contides, a local minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, the principal feature of the assembly will be a public Bible lecture by a special representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, New York, David J. Thomas.

Thomas will deliver the principal address Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. He will speak on "Finding Peace in a Troubled World."

"Because of the tremendous growth taking place in our organization, the assembly theme is to 'Seek Peace and Pursue It,'" Contides stated, adding, "We believe the organization principles of peace and unity will release at the assembly will not only be beneficial to the local Witnesses, but to our community."

About 800 Witnesses representing six North Carolina and twelve Virginia congregations are expected to attend.

Why Not Let Citizens Vote on Annexation?

To the Editor:

Your editorial concerning the country boys (i.e. the Ames referendum bill), liked me very much at first, but after rereading it, it took on the air of some spoiled child's whining, and knowing that an adult wrote it, became very amusing. Your biased article has all the undertones of someone singing the blues.

You stated in your article, "Quite 'This measure (Ames) which is plainly designed to hamstring Norfolk and Richmond, would put the final say-so on annexation in the hands of the citizens to be annexed. This would simply kill annexation and bottle up the target cities for as long as the law stayed in force."

Why, Mr. Editor, why? What is so bad about a citizen being allowed a choice? Why would it kill annexation? Why would these citizens prefer living in the county? Could it be that the officials in the county recognize their constituents as being human beings?

Maybe if you could convince our officials and politicians to coerce, overrule, dictate to, and otherwise manipulate us, we will vote for annexation.

I, John V. Fentress, the duly qualified and acting Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, Virginia, do hereby certify that the foregoing resolution is a true, correct and compared copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, Virginia on January 25, 1960.

(Signed) John V. Fentress, Clerk
Board of Supervisors of Princess
Anne County, Virginia

OFF, the Court doth approve said loan and bond issue, which approval is here entered of record, together with the action of said Board, and the Court deeming it necessary for the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, Virginia to issue bonds not in excess of $3,500,000.00 for the construction of two secondary schools and three or more elementary schools, and that said resolutions have been properly passed and certified to the Court by the said County School Board and Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, in accordance with law.

It is therefore, ADJUDGED AND ORDERED that the Judges of Election of said Magisterial District of the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, namely: Kempville, Bayside, Lynnhaven, Seaboard, Pungo, and Blackwater, SHALL on Tuesday the 15th day of March, 1960, open the polls of each and every voting precinct of each and every of the Magisterial Districts in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, and take the sense of the qualified voters of the said County of Princess Anne,
Virginia, on the question:

"Shall the County School Board of Princess Anne County, Virginia issue bonds in behalf of Princess Anne County and payable out of the funds of Princess Anne County for a sum not in excess of $3,500,000.00, for the construction of two secondary schools and three or more elementary schools, including the purchase of sites, architectural services, equipment, furniture and fixtures, and other costs incident to the construction of the plants?"

The Sheriff of the County of Princess Anne is hereby directed to post and publish a copy of this order of the voting precincts in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, at least twenty (20) days before the 15th day of March, 1960, and the said School Board shall cause this order to be published in the City of Virginia Beach Sun-News, a newspaper published in the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and having a general circulation in the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, and this County is directed to have prepared, according to law, suitable ballots to be used in the election hereby ordered; and the regular election officers of the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, on the 15th day of March, 1960, shall open all of the polls in the voting precincts of the County of Princess Anne, Virginia, and shall conduct the said election and close the polls in such manner as provided by law in other elections. The said election shall be conducted, the results ascertained, and the returns made and certified in all respects as is required by law.

Mrs. Wakefield Welcome Wagon Hostess for Area

Mrs. O. W. Wakefield of this city, has returned from New York City where she completed a course of training preparing her for the position of Welcome Wagon Hostess which she now holds in this community.

Mrs. Wakefield resides at 187 Lake Shore Drive and is one of Welcome Wagon's approximately 5,000 Hostesses who are making approximately a million calls annually on families in the continental United States, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and in the Provinces of Canada, embracing more than 2000 cities.

These calls on behalf of Welcome Wagon's approximately 70,000 Sponsors are made on such important family occasions as the birth of a baby, sixteenth birthdays, engagements, Announcements, also when families move locally in a community and when they arrive in a community as new residents. Calls are also made on Special Occasions such as Golden Wedding Anniversaries and other special family events.

Thomas W. Briggs is Founder and President of Welcome Wagon, which is now in its 32nd year.

Often referred to as a service which is "in the business of building friendships," Welcome Wagon's basic policy includes cooperation with all Religious Faiths, worthwhile Civic and Social Service groups; also participation in these activities which keep communities good places in which to live. It is significant that Welcome Wagon has been cited for its volunteer service and achievement in community and nation by such organizations as the American Red Cross, National Foundation, American Heart Association, American Heritage Foundation, United States Treasury Department and many other such groups.

Welcome Wagon service is one not only of public relations but, more important, it meets a present-day need in the field of human relations.

Mrs. Wakefield, on behalf of her Sponsors here in Virginia Beach, will take Religious and Civic information to the families on whom she calls. With her basket of gifts, Mrs. Wakefield will extend for those Sponsors to the people of this community the old-fashioned hospitality for which Welcome Wagon is so well known.

Mrs. Wakefield knows this community. She is interested in its welfare and in its progress, including the well-being of its citizens.

Mrs. J. P. Reynolds, 208 Ben Gunn Road, Bayside, is Mrs. Wakefield's assistant hostess.

Vet Service Officer To Visit Beach

To Speak Here

DR. ERNEST F. EDWARDS

Dr. E. P. Edwards Last Speaker of Audubon Series

Dr. Ernest F. Edwards will be the last speaker of the 1959-60 Audubon series sponsored by the Virginia Beach, Princess Anne County Council of Garden Clubs. This event will be held Thursday, March 3 at 8 p.m. in the Virginia Beach High School Auditorium.

Dr. E. P. Edwards Last Speaker of Audubon Series

Dr. Edwards was born in India of American parents and has been a traveler ever since. His undergraduate training was at the University of Virginia; his Master's and Ph.D. degrees were awarded at Cornell University. He gathered material for his doctoral dissertation on birds in Mexico. His book, "Finding Birds in Mexico," has had wide use among tourists traveling south of the border.

In the film presentation Dr. Edwards shows in Mexico's Yucatan, there are bird-haunted jungles where the last cities of a once great civilization lie in decay.

Even today no one knows for certain the causes that brought about the Mayan decline.

While the Mayan setting Ernest Edwards has filmed in color and action, the brilliant birds and animal life still found in Yucatan today.

Proceeds from these Audubon Series Tours will go for the advancement of the study of conservation in the local schools.

Writing Contest Judges Named

Names of final judges in the Creative Writing Contest sponsored by the American Association of University Women, Virginia Division, have been announced as follows:

Poetry: Emma Gray Trigg, born in Norfolk, resident of Richmond, has published in leading newspapers, magazines, and literary journals. Chairman editorial board of Littie Virginia Today, Vol. II. Served as judge in many poetry contests, and has given poetry readings and lectures frequently in Virginia.

Short Story: Doris Betts, lives in Sanford, North Carolina. Winner Mademoiselle annual college fiction award, 1953, winner first book-length contest sponsored jointly by G. P. Putnam and UNC, with collection of short stories, The Gentle Insurrection. Winner Sir Walter Raleigh award for first book of fiction by a Tarheel in 1957 with a first novel, Tall Houses. Winner Received a Guggenheim Fellowship for 1958-59. Currently working on a novel.

Non-Fiction Articles and Essays: Charles R. McDowell, Jr., of Virginia. Educated at Washington and Lee, Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, Columnist, Richmond Times-Dispatch. Correspondent for Newsweek. Teacher of writing at Richmond Professional Institute.

Short Short Story: H. Hall Katzenbach, Jr., of Bethesda, Md. Teaching staff, Sidwell Friends High School. Conducts small study groups in writing. Judge of AAUW Creative Writing Contest, 1959, and assisted in revision of rules for 1960 contest.

Stories for Children: Elizabeth McDA Black, Associate professor at Queen's University, Charlotte, N. C. Co-author with Julian Schuler of Twistale, The Blue Ridge Steamroller, a story of the famous narrow gauge railroad of the Blue Ridge. Many of the stories that make up the book were told by her to engineers and conductors who had served the train for many years.

Deadline for the contest is April 1, 1960, after which date these judges will select the best three manuscripts out of a selection of six in each category. Winners will be announced and certificates of award given at the Virginia Highlands Festival, Abingdon, on Creative Writing Day, August, 1960.

The contest, initiated by AAUW to encourage amateur writers of Virginia and so add written expression to the arts represented at the Virginia Highlands Festival, attracts interest throughout the state. About 200 non-professional writers have participated in past years.

Rules sheets may be obtained from Mrs. V. B. Tate, Arts Chairman, Virginia Beach Branch, AAUW.

4-H Speaking Contest Winners Are Announced

Twenty nine 4-Hers participated in the Princess Anne County 4-H Public Speaking Contest held at Woodstock School on Feb. 24. These were selected from the 56 members who entered club contests.

The county winners of the Junior divisions were Ruth Ann Oliver, whose topic was "Food is Fun," and Jack Howerton, who spoke on "Astronomy." Virginia Kelly and David Moulton were the Senior winners.

The winner of each division will receive a ribbon, a scholarship, to attend 4-H Camp this summer and an opportunity to speak at the several county 4-H events. The winners of the senior division will represent Princess Anne at the district contest which will be held at Petersburg. The winners of the district contest will then compete for state honors at the 4-H Short Course at Blacksburg in June.

Boys and girls could choose their own topics for this contest. The speeches were approximately three minutes long for the junior contestants and five to seven minutes long for the senior members.

World Day of Prayer To Be Observed Here

World Day of Prayer will be observed at the First Baptist Church, Virginia Beach, Friday, March 4, at 11 a.m.

The purpose of the World Day of Prayer is to unite all Christians in a bond of prayer and Christian fellowship with others around the world and to make an offering for inter-denominational projects at home and abroad.

The theme of the meeting is "Laborers Together With God" and the program was prepared by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada.

The call to Prayer this year is from many different racial groups showing that we are one in Christ and how little language and race separate us in the expression of our Christian faith.

All are invited to attend and stay for an informal luncheon following the meeting.

Spaghetti Supper Slated March 10 At Cooke School

W. T. Cooke School PTA will hold its annual Spaghetti Supper and Bake Sale Thursday, March 10 from 5:30 to 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Mrs. James Lail, general chairman, promises an excellent dinner plus coffee and dessert. All proceeds from this endeavor will go to help pay for a deep freezer in the cafeteria.

The Bake Sale, under the able supervision of Mrs. Walt Griffith, will feature such delicious goodies as homemade cakes, cookies, pies, rolls and loaf breads. All bake items to be donated by mothers of the PTA.

Tickets are available from any Cooke School grade mother or can be purchased at the door, announces Mrs. W. B. Costenbader, ticket chairman. Adult tickets are $1.00 and student tickets, including high school students, are 50 cents.

A door prize will be given away to the holder of the lucky number beginning at a clock and every half-hour thereafter.

Local Employment Office Receives V.F.W. Award

The Virginia Beach office of the Virginia State Employment Service recently received an award for the placement of veterans in gainful employment.

The Virginia Beach office was one of five in the 35 offices throughout Virginia to receive this award which is given by the Department of Virginia, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Other offices to receive the award were Richmond, Galax, Charlottesville and Lynchburg. Manager H. H. Bendler stated this is the second time the Virginia Beach office has received this award. The first one was given for the year 1957. Mr. Bendler accepted the award for his office from Mr. F. C. Elliott Jr., Assistant Veterans' Employment Representative, for the state.

At the end of September, 1958, there were over 500,000 telephones in the United States. Of this total, there are fewer than 3,000 telephones which cannot be connected with the others.

An Open Invitation to the Voters of Princess Anne County

Tuesday, March 15, may well be labeled "D Day" — "Decision Day" — for the voters of Princess Anne County. On that day the citizens of the county will be given an opportunity to register their approval of a $5,500,000 school bond issue to construct some very badly needed school plants. The County School Board has asked for and received the concurrence of the County Board of Supervisors and the Circuit Court for a county-wide referendum which, if approved, will enable the school authorities to construct two secondary school plants and three or more elementary plants.

As Virginia's fastest growing political subdivision, Princess Anne County had an increase of three thousand pupils last September over the preceding September. Projected housing indicates that this tremendous growth may be expected to continue for the foreseeable future. If serious overcrowding of classes and large-scale part time instruction are to be averted, it is imperative that the school plants which the March 15 bond issue will provide be constructed at the earliest possible moment.

Good schools makes good citizens. You, the voters, can give today's children and tomorrow's citizens the educational opportunity they richly deserve, and our country needs.

VFW Auxiliary Dinner Meeting Held at Dunes

The Ladies Auxiliary to Post 7106, Virginia Beach, held a combined dinner-business meeting at the Dunes Motel Hotel. After a very nice dinner, Mrs. Glen Dill, president, called the meeting to order. Fourteen members were present.

The Auxiliary welcomed back Mrs. Paul Macfarlan, a former member, and was happy to have back Mrs. Sarah Aydelott, a charter member. Mrs. Joseph Peeney, a new member, was also introduced.

Various committee chairmen made reports: Youth Activities chairman, Mrs. Purrell Walker, thanked members for having helped her with a Valentine party which was given for the Girl Scout troop sponsored by the Auxiliary and the children of the Post and Auxiliary members. Mrs. Earl Garrett, Cancer chairman, reported that 10 dozen cancer pads had been made by Auxiliary members. Mrs. Dill said that, "As we draw near the end of our year the Auxiliary is in a good financial state and that we expect by the end of March the Auxiliary will have completed all banner requirements."

Mrs. Dill presented Mrs. Earl Garrett with a five-year membership pin. Mrs. Garrett has served as treasurer for the entire five years. The Auxiliary is indebted to her for a very fine job.

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at the Post Home on 17th Street, Virginia Beach, on March 14. The Auxiliary would be happy to accept applications for membership from eligible ladies at any time. Requirements for membership is that a prospective member have had a father, husband, son or brother who has served the U.S.A. over seas during wartime. Anyone wishing further information may contact Mrs. Glen Dill at GA 8-5028 or any member of the Auxiliary.

BAYSIDE NEWS BULLETIN

By RITA D. YELLEN

BAYSIDE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

Mrs. A. L. Hipman won in the "better dress" classification of the Vogue Sewing Contest which was held Wednesday, Feb. 24, at the Norfolk Woman's Club. Her dress was a traditional style made of flowered taffeta. Her accessories were a beige hat and bag, olive green shoes and gloves. She will compete in the district contest, which will be held March 30 at the Chamberlain Hotel.

FORRESTAL ENLISTED MEN'S WIVES CLUB

The USS Forrestal Enlisted Men's Wives Club held a social Feb. 19 at the club room of the Enlisted Men's Club on Hampton Blvd. The following new members have been received into the club: Mrs. Rita Plant, Mrs. Muriel Peck, Mrs. Elaine Harper and Mrs. Delores Meier. Guests present were Mrs. Joanne Zipperer and Mrs. Mildred Wilson.

Some of the games enjoyed by the members were the egg walk, "what's my name?" gossip, and charades. Prizes were awarded the winners.

The next regular meeting will be held March 8 at 10 a.m. at the Enlisted Men's Club on Hampton Blvd. All wives of husbands serving on the Forrestal are cordially invited to join the club. A copy of the constitution is provided for the meeting. Those wishing additional information are asked to contact Mrs. Edna Inks, 1424 River Oaks Drive.

BAYSIDE CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Sunday night, Feb. 28, 8 p.m. The church met and discussed the membership campaign which will be held during Lent. Those present were: Eugene P. Caldwell, chairman; D. B. Smith Sr., R. W. Spruill, C. S. Nicks, James Green, Joseph Hyder, John Baker and W. H. Gaylord.

Tuesday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. the Finance Board composed of the following members met at the church: C. B. Osterander, chairman; John Fisher, Earl Gallop, Mr. and Mrs. David Gregory. The Board is charged with cultivating Stewardship among the members of the church.

Thursday, March 3, at 7:35 p.m. the Ruth Smith Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Busbee, 1612 Clyde St. The leader of the group is Mrs. John Guback.

Friday, March 4, a delegation from the Woman's Fellowship of the church will attend the World Day of Prayer at the First Baptist Church, Virginia Beach. The service begins at 11 a.m. It is being sponsored by the Princess Anne County United Church Women.

Rev. G. J. Jones, pastor of the church, has announced as this subject for the Lenten Season, "The Seven Last Words of Christ." This theme will continue through Palm Sunday. Special music will be provided by the choir for this theme.

Rev. G. J. Jones will leave next Sunday afternoon, March 6, to attend Youth Week's Retreat at Bricks, N.C. This program is sponsored by the National Council of Churches in co-operation with the National Council of Churches Youth Department. He will return March 8.

LAKEVIEW WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Lakeview/Woman's Club met Tuesday, Feb. 23 at the home of Mrs. W. F. Wilson on Cullen Road, at 8 p.m. The club voted to plant shrubbery at the entrance to the community. Signs were recently erected through the joint effort with the Lakeview Shoreline League.

Mrs. Patricia King, principal of Shelton Park School, discussed the coming bond issue for new schools in Princess Anne County.

Mrs. Elizabeth Deal, county home demonstration agent, judged the entries for the Vogue Sewing Contest. Mrs. George Olson was the winner with her two piece suit of grey flannel.

Mrs. Deal talked to the club on selecting drapery, slipcovers and floor covering. She demonstrated her talk with swatches of materials. She stressed the importance in selecting a color scheme that will please you. As you are the one who will have to live with it.

LAKE SHORES GARDEN CLUB HOLDS LUNCHEON FOR NEW MEMBERS

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every properly owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These little things add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Lenten Meal with Enjoyment

"Crab Meat au Gratin" is a delicious entree you'll want to serve often throughout the Lenten season. For an added plus in nourishment, packaged pre-cooked rice is included in the crab mixture . . . and for pretty service this specialty is baked in individual sea shells.

Crab Meat au Gratin

2 tablespoons butter
1 1/2 cups Minute Rice
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
Melt butter in skillet. Add packaged pre-cooked rice and sauté over medium heat until golden brown, stirring constantly. Add soup, milk, salt, pepper, and Worcestershire sauce. Mix well. Bring mixture to a boil. Cover and simmer for 5 minutes. Then add crab meat, mix lightly, and heat thoroughly. Turn mixture into individual baking dishes, or into a 1-quart baking dish. Sprinkle cheese over top. Place under broiler for about 5 minutes, or until lightly browned. Makes 4 cups, or 4 servings.

In homes where Lenten fast is observed, cheese and egg dishes are most important this time of year. Even where meatless meals are not part of the religious observance, however, homemakers seek out new ideas for utilizing the plentiful "good buys" in cheese and eggs which they find in their food stores this time of year.

Tomato Cheese Souffle, a crimson puff of beaten cheese and eggs, yields a wealth of flavor with each mouthful. Baked till the top is crusted with a beautiful golden-brown, this souffle cuts with a spoon into colorful, feathery light servings that the family will find hard to resist. Again broccoli, asparagus or a tossed salad is an ideal plate-mate.

The crimson color and the rich tomato flavor of this souffle come from condensed tomato soup which is combined with melted cheese, then with the soup.

Tomato Cheese Souffle

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Heinz Condensed Tomato Soup, undiluted
1 cup grated process American Cheese
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
5 eggs, separated
Heat oven to 300° F. (slow). Melt butter in saucepan; blend in flour; add soup, cheese, salt and pepper. Cook, stirring constantly, until cheese is melted. Cool slightly. Gradually stir tomato mixture into slightly beaten egg yolks. Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry; fold into soup mixture. Pour into ungreased 2-quart casserole. Place in pan of warm water. Bake 1 hour or until knife when inserted comes out clean. Makes 5-6 servings.

Tomato Egg Ramekins feature hard-cooked egg slices sauced with the zippy flavor of condensed cream of mushroom soup, tomato ketchup and sautéed onions. Parmesan cheese is used for a topping in this easy-to-prepare broiler dish.

Tomato Egg Ramekins

1 medium onion, thinly sliced
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Heinz Condensed Cream of Mushroom Soup, undiluted
1/2 cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup
6 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1 cup grated Parmesan cheese
Sauté onion in butter until tender; add soup and ketchup; beat. Arrange egg slices in layers in 4 ramekins, using 1 1/2 eggs per serving. Cover with hot sauce; sprinkle with cheese. Place under broiler until cheese is lightly browned. Garnish with toast points and serve. Makes 4 servings.

Celery Cheese Strata

12 slices day old bread
1 pound process American cheese, thinly sliced
4 eggs, beaten
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Heinz Condensed Cream of Celery Soup, undiluted
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper

Remove crusts from bread; arrange 6 slices in bottom of greased baking dish (12"x8"x2"); cover bread with half the cheese; repeat layers. Combine eggs and remaining ingredients; pour over bread and cheese. Let stand 15 minutes. Bake at 350° (moderate) for 30 minutes or until puffed and lightly

P.A. Woman's Club Holds Tea, Exhibit

The Fine Arts Department of the Woman's Club for Princess Anne County, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. O. Kidd and Mrs. William C. Ashman, sponsored a tea and art exhibit on Feb. 23 at Scott Memorial Church.

A program consisting of art slides on the National Gallery in Washington was presented. Tea and art exhibits followed the program.

The following persons received awards for their paintings in the artists competition:

Blue ribbon award went to Mrs. William C. Ashman for her still life portrait and pastel landscape. Red ribbon award went to Mrs. Carlton E. Seay for her portrait painting.

Under the novice classification the following won awards for their work:

Landscapes: A blue ribbon was awarded Mrs. James V. McElhinney; red ribbon went to Mrs. F. H. Strieby and gold ribbon to Mrs. Roy Aycock. Portraits: Mrs. Waverly J. Dickens Jr. was awarded blue, red and gold ribbons for her portrait paintings.

Still life awards went to Mrs. C. O. Kidd, blue ribbon; Mrs. James V. McElhinney, red ribbon and Mrs. John Covington, gold ribbon.

Mrs. Frank Blackford, noted artist, whose painting was accepted by the Norfolk Museum, was judge. The paintings receiving awards will go to the Chamberlain Hotel on March 29 to compete with the District in the art contest.

Mrs. J. V. McElhinney was in charge of the tea table assisted by Mrs. Dickens and Mrs. Ira L. Hancock.

Mrs. Norman Sedell is instructor of the Fine Arts Department.

YOUR JEFFERSON STANDARD MR. 4% REPORTS TO POLICYHOLDERS

"More Protection Than Ever Before"

"I am pleased to report to my friends and policyholders on some of the accomplishments of the Company I represent. Sales of Jefferson Standard life insurance, amounting to more than 234 million dollars in 1959, exceeded all past records and brought insurance in force to a new all time high of over 1.9 billion dollars on December 31.

"This huge amount of insurance in force represents money for future delivery—evidence of practical planning for the future by more than 400,000 Jefferson Standard policyholders.

"For 23 consecutive years, Jefferson Standard has maintained a position of leadership in rate of interest earned on invested assets. This favorable rate enables the Company to pay 4% on dividend accumulations and on policy proceeds left with the Company. This means extra income to our policyholders and beneficiaries. Four per cent is the highest rate paid by any major life insurance company in the United States.

"I am pleased to say that, through my own efforts, the benefits of life insurance were extended to a large group of additional policyholders and their families during the past year. I shall strive to merit the continued confidence of my clients in this area.

Jefferson Standard today is not only one of the largest but one of the strongest and most progressive life insurance companies in the nation."

"The highlights which appear below, taken from the Company's balance sheet and operating statement, indicate the increasing magnitude of Jefferson Standard services to policyholders from coast to coast. The

Around P.A. in Recreation

OCEANA — Basketball in Princess Anne County heads into its final stages this week with the final of the Men's League being held tonight in the Kempsville Junior High School. The rest of the leagues will finish up in the next couple of weeks.

With "Old Man Winter" on his way out and spring pushing his way in, boys are beginning to break out their baseball gloves and bats. Highlights of the season program and what is to come follows.

BASKETBALL

Men's League — The finals to decide the champions of the Men's Basketball League will be played in the Kempsville Junior High School tonight at 8 p.m.

Midget League — The first round of the consolation tournament to decide the champions in the Midget League will be played Saturday morning, March 5 beginning at 10 a.m. Two games will be played. The Ruritans and Shooting Stars have been seeded first and second, respectively.

Junior League — The London Bridge Hawks lost their first game of the season last Saturday to the Diamond Springs Comets, 34 to 33. Both teams will go into the tournament beginning Saturday, March 5, at 10 a.m. with identical records of seven wins and one loss.

High League — The Diamond Springs Colts are way out front in the High League with six wins and no losses. Big guns for the Colts are Johnny Strickland and James Newby.

Teen Girls — Virginia Beach, coached by John Tucker, is enjoying an undefeated season with seven wins and no losses. The sextet has one game to play against the Diamond Springs Phillips.

Duffers — Nick's Soda Shop gained a tie with the Kempsville Teachers by defeating them last Wednesday, 38 to 27. Each team has two games remaining in this league. Nick's looks like the best bet to win the championship since one of the games remaining on the Teachers schedule is with the Kempsville Bulls. A win for the Teachers against the Bulls would probably throw the league into a two-way tie between themselves and Nick's Soda Shop.

In the recreation office Tuesday, March 22nd at 3 p.m. Two other attempts to organize baseball for boys 15 and 16 years of age for the coming season have met with little success.

Midget League — The recreation office is now accepting entries for the Princess Anne County Midget Baseball League for the coming summer. Information may be obtained by calling the recreation office, GA 2-8891, between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Mondays through Fridays.

The Spring League will probably get underway during the latter weeks of April.

SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS

The Recreation Department is planning 13 summer playgrounds at various locations throughout the county for the coming summer. April 1st is the deadline for submitting applications to the recreation office for summer employment on the playgrounds.

According to Fenne, most of the trouble occurring in stored sweet potatoes is because of improper handling of potatoes at time of digging, or improper storage. If they are bruised or get too cold or hot in storage they are susceptible to many disease organisms.

But one of the main causes of trouble is that many growers do not clean their storage houses properly before putting in the new crop. Pieces of last year's potatoes, dirt or other foreign matter can harbor disease causing organisms. One of the best ways to prevent this type of trouble is to sweep out the storage rooms and then spray them with copper sulphate for the spray at the rate of five pounds of the material to 25 gallons of water. With a coarse spray, cover the walls and floors thoroughly. Proper handling in the field will eliminate bruises. Care should be taken that the storage place will protect the potatoes from very extreme cold or hot weather.

Paul McQuay Is 'Soldier of Month' For Second Time

Specialist, fourth class Paul T. McQuay has taken Fort Story's "Soldier of the Month" award for the second time in five months. Specialist McQuay, of the 417th Transportation Co., not only received the gold award for October, 1959 and February, 1960, but also was the 14th Terminal Battalion's "Soldier of the Month" in December.

The outstanding soldier was presented a Letter of Commendation on February 23 at 14th Terminal Battalion Headquarters by Major Warren J. Higgins, Battalion Commander. Attending the presentation was 1st Lt. James R. Poach, commanding officer of the 417th. McQuay received the award on the basis of neatness of appearance, military bearing and knowledge of military and current events.

Besides his "Soldier of the Month" awards, Specialist McQuay distinguished himself last month by being a member of the Fort Story group to attend the Non-Commissioned Officer's Academy at Fort Eustis.

Before entering the Army in July, 1958, Specialist McQuay attended Toccoa Falls Institute in Toccoa Falls, Ga., where he was president of his graduating class. The 19-year old resident of Union City, N.J., also lettered for two years in basketball and baseball.

Specialist McQuay came to Fort Story in July, 1959 and participated as a crane operator in the annual resupply mission to the Far North, last summer.

 The bull had caught the hired man halfway across the pasture and chased him into a tree. After being rescued, the hired man was saying:
 "Just as I felt his horns on the seat of my pants I leaped for a low-hanging branch — about 20 feet off the ground."
 "Did you make it?" someone asked.
 "Not on the way up," the hired man replied, "but I grabbed it coming down."

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK
 4-Hers in Princess Anne County will join the rest of the nation in observing National 4-H Club week from March 5 to 12. This year's theme is "Learn-Live-Love Through 4-H." The local youth are among the 21 million 4-Hers of America who belong to some 85,000 clubs in rural, urban, and suburban communities. Virginia has a 4-H enrollment of 71,724; Princess Anne County has 715 members.
 Many clubs in Princess Anne County are planning special activities. Among the activities planned are Assembly programs, P-T-A programs, exhibits, and several outstanding members will be on radio. These special programs give 4-Hers an opportunity to tell parents and other boys and girls what they are doing. They also give the members another opportunity to apply the things they have learned in 4-H.
 Nationally, 4-H Club Week will be highlighted in Washington, D.C. Six 4-H members will present the annual 4-H "Report to the Nation." The report will summarize in story and pictures outstanding 4-H accomplishments and current projects. The three girls and three boys, while in the Nation's Capital, expect to review the report with President Eisenhower at the White House. They also plan to visit Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, C. M. Ferguson, administrator of the Federal Extension Service, and various Senators and members of Congress on Capitol Hill.
 4-Hers everywhere will share honors with the 286,000 adult volunteer leaders who guide 4-H work in local communities throughout the 50 states and Puerto Rico. The main purposes of 4-H Club Week are to acquaint more young people with opportunities available to them through joining or forming 4-H Clubs, to assist new members in starting projects in farming, homemaking, community service, and other activities; and to inform the public about 4-H aims and methods.

FARM ACCIDENTS ARE PROFITLESS
 There's no profit in farm accidents. It is hard to put a dollar value on the cost of a farm accident because there are many indirect as well as direct costs which must be considered. The costs of farm work accidents are largely hidden. Some of these indirect costs are time lost by the injured worker, and cost of hired help to do the necessary work. There is often loss of farm crops because of delay in harvest, and damage to farm equipment.
 Farm and home accidents can be prevented. All members of the farm family are subject to farm accidents and should be involved in accident-prevention activities. Here are some statistics from the National Safety Council:
 In 1958, over 11,300 farm residents died because of accidents. Of these 5,100 resulted from motor vehicle accidents, 3,300 from work accidents, and 2,700 from home accidents. For every fatal accident about 85 farm residents were involved in a non-fatal accident. Nearly one out of every four fatal accidents occurred in the farm home. For every fatal accident in the farm home there were 145 non-fatal injuries.
 There are more work accidents fatalities in agriculture than in any other major industry.

MANY SOYBEANS SHOW LOW GERMINATION
 The Virginia Department of Agriculture reports that nearly half of the soybeans tested have a germination of less than 85 percent. In a normal year, very few lots of soybeans will have germination this low.
 The poor germination is a result of unusual weather conditions last fall. It cannot always be detected by looking at the seed. Many of the seeds have very small breaks and wrinkles on the seed coat, a result of weather damage. Soybeans in all areas of Virginia are affected. Soybean growers are urged to send a two-pound representative sample of the seed they intend to plant to the Division of Plant Industry, 1113 State Office Building, Richmond 18. The sender's name, address, and lot or bin number should be enclosed in each sample. Samples should be packed in a cloth bag or a paper container that will not break in shipment. If the test shows a germination of less than 80 percent, you should locate a source of quality seed as soon as possible. A shortage of quality seed of some varieties may develop. Do not buy or plant seed from any seedsmen or neighbor who had not tested his seed. Be sure to check the germination test on the tag before you pay for the seed.

FEED YOUR SOIL ENOUGH LIME
 Have you fed your soil lime (calcium and magnesium) recently? I bet, did you take a sample of soil for analysis to check the pH (pH) of your soil? Your answer to these questions can be very important, says G. R. Epperson, associate agronomist of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service. In fact, if lime is needed, each dollar invested in it will probably return three to ten fold the first year.
 To those who ask, "Why use lime?" Epperson explains: "Lubricant to the soil"—it keeps the mechanism operating smoothly. It reduces toxicity (friction) of aluminum and manganese in the soil. "Friction" is further reduced through increased availability of certain plant nutrients, particularly phosphorus.
 Lime lubricates the biologic mechanism of the soil, increasing nitrogen fixation by legumes. It also effects an increase in activity of the organisms that decompose organic matter. This is important since the benefits derived from organic matter in the soil result primarily from its decomposition. Through its action, calcium and magnesium, two of the elements needed in rather large amounts by plants, are added to the soil. These are needed by plants as well as by micro-organisms which help decompose organic matter.
 To aid in determining your lime needs, take a soil sample today. Epperson advises. Soil sample boxes can be obtained at my office. Also, I'll assist you in interpreting results and deciding on lime and fertilizer application.

TOP DRESS PASTURES FOR TOP CROPS
 If you haven't top-dressed pastures yet, there is still time to do the job. Top yielding pastures need adequate plant food. For orchard grass and ladino clover, or tall fescue and ladino clover, use from 400 to 800 pounds per acre of 0-14-14, 2-12-12, or 5-10-10 fertilizer.
 If a soil test shows the soil to be low in potash, use a 0-10-20 or a 3-9-18 analysis fertilizer at the same rate as above. Specialist advises a higher analysis fertilizer may be substituted at equivalent rates.

Richard Kellam Unopposed for New Judgeship of 28th Circuit

(Editor's Note: The following story was prepared Wednesday afternoon and could only be written as to what was expected to take place Wednesday night in Richmond. According to reliable sources in Richmond, Richard B. Kellam was slated to be nominated for the new judgeship of the 28th Judicial Circuit.)

By LARRY WEEKLEY
Sun-News Richmond Correspondent

RICHMOND, March 9 — Richard B. Kellam, Princess Anne County attorney, was expected to be nominated Wednesday night to fill the judgeship of the Princess Anne County of the 28th Judicial Circuit.

His nomination was expected to be without opposition by a Democratic caucus of the General Assembly. A routine, formal election of Kellam by the entire General Assembly is expected Thursday.

Del. P. B. White of Virginia Beach was scheduled to place Kellam's name in nomination at the caucus, seconded by Sen. E. Almer Ames Jr. of Onancock.

RICHARD B. KELLAM

Kellam's term would begin July 1, when a realignment of the 28th Judicial Circuit becomes effective. Portsmouth has been split away from the 28th by this session of the Assembly and made into a separate judicial circuit — the 38th. That leaves Princess Anne and Isle of Wight Counties in the 28th.

Judge Robert B. Wahab Jr., who was Judge Mackenzie's associate, now becomes chief judge of the 28th. Kellam will become Judge Wahab's junior.

Kellam, who lives in Princess Anne and has a law office in Norfolk, is a brother of Floyd E. Kellam, who was judge of the Princess Anne court for many years.

His election comes during the final scheduled week of the 1960 Assembly session. The Assemblymen are working hard to complete all business by midnight Saturday. Some legislators warned that the tax and budget squabbles may throw the session into an overtime week. But Floor Leader John Warren Cooke of Mathews predicted without reservation that the session will end Saturday night.

All the legislation introduced by the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach representatives — Sen. Ames and Del. White — is well on the way to enactment, with one exception. The exception is the Ames bill, an annexation bill which would forbid for five years any annexation of Princess Anne, Henrico and Norfolk Counties.

Sen. Ames told the House Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns at a hearing Tuesday that his bill would help counties and

P.A. Ruritans Preparing for Minstrel Show

Rehearsals are under way for the annual Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel show to be staged in the Princess Anne High School on the nights of April 8 and 9, according to Joe T. Crosswhite Jr., general chairman.

County Treasurer V. Alfred Etheridge will again serve as Interlocutor and Clarke W. Graves is the musical director. John S. McFall is the director.

Tommy Thompson is chairman of the program committee and James G. Darden is serving as ticket chairman.

Featured as end men in the show will be Graham Dalton, Richard Kellam, Les Lam, John McFall, Frank Malbon, George Mullen, Murray Malbon, John Skillman, Ivan D. Mapp and John Vaughan.

The two performances are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. and the general admission is one dollar per person. The minstrel show is an annual event staged by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club for its charities. Maury Rignato is president of the club.

Oil Heat Men At Meeting

NORFOLK — Four local men will represent the Tidewater Oil Heat Association at the second annual promotional conference of the National Fuel Oil Council in Atlantic City, N.J. this week.

Curtis B. White, president of TOHA, Gurley W. Ritter, chairman of the advertising committee, E. L. Pentress, a director and Thomas F. Ble of the association's advertising agency, Major and Ble, Inc., will make the trip.

The National Fuel Oil Council is supported by 13 refineries in cooperation with 54 local market groups for the purpose of carrying on the advertising and promotion of oil heating. At the annual promotion conferences the participating markets gather to compare notes and exchange ideas on the promotion of oil heating.

The Tidewater Oil Heat Association, now in its fourth year of active market promotion, conducts an advertising campaign on behalf of the 100 fuel oil dealers and equipment installers in Norfolk, Portsmouth, Virginia Beach and South Norfolk.

A feature of the promotional conference in Atlantic City will be a series of panel discussions on various phases of oil heat promotion. Mr. Ble will participate in the panel entitled "Selling To and Through the Builder."

Claude King, Football Coach, Named 'Sportsman of the Year'

Claude King, recently named head football coach at the Virginia Beach High School, was the surprise recipient of the "Sportsman of the Year" award at the annual banquet of the Virginia Sports Club held at the Cape Colony Club Monday night.

Caught completely by surprise, King was elected for his work with youngsters and his outstanding feats as one of the leading golfers in the area. The award to King was made by Club President Fred Isaacs.

Report Says Hotel, Club May Be Purchased by New Interests

The sale or transfer of the Cavalier Hotel property here appears near, according to persistent rumors although any such transaction could not be verified officially by anyone connected with the corporation that controls the Cavalier properties as the Sun-News went to press Wednesday night.

The most talked of transaction, according to the rumor, is that new interests headed by Sidney Banks will take over the Cavalier Hotel and the Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club and that these properties will continue under the present Cavalier management.

At the same time with the transfer of the hotel and beach club properties, the new interests would take over the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club property here for a period of years, according to the unofficial report.

According to the information most heard the sale price of the hotel and beach club property would be in the neighborhood of $2,300,000.

There has been considerable talk among local businessmen, all unofficial, of the impending sale of the Cavalier properties here for a number of years, but the latest rumor seems to have more basis than those of the past.

Unofficial reports of the sale have included "California Interests." This has not been verified, but the most persistent rumor is that Banks and other interests will take over the hotel and beach club properties from the present owners and that the hotel would then be used as a resort and the golf course and yacht facilities.

Also included in the discussion of the sale or transfer of the Cavalier property is the fact that a strip of land south of the hotel running from the Ocean west to Holly Road would be retained by the present owners and that plans are to build a motel or a cooperative apartment on this property.

Sidney Banks, president of the Cavalier, was not available for comment Wednesday and is believed to be in Florida. Banks, it is understood, is expected in Virginia Beach this week and that possibly an official announcement of the transaction would be made later this week.

The sale or transfer, at this point, is pure speculation but the rumor has been so persistent that many believe the property will be sold or transferred.

P. S. Cook Addresses Michigan Florists

P. S. Cook, a resident of Birdneck Point and president of the Wholesale Commission Florists of America, was the guest speaker recently at the 40th anniversary program of the Michigan State Florists' Association held in Detroit.

President Cook told fellow florists that the industry is changing and that the future rests largely on two basic programs of the Society of American Florists, the National Product Promotion Program and the Youth Education Program.

Dr. Legum Listed As Shrine Speaker

Dr. Meyer H. Legum, director of the Khedive Temple medical staff, will be the principal speaker at the luncheon Friday in the Mosque in Norfolk.

The luncheon is scheduled to start at 12:30 p.m. and the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Shrine Club will be in charge of the program.

George Powell Co-manager for Investment Firm

George E. Powell Jr. of Virginia Beach has been named a co-manager of the newly opened investment office of Powell, Kistler and Company at 217 Main Street in Norfolk.

Serving along with Powell in the roles of co-managers are Joseph T. Lex and Stephen M. Tobin. The trio has had several years experience in the investment field.

The investment firm, which is headquartered in North Carolina, is located in a remodeled building near the Customhouse Post Office Station.

Powell, Kistler and Company are members of the New York Stock Exchange and the Midwest Stock Exchange.

The Norfolk staff of the newest investment house in Norfolk are former members of the local offices of Willis, Kenny & Ayres and Mason and Lee. The two firms have closed their Norfolk offices.

Willis Names Committee for Cancer Drive Special Gifts

A thirteen member special gifts committee has been announced by Graydon K. Willis, chairman of the special gifts section of the annual Cancer Crusade for the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Listed as members of this group by Chairman Willis are John Aragona, Ruben Trant Jr., George Parker, L. D. Finley Jr., J. Warren Huff, Sidney S. Kellam, J. Glenn Taylor, James P. Witte, Ferebee Trifton, Joseph Phelps, W. W. McClanahan, Richard Keeley, L. C. Brennan and William Foley.

According to Willis the special gifts committee is presently at work in advance of the general solicitation drive to be conducted in April. The Crusade has a goal of $15,000 and the special gifts committee is expected to raise a substantial portion of the total.

The drive general chairman, Fred A. Haycox Sr., announced that Hugh Kleihin Jr. and John W. McCombs have been named to serve as co-chairmen of the hotel and business division. They will be assisted in the business division by James Midgette, according to Chairman Haycox.

Haycox and Willis pointed out that the special gifts committee is designed to solicit special donations from certain individuals and corporations that require special handling.

YOUR CONGRESSMAN REPORTS

By Thomas N. Downing

While the Senate is in round-the-clock sessions debating the issue of Civil Rights, the foremost topic of national concern has momentarily left the front pages of our newspapers. I am referring to our military policy and national defense.

At this very moment the Russians have weapons sufficient in quantity and destructive ability to completely demolish every American city of any substantial size. Thirty minutes from the time a missile is launched in Russia, it could land any place in our District. We have absolutely no defense against a nuclear attack by an aggressor nation.

Since the advent of nuclear warfare, our military policy has been one of "massive retaliation," the theory being that even if we were attacked and even though many millions of Americans were rendered useless, we would still have the ability to retaliate with nuclear weapons which could inflict an even greater damage on the attacking nation. Our retaliative fire would be from mobile bases such as the strategic air command, American carriers and polaris submarines.

If this be true, it would result in a stalemate because no nation in its right mind would attack the United States with the knowledge that she has this retaliative power. But, is this true? The President of the United States and the Secretary of Defense have stated recently that our military capabilities are better than that of the Russians. Contrast this with statements by General Maxwell D. Taylor, former Chief of Staff, and General Thomas S. Powers, Commanding Officer of

BAYSIDE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS MEETING

The Bayside Junior Woman's Club met Tuesday, March 1, at 8 p.m. at the Bayside Christian Church.

Mrs. R. V. Jennings, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Dorothy Falconer, who is a member of the American Bell Association. Mrs. Falconer told the club members that the bells date back to Biblical times. She showed the members her collection which includes one bell in octaves. She played a number of selections including "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "God Bless America."

The following new officers were selected: President, Mrs. J. E. Powell; vice president, Mrs. R. J. Ingram; recording secretary, Mrs. J. D. Fenton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. R. Deloach; treasurer, Mrs. A. L. Hupman. The club will hold their installation dinner in April at the P.O.P. Club in Kempsville.

Mrs. B. J. Hupman was elected delegate to the Tidewater District meeting of Women's Clubs which will be held March 30 at the Chamberlain Hotel.

Handicrafts for the meeting were: Mrs. J. D. Fenton, Mrs. C. E. Dunleis, Mrs. C. L. Smith and Mrs. T. Burnett.

OCEAN PARK CIVIC LEAGUE

The Ocean Park Civic League met Thursday, March 3 at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center on Stratford Road. W. G. Holland, vice president, presided.

H. W. Farham and John Bowman submitted an estimate on renovating the Club Room. Additional estimates will also be obtained.

Mrs. J. T. Strayhorn, ways and means chairman, announced a card party will be held in the near future. Time and place to be announced.

One of the projects that the club is working on at the present is street signs which are being constructed similar to those in Lynnhaven Colony. Michael Henry is chairman of this project.

The District Supervisor is being requested to change a street light to a more advantageous position, the entrance to Sylvan Beach. He is also being contacted to drain the north side of Shore Drive. This drain has been closed with the building of the new road and no provision has been made for drainage.

Mrs. R. C. Medlock, School Committee chairman, reported on the closing of the Oceana School as of this term. The doubling of pupils in the schools at of next term, with reference to the coming School Bond issue which will be voted on March 15.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. H. W. Farham and Mrs. R. C. Medlock.

EXECUTIVE'S PLAN FOR WORKING 'RETIREMENT'

HERE is a company formula for retirement.

Like others you've seen, it has some flaws. But this one has been devised by a business executive who is being paid to come up with retirement solutions for his company's 3,000-odd employees.

One: It is a sugar-coated retirement pill. A man or woman who loses a job at 65 undergoes a fundamental change in life. Sweet talk and gimmicks are like giving an aspirin for a severed leg.

Two: It is a fundamental change not because of money—Social Security and pensions take care of the wants now—but because a job is the social life, the civic life and friends of us all.

Three: Therefore a retirement plan should pass up the usual foldover and seek a social life, a civic life and friends for those who are retiring.

Four: The best place to find these things is where the fellow found them in the first place—in a job. But since his own company won't give him one after 65 it can't very well ask any other company to.

Five: But there are jobs elsewhere than in companies. They are in business organizations, in civic organizations, in semi-official arms of local governments, in church groups, in political parties, in welfare agencies, in schools, clubs and the like.

Six: The company should set up in its personnel department one person whose sole responsibility would be to find jobs in these places for retiring employees.

This person would have access to company files and would know the ## talents and qualifications of each

employee. If a bookkeeper, with a penchant for bookkeeping, was due for retirement in six months, the job-procurer would run the gamut of organizations seeking a place for him. The job would give social contacts, friends and some sense of belonging—maybe with pay, maybe without. Naturally the employee could take it or not.

Seven: The job would be procured not for the day after retirement, but three months after. This would let him have the travel fling which all retiring employees seem to think they must have, and give him enough time to realize how empty life is going to be if he has no job.

Eight: The company should stop the nonsense of "conditioning" the employee to retire. The conditioning means taking it easy and thus means loafing, which is a disease. Let it go for six months, or even three, and the employee retires a burn. An extra long vacation, a leave of absence—those are all right, but a man's natural bent is to work. See that he works until he retires.

Nine: Once the company has found a new job connection for the employee it should encourage a clean break. Retired employees just don't belong any more.

Ten: So, maybe all this won't work. Do you think the elaborate retirement programs the big companies now have are working? New concepts, even if they're wrong, are needed.

As I said, these are the executive's ideas. Not mine.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING Voting Tuesday on Bond Issue

Next Tuesday is the day of decision for the citizens of Princess Anne County in the decision to be made for the future education of its children. Tuesday the voters will express themselves on a $5,500,000 school bond issue. The funds are needed urgently to construct five additional school plants to house the growing school population in the county.

School board officials and administrative personnel have urged approval of the bond issue. They are close to the situation and realize full well the need for more schools. The Sun-News adds its endorsement of the school bond issue.

It has been pointed out that the bond issue is the only answer to the problem at the present time since there are no other funds, including Federal, to do the job. Estimates by officials indicate that we will have 6,000 more pupils in the county schools by 1965.

The funds that will be made available if the bond issue is approved Tuesday would permit immediate work on the building of three elementary and two secondary schools in the county. This would alleviate crowded conditions and would tend to lessen the possibility of split shifts in some of the schools.

We urge approval of the $5,500,000 school bond issue on Tuesday and feel confident the voters of Princess Anne County will give their approval with their ballot.

95 Donors Visit Bloodmobile

The recent visit of the Bloodmobile, sponsored by the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce, succeeded in drawing 95 donors to the Convention Center.

Winner of the 800 Bond was Louis Longmeyer, 504 24th Street. William H. Washburn, 505 21st Street, received the 825 Bond. One of these winners are frequent donors. We would like to express our appreciation to these as well as the following named participants in this Blood Donor Campaign:

Your Social Security

By J. C. McDERMOTT Field Representative

Over two hundred years ago an American farmer wrote in his diary: "My farm gave me and my family a good living on the produce of it, and left me, one year and another, one hundred fifty dollars, for I never spent more than ten dollars a year, which was for salt, nails and the like. Nothing to eat, drink or wear was bought, as my farm produced it all."

Since that time dramatic changes have taken place in the American economy. And there have been changes in the meaning of security for the average American family. The colonial farmer was able to say "my farm produced it all." How strange it would seem for someone to make a similar statement today.

America has evolved from a group of small agricultural colonies into one of the strongest and most highly industrialized countries in the world. With the rapid expansion of industry in recent decades, the American family has been faced with many new risks beyond the average family's control. Loss of income from wages brings insecurity. The risk of loss of earnings is ever-present because of the hazards of unemployment, old-age, disability and death.

The great depression of the 1930's convinced the American people that only through cooperative effort can the individual be protected against these common hazards. The Social Security Act enables society to put its collective shoulder to the wheel in providing this protection. Through the cooperation of employers, employees, the self-employed, and government, social security replaces, at least partially, the earnings that are lost because of unemployment, old-age, disability or death.

Yes, times do change—but remember Social Security benefits are the harvest of your working years.

Opticians Are Now Fashion Experts

Your optician—the man who makes your eyeglasses from your eye physician's prescription—has learned to serve as a fashion expert as well as a skilled technician.

According to Traylor Optical Co., Guild Optician at 1803 Atlantic Avenue, almost every one of the 90 million Americans who wear glasses is demanding attractive, flattering frames in addition to comfortable, accurate vision.

The woman who must wear specs, says Mr. Traylor, is no longer satisfied with just any style or shape; she expects her optician to show her frames in a wide variety of shapes, materials, colors, with or without ornamentation. She knows that plastics can be molded into almost any form and texture and that the right combination can actually improve her appearance.

The Guild of Prescription Opticians of America reports that women are shopping for glasses just as they do for hats, jewelry, and cosmetics. Guild Opticians have had to brush up on fashion trends so they can offer frames for sports wear, cocktail dresses, and even evening gowns. Many women want different frames at each occasion. If a nearsighted lady goes for glitters, her eyeglasses will sparkle with gems. If she's a career girl, her frames might be a feminine version of Madison Avenue's horridness—she may even want a pair to wear with her garter suit.

In the old days, there just weren't any different frames from which to choose. Often the eye physician supplied the glasses himself. Fortunately, the modern eye physician prefers to concern himself with medical care and advice. He refers his patients to opticians who not only carry out his prescriptions to the letter, but keep in their offices hundreds of different frames. After the medical and technical part of the job is done by the physician-optician "team," the modern woman relies on the optician to help her choose the best frames for her facial structure, her coloring, her wardrobe, and her way of life.

Look All Ways Before Crossing, Postor Urges

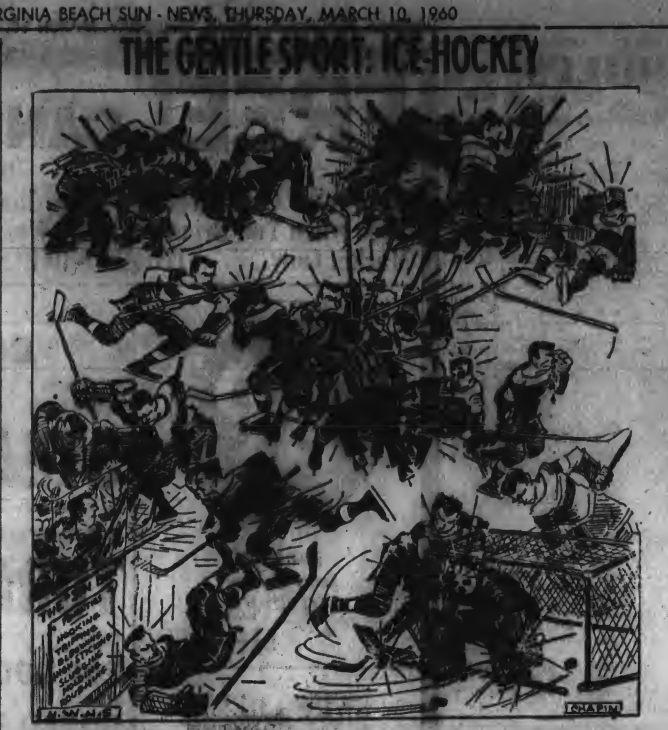

The wise pedestrian looks "all ways," not just right and left, for approaching traffic before stepping off the curb, according to Frank Cox, local director, Tidewater Automobile Association.

"Each year, hundreds of pedestrians are killed and injured at intersections by turning cars," the association says. "Many of these lives could have been saved, if the victims had taken the precaution of looking behind them for cars approaching the intersection from the rear side."

A safety poster illustrating the theme, "Look All Ways Before Crossing," is being distributed to schools in Virginia Beach as part of the regular monthly safety education program of Tidewater Automobile Association.

The new poster, designed by Mary Muchin, an 18-year-old student in the 12th grade at Dobbin Vocational Technical School, Philadelphia, Pa., was a first prize winner in the American Automobile Association's 1960 National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. The prize was awarded by a panel of nationally-known judges, and the poster will be reproduced and distributed by AAA Motor Clubs throughout the country.

Norfolk Ford Assembly Plant Increases Output

Ford Division of Ford Motor Company's Norfolk Assembly Plant contributed more than $9,171,000 in salaries and wages to the economy of the area during 1959 and purchased more than $1,048,000 worth of supplies and materials from area merchants.

The Ford plant's year end report showed that its veteran work force of over 1,400 employees produced 88,431 cars and trucks in 1959, in spite of the steel shortage, this was an increase of 21,457 more vehicles than were built in 1958.

The plant worked an average of 41.91 hours per week, and weekly wages for hourly employees amounted to $112.17, an increase of $5.10 per employee per week over 1958.

The National Safety Council awarded the Norfolk Ford plant two citations for working 1,001,216 and 1,426,158 manhours without a lost time accident in the periods from 11-19-58 to 3-11-59 and 3-12-59 to 5-29-59 respectively.

During the year, Plant Manager G. L. Lemoine, a 36-year Ford veteran, honored 74 other employees for service of 25 years or more with the company, and 13 employees retired.

More than 500 of the plant's employees participated in the plant-wide fishing contest, and top entries received $500 worth of fishing equipment.

The employees also contributed more than $9,000 to local charities during the year, exclusive of company contributions.

Among the plant's 3,680 visitors in 1959 were such distinguished guests as Admiral Jerald Wright, NATO Supreme Allied Commander, CINCLANT, U.S. Representative Porter Hardy, Jr., the Navy's Blue Angels, and foreign delegations from such countries as Ceylon, Formosa, Thailand, Sweden and Syria.

State Farm Mutual Sets New Records

State Farm Mutual ended 1959 with an 11.9 per cent share of the nation's private passenger car insurance market and with earned premiums for the year in excess of $400 million, the first time a single casualty insurance company has passed that dollar level.

Local agent for State Farm is John Tallaferro, 508 25th Street, Virginia Beach.

Of the company's $432,061,041 of earned premiums, auto business accounted for $197,740,013. Other year-end figures announced today by Adlai H. Rust, chairman of the boards of the three State Farm companies, show assets of $367,899,140, a 17 per cent gain for the period. Policyholders' surplus increased 17.5 per cent to $156,119,624.

Claim costs amounted to a new high for the tenth straight year. But reported claims incurred totaled $257,084,976, a 15.1 per cent increase, and claims and underwriting expenses incurred climbed 7.9 per cent to $189,099,724. The company settled 2,118,360 claims during the year.

Investment gain improved to $16,164,447 over 1949's $13,444,795. The underwriting gain of $18,916,341 compares with $8,814,696 for the previous year. Federal income taxes totaled $4,495,775.

There were an estimated 46,767,000 private passenger cars in operation in the U.S. at year-end (cars scrapped, for sale, in government and business fleets and on dealer lots not included). Of this number, 5,547,114 were protected by State Farm policies. The company's total policy count, including other vehicles, general liability and Canadian policies, was 5,623,788.

State Farm's 7.15 per cent gain in auto policies in force was more than double the three per cent growth rate of the nation's auto population in 1959 (U.S. Dept. of Commerce estimate). State Farm has been the nation's largest auto insurer for the past 18 of its 38 years in business.

The company's wholly-owned affiliates, State Farm Fire and Casualty and State Farm Life, also showed solid gains for the year.

State Farm Fire and Casualty Company and the State Farm group growth with a 31.9 per cent increase in gross direct-premiums written—$33,458,356 as against $25,671,511 for 1958. After reinsurance, net earned premiums amounted to $17,280,032, a 29.5 per cent improvement over 1958. Underwriting profit totaled $782,204 and net investment gain was $970,887. Assets were $41,991,987 and policyholders' surplus $12,502,073 at the year's close.

State Farm Life Insurance Co. was near the $11 billion mark at year-end, reporting a 12.2 per cent gain over 1958 to $11,777,664,668 of ordinary life insurance in force. The company passed the $11 billion figure in January, for more than a $1 billion gain of ordinary life insurance in force. Life insurance sales for the year increased 10.9 per cent to $306,591,924. Assets at year-end were $186,957,160, a 13.8 per cent increase. Surplus to protect policyholders was up 13.2 per cent to $23,029,103.

Home offices of the three State Farm companies are in Bloomington, Ill.

time I do not place national solvency over national survival. Nor would I rather be "Red than dead." In this connection I would like to quote a statement made by Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas from the floor of the Senate several days ago:

"Among informed people there are serious doubts whether we are doing enough fast enough. This, of course, is a matter of judgment. But it seems to me that one thing is clear: If we step up our defenses and if they are not needed, all we lose is money. If we do not step up our defenses and if they are needed, we could lose our country itself."

If we are militarily inferior, party lines will have to obliterate in a supreme effort to overcome the lag.

I am pleased to report that on Monday, February 22, the House of Representatives amended the second Supplemental Appropriation Bill for 1960 so as to reauthorize the 5% cut in the military education funds for our schools. This is not to be confused with Federal aid to education.

It is money which the Federal Government allocates to schools in heavily military impacted areas to assist the local school systems in the cost of educating children of service connected personnel.

Many of the schools in our District educate large numbers of these children and the reauthorization of this cut in funds was necessary to keep them within the budget.

Reverend Bach Ordination To Be Held Sunday

The Rev. Emanuel C. Bach is scheduled to be ordained in the second order of the ministry at Galilee Episcopal Church tonight. It has been announced by the Rev. Edmund Berkley, pastor of the church. The ceremony is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

Bishop George P. Gunn, coadjutor of the diocese of Southern Virginia, is scheduled to ordain the Rev. Bach. Bishop William A. Brown (Ret.) will be the celebrant.

Others scheduled to take part in the ceremony include Bishop David S. Rose, who will preside, and visiting members of the ministry from this area are to be the Rev. Charles McKinley, Kennebec, Maine; Rev. Beverly Tucker, Bay-side, and the Rev. Henry C. Barton, Eastern Shore. Misses Claudy Tucker and Alice Snellings.

Prior to the ordination ceremony a covered dish supper will be held in the parish hall of the church starting at 6:30 p.m.

Reverend Bach also announced that evening prayer services led by lay readers will be held each Monday through Friday evenings starting at 8:30 p.m. throughout the Lenten Season. On Fridays there will be evening prayers and Litany.

CHECK UP

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Please go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verse
Sunday	Matthew	28	1-10
Monday	John	1	1-18
Tuesday	Acts	1	1-17
Wednesday	Colossians	3	1-14
Thursday	1 Peter	2	1-10
Friday	1 John	2	1-17
Saturday	1 Corinthians	13	1-13

It's a good idea to have a check up every so often. And the idea ought to be extended to our spiritual as well as our physical health. For instance, how much are we thinking about the truths our churches teach us? Do we understand God... His love for men... the sacrifice of Christ for our sins... the way of Christian living? And how much are we doing for God and our own souls? Are we worshipping every Sunday... rearing our children in the Faith... serving the Church and fellowmen according to our talents and physical strength? And how much are we giving for God to use? Do we promise Him a fair proportion of our income... do we set aside regularly as a sum that belongs to God and to those who need our help... do we have the courage and faith to strengthen our Church by more generous support?

Mercedes J. Hurst Tri-Club Annual Dinner Speaker

"Who Killed Cock Robin?" will be the subject when speaker, Mercedes J. Hurst, Chicago business executive and prominent in the national advertising field, will address the Tri-Club Dinner of the three local women's service clubs, the Quota Club, Pilot Club and Soroptimist's Club, to be held on Saturday evening, March 19, at the Nansamond Hotel.

Miss Hurst devotes her major attention to the relationship which International Harvester Co. has with its many thousands of women stockholders and women employees. She is the first person (either man or woman) to be called upon to formulate a program to carry the meaning of America from a multi-million dollar corporation to all the women whose lives it affects. Much of the philosophy behind the job was developed by Harvester executives, who believed that the growing importance of women to the company made it advisable to select an outstanding and well-qualified business woman to deal with them in an administrative and executive capacity.

Miss Hurst has participated in numerous civic, church and philanthropic activities. She is a past president of the Women's Advertising Club of Chicago, and has served as vice president of the Advertising Federation of America. She is a graduate of the Indiana University and took her postgraduate work at Northwestern University. Miss Hurst is also a member of the board of directors of Florence Crittenton Anchorage.

Mrs. Ina L. Johnson, president of the Quota Club of Norfolk, will preside at this meeting. The Quota Club has been active in Norfolk since 1927, and still retains two of its original charter members, Miss Annie M. Brown, Attorney, and Miss Cherry Nottingham, well-known teacher. Quota has, as its main project, service to girls. The club grants an annual scholarship to a high school girl to aid in her college education, and supports a Chinese war orphan. For years their work with tuberculosis patients has been outstanding.

The Pilot Club of Norfolk is in its 20th year, with 44 members. Its projects are the Hunton Eye Bank for Sight Restoration, Cerebral Palsy, and work at the Municipal Hospital with senior citizens. Their president is Mrs. Virginia Taylor.

Soroptimist Club of Norfolk and Virginia Beach is now nine years old, with 46 members, including 12 charter members. Their projects include aid to the deaf and hard of hearing and work with senior citizens at Grandy Park. Mrs. Elizabeth Teagle is president of the Soroptimist's Club.

Vision Week Stresses Sight of School Children

Does your child mistake the word "was" for "aw," or "on" for "no," or "he" for "we"?

This is quite a common example of children who need visual training, according to Virginia Optometric Association which is observing National Vision Week, March 6th through 12th.

Dr. Ernest B. Gatten Jr., president of the VOA, says that many children see double, can't differentiate between a circle and a rectangle, or find it hard to keep their attention on an object for more than several seconds.

Visual training, states Dr. Gatten, has become one of the most important techniques for helping children who have trouble reading or retaining the sense of what they read.

Such training, he adds, sets up conditions that encourage a child to use both eyes to focus and point together at objects both near and far. In the past, says the optometrist, the Shellen chart, which tested a person's vision across a room, was considered adequate. But this test did not reveal whether a person could see properly at arm's length — reading a book for example. Optometric science has discovered that many children who can see the blackboard clearly do not have the visual capacity to keep their eyes focused on a reading page held in the hands.

Visual training can overcome this factor, says Dr. Gatten. And such training can mean the difference between a child being classified as "backward" or as a brilliant student.

"It is generally acknowledged that seeing is a learned process," says the VOA president, "not merely a physical act. Some children learn to see improperly. It is these children who need visual training in order to see what the normal child sees."

"Our greatest danger in evaluating the progress of our youngsters in school today," he states, "is in judging their mental capacities without considering that their visual capacities may be holding them back."

Senator Hits Denial Of Trial by Jury in Contempt Cases

WASHINGTON — Denial of the right to a jury trial, which pending civil rights legislation would eliminate in contempt cases, was one of the major causes of the American Revolution, Sen. A. Willis Robertson (D-Va.) reminded the Senate Monday.

Robertson said that the reasons prompting denial of the right in Colonial days was the fear of the British Crown that Colonial juries would not convict those charged with violating the hated Stamp Act and the sugar import duties.

Similarly, Robertson declared, proponents of the civil rights bills would remove the jury trial right in contempt proceedings through fear that Southern juries would not convict a registrar who disobeyed a judge's order in a voting case. But, he declared:

"If the attempt is made by the federal government now to restrict further the right of trial by jury, as George III did nearly two centuries ago, you will find thousands of Virginians, and their fellow believers in Constitutional liberty in other states, ready again at every hazard to exert every faculty against usurpation of their fundamental rights."

Robertson said there also is a parallel between the pending civil rights bills and the widespread use of injunctions by powerful corporations to prevent strikes by early labor unions. It was to correct such abuses, the Virginia Senator said, that Congress wrote into the Clayton Act and the Norris-LaGuardia Act specific provisions protecting the right of jury trial in labor disputes.

One of the most outspoken defenders of this right at that time, Robertson said, was Emmanuel Celler, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee that reported the 1937 civil rights bill.

"It seems to me," Robertson said, "that the very same arguments which were made to pass these acts, to give to parties involved in labor disputes a jury trial after violation of the court's injunction, should be heeded by those who will not now listen to arguments defending the identical right where it already exists."

Beta Sigma Phi Spring Dance to Aid Retarded Tots

The Sixth Annual Spring Dance to benefit Tidewater Association for Retarded Children will be sponsored by the Alpha Chi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

This dance will be held Friday, March 18, at the American Legion Club on Lankin Road. Music will be furnished by Wilson Neillgar and his Cavaliers, and for those lucky ones, we have door prizes and lucky balloons. Hours are from 8:30 until 1:30.

Mrs. Aubrey James who was named chairman for the Annual Dance, is hoping for a large turnout to help such a worthy cause. As you may or may not know, the Tidewater Association for Retarded Children is a non-profit organization of parents and friends helping the retarded children of this area, and no child has ever been refused due to lack of funds. The public may purchase tickets from any chapter member or at the door for $3.00 per couple.

An Open Invitation to the Voters of Princess Anne County

Tuesday, March 15, may well be labeled "D Day" — "Decision Day" — for the voters of Princess Anne County. On that day the citizens of the county will be given an opportunity to register their approval of a $5,500,000 school bond issue to construct some very badly needed school plants. The County School Board has asked for and received the concurrence of the County Board of Supervisors and the Circuit Court for a county-wide referendum which, if approved, will enable the school authorities to construct two secondary school plants and three or more elementary plants.

As Virginia's fastest growing political subdivision, Princess Anne County had an increase of three thousand pupils last September over the preceding September. Projected housing indicates that this tremendous growth may be expected to continue for the foreseeable future. If serious overcrowding of classes and large-scale part time instruction are to be averted, it is imperative that the school plants which the March 15 bond issue will provide be constructed at the earliest possible moment.

Good schools make good citizens. You, the voters, can give today's children and tomorrow's citizens the educational opportunity they richly deserve, and our country needs.

THUNDERBIRDS

LONG THREE POINTS

The Coaches Sporting Goods' Thunderbirds met the hot Zales ten pin quintet last Sunday at Pin Path and came away licking their wounds that resulted from a three to one defeat. Making their bid for the top rung on the Interlity Traveling League ladder, the Virginia Beach team got off to a slow start and lost the first game by 6 pins. Coming back strongly, they thoroughly trounced the league leaders by 101 pins in the second game and went into the third with a 40-pin advantage. However, Bruce Fink of Zales started the last game off with nine consecutive strikes that had a demoralizing effect upon the visitors. Torn between a desire to take the game or see Bruce roll a perfect score, the Thunderbirds failed to a low of 80 while Zales was being sparked to a 1013 game that netted them three points. Incidentally, Fink missed a strike in the 10th frame but settled for a commendable 278 game. The local team retained their second place position but are now five full games behind the leaders. High set of the match was a 625 by Fink, with John Montgomery's 588 second. Jim Caldwell's 583 was high and one pin better than Fink's 584. Although the Thunderbirds rolled several pins over their team average, the inspired Zales team was too hot to handle and raised their average considerably with a 2882 series.

Next Sunday the Thunderbirds on the tough Newport News 80-1 team on their home grounds and hope to resume their winning ways. With 11 league matches remaining, the local legions are still very much in the running for top honors.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you're seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

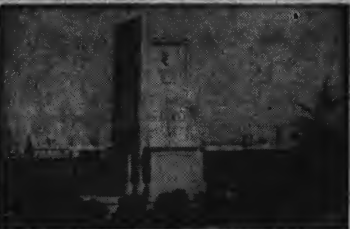

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Breakfast Treat for St. Patrick's Day RECIPE OF THE MONTH

"St. Patrick's Day in the mornin'" . . . and shure, one of the nicest ways to start the day is with a hearty breakfast of tender pancakes served with a spiced maple-flavored butter. This special pancake topping combines maple-blended syrup with butter, cinnamon, allspice and mace to make a real "sauce for celebratin'." And with a hearty breakfast like this tucked away, your family will have energy to spare when they join the parade for "the wearin' of the green!"

Spiced Maple-Flavored Butter

- 1 cup Log Cabin Syrup
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon mace

Combine all ingredients in saucepan. Place over medium heat until butter is melted and syrup is hot.

Beat with egg beater until blended. Serve hot on waffles or pancakes. (Mixture may be stored in the refrigerator and reheated before using. Beat to blend.) Makes 1 1/2 cups butter, or enough to serve with 21 to 24 pancakes.

Notes: If desired, 1 teaspoon mixed pumpkin pie spices may be used in place of the above spices.

Fruit Salad with Pecan French Dressing

1 Package Good Seasons Old Fashioned French Salad Dressing Mix

Vinegar, water, oil

1 cup Old Fashioned French salad dressing

2 tablespoons pineapple juice

1 cup drained pecans, toasted

8 cups assorted diced fresh or canned fruits

Combine salad dressing mix, vinegar, water, and oil as directed on the package or bottle.

Combine 1 cup of the dressing with the pineapple juice and pecans. Mix or shake well. Pour over fruit and toss lightly. Makes 8 cups, or 6 to 8 servings luncheon or entree salad.

*Any of the following may be used: apples, bananas, cherries, grapes, peaches, pears, melons, or other fruits.

1 1-pound can pitted sour cherries

1 11-ounce can mandarin orange sections

1 1/2 cups lemon juice

Cooked rice

Sprinkle neck and body cavities of duckling with salt and pepper.

Prepare stuffing mix following package directions. Stuff duckling.

Fasten skin of neck cavity to back with skewers. Close body cavity with skewers and white twine. Tie legs together. Place duckling with breast side up, on rack in shallow roasting pan. Bake in moderate oven (325°) 3 hours, or until duckling is tender. Meanwhile, drain cherries; reserve 1 cup syrup. Drain orange sections; reserve syrup.

Combine cherry syrup, orange syrup and cornstarch; blend. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear.

Add lemon juice and cherries; mix. Arrange duckling on cooked rice and garnish with orange sections. Serve with cherry sauce.

(Makes 4 Servings)

1 5-pound ready-to-cook duckling

Salt and pepper

1 8-ounce package seasoned stuffing mix

1 1/2 cups corn lettuce

Report Shows New Records Set by Insurance Firm

New records in almost every phase of operation are cited in the 14th annual report of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company released today by D. Conrad Little, general agent for the company in Norfolk.

For the 10th consecutive year the company reported a new all-time record in paid volume. Life insurance sales in 1959 totaled $373 million, up $32 million over the preceding year. Total insurance in force reached a new peak of $1,343,997,519.

Benefit payments to policyowners and beneficiaries totaled $135 million in 1959. This net rate was 3.48%, as compared with 5.27% in 1958. Net rate of all company investments before Federal Income Taxes rose from 4.12% in 1958 to 4.19% in 1959. The net rate was one of the highest in the industry, Mr. Little commented.

Income for the year totaled $238 million, an all-time high and up $14 million over last year. Of the earnings for the year, a record $201 million has been set aside to distribute as dividends to policyowners in 1960, Mr. Little said.

In 1959 $153 million was invested with a gross rate of return of 5.49%, as compared with 5.27% in 1958. Sixty per cent of the World's telephones are in North America and 10 per cent in Europe. The remaining ten per cent serve all the rest of the world.

FORT STORY NEWS

FORT STORY NEWS

Col. M. B. Prince, USN, and Mrs. Prince were the guests of Col. William F. Pope, USA, and Mrs. Pope at the Officers' Wives' Club dinner and entertainment held at the Fort Story Officers' Club on Wednesday evening.

Captain Prince is Station Commander at Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base.

Colonel Pope is the Commanding Officer of Fort Story.

FORT STORY OFFICERS' WIVES HEAR ABOUT RABBITS

Rabbits by the dozen held the spotlight at the March dinner meeting of Fort Story Officers' Wives last Wednesday evening, March 2, at the Fort Story Officers' Mess.

At that time, the stuffed animal creations of Mrs. Carolyn Anderson performed their antics for the club women and their guest husbands.

The presentation, entitled "Cultured Cottons," is in the words of its creator, "a lecture on humans through stuffed rabbits," and it attempts to depict citizens you would find in Anytown, U.S.A.

Among the characters featured are the Mayor of Hoppersville, the name given this rabbit community, a judge, a doctor, a psychiatrist, and a complete cast of "honey" citizens who comprise the town roster.

Mrs. Anderson, who is the wife of Capt. F. P. Anderson, USN, is now incorporating her rabbit characters in a book based on the "Cultured Cottons" presentation.

Among the guests at the dinner meeting were Col. William F. Pope, Commanding Officer, Fort Story, and Mrs. Pope, honorary club president, and their guests of honor, Captain Prince is Commanding Officer of the Little Creek Amphibious Base.

The attractive table decorations followed a St. Patrick's Day theme and were the handiwork of club hostesses Mrs. L. B. Dickson, Mrs. Thomas Baskin, Mrs. Robert Bond, and Mrs. Stanley Wisniewski. Mrs. John Albino, club vice president, presided.

STORY MEN TO PARTICIPATE IN OPERATION TO PUERTO RICO

Ten officers and men of Fort Story will leave March 12 for the Strategic Army Command (STRAC) operation Big Slam/Puerto Pine in Puerto Rico. The Fort Story detachment, is composed of members of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C" and the 10th Terminal Battalion.

Their mission will be to perform in the 1st Logistical Command as a passenger control section of the airfield control group. They will coordinate and supervise off-loading and on-loading of all personnel-type aircraft. The return date is March 25.

Monday with STRAC will be the main program for the weekend. The Army's operations are to test STRAC's ability to go to the aid of the military air transportation service's (MATC) ability to reach and maintain a large conventional air lift for the 15 days of the exercise.

This will be one of the largest airlift troop movements of its kind with 20,000 troops from 78 STRAC units at 20 stations out-loading from 13 departure airfields. About 10,000 tons of selected Army equipment will also be airlifted.

STRAC's problem of being able to strike rapidly and decisively at any spot in the world will be put to the test.

It will be a shuttle operation with the troops arriving in Puerto Rico setting up an administrative bivouac for a few days and then leaving as others replace them. The 370 aircraft will fly 925 trips requiring them to make about three trips each.

The Fort Story personnel taking part are Captains Don L. Morris and George G. Hendrickson and First Lieutenant Gerald McKinney of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C," and Capt. William O. Rockwell, Master Sgt. Arthur Dillard, Sgt. Juan Ayala, Specialist 4/c Michael W. Horn, Specialist 5/c Willie L. Smith, Specialist 4/c John J. Toomey, and Specialist 4/c Charles R. Dowd Jr., all of the 10th Terminal Battalion.

LT. COL. HANNA DEPARTS FORT STORY
Lt. Col. Lloyd G. Hanna departed Fort Story Monday for his new assignment as an administrator of operations at the Turkey-United States Logistical Detachment in Istanbul, Turkey.

Colonel Hanna came to Fort Story in 1958 and was assigned to the Commander's Office, G-1, and G-3 sections.

Prior to his Fort Story assignment, Colonel Hanna was at Camp Zama, Japan for 24 years where he served as comptroller.

Colonel Hanna has over 17 years of service and obtained a Master of Arts degree in Business Administration at Syracuse University in 1955.

He will be accompanied to his new overseas station by Mrs. Hanna and their son, Benton, aged 7.

MAJOR GENERAL VISITS FORT STORY

Maj. Gen. George O. N. Loden, USA, Deputy Chief of Staff for Logistics, visited Fort Story recently and toured the post observing various operations and facilities.

He was accompanied on the tour by Col. William F. Pope, USA, Commanding Officer of Fort Story; Lt. Col. Lemnart Ohlsson, USA, Ft. Story's Chief of Staff, and members of his own staff.

The first stop was at the Landing Craft Retriever and from there they went to the LARC shop. After a short stop at the Officer's Club, they went to the Ordnance shop to be briefed on the new Army amphibian, the LARC, now being tested at Fort Story. Lt. Col. Jack W. Tooley, USA, commanding officer of the 10th Terminal Battalion, explained the LARC's development, capabilities, characteristics, and how the test program was conducted.

From the LARC, the General went to the Navy's Harbor Control Center and was briefed on and observed operations.

SEATO To Be Recognized With Four-Cent Stamp

A 4-cent commemorative stamp, in recognition of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO), will be placed on sale at Washington, D.C., May 31, 1960, in conjunction with the Sixth Meeting of the SEATO Ministers in that city, according to Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. Details as to design and color will be announced shortly.

The Postmaster General, in announcing his decision to include such a stamp in this year's program, noted it was a "token of the confidence of the United States in SEATO's continuing role in the service of peace and freedom."

"1960 marks the fifth anniversary of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization Council of Foreign Ministers in Bangkok. Since then the Council has played a key role in stabilizing conditions in an area threatened by Communism. Moreover, the Organization and its members have actively sought to promote peaceful economic and social progress and greater regional understanding."

"The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization is a defensive alliance of nations (Australia, France, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Thailand, the United Kingdom, and the United States) dedicated to the preservation of peace and freedom in the general area of Southeast Asia and the Southwest Pacific. Members of the alliance have pledged themselves to cooperate in the further development of measures designed to promote economic progress and social well-being."

"While the concept of collective defense is an ancient one, the free world collective security arrangements which emerged after World War II are of a character unique in the annals of international affairs. Under these arrangements the members consult continuously, cooperate widely in non-military activities, and observe strictly the principle of equality among members."

Collectors desiring three-day cancellations of the 4-cent SEATO stamp may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed to the envelopes to Washington, D.C. A flowchart of the SEATO organization will be placed in each envelope and the day either turned in or mailed. Addressed envelopes should be addressed to the power rights because the pictorial machine cancellation requires a space approximately 2 1/2 by 2 1/2 inches.

Envelopes submitted should be of ordinary letter size and must be properly addressed. An envelope must not be sent for the return of first-day covers and orders for covers must not include requests for unneeded stamps. The outside envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 4-cent SEATO Stamp."

Two units of the 14th Terminal Battalion are conducting a terminal service training program at Fort Story for new recruits who are being assigned as replacements to the 14th Terminal Battalion service companies. These many of these men will be taking part in the annual rearmament missions in the Arctic during the coming summer, this training is particularly valuable and important.

Second Lt. Oliver Holden, USA, training officer of the 854th, is in charge of the program.

The training started on Feb. 2 and will be concluded March 19. It is conducted in three week cycles with new cycles starting each week; so actually three training programs are going on at the same time.

As new men are coming into all the units each week, the classes are composed of men from companies of the two terminal battalions. Following this course of instruction, they will train with their own respective units in unit training programs.

The cadre for the school is composed of officers and non-commissioned of the 14th Terminal Battalion with the majority of them coming from the 854th.

Included in the school are courses on documentation, which operation, signaling, cargo handling, crane operation, and fork lift operation. The Fort Story landship, cargo dump, a special classroom, various moving and training aids and training ships from Fort Eustis are used in this training program.

Transportation support for the school is provided by the various amphibious truck companies on the post who are using this program to train their new men. This provides the amphibious truck companies an opportunity to conduct training programs of their own in vehicle operation and cargo handling.

SPECIALIST JOHNSON REENLISTS AT FORT STORY

Specialist Johnson, a truck driver with the 417th Transportation Company reenlisted for six years at a ceremony held in 14th Terminal Battalion Headquarters and added to his eleven years of prior service.

Specialist Johnson, a truck driver with the 417th Transportation Co., reenlisted for the post of his choice — Fort Leroy Johnson, New Orleans, La.

First Lt. James R. Posch, USA, Commanding Officer of the 417th Transportation Co. and Master Sgt. George Cuttelle, Post Reenlistment Sergeant, administered the oath of enlistment.

NOTES FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

LISTEN TO YOUR COUNTY AGENT

6:20 THURSDAYS, 12:10 SATURDAY, STATION WEAR

One More on the Doctors

After giving his patient a thorough physical examination, the doctor wrote out a long prescription. "And let me know how that work," he said. "I'm having the same trouble myself."

It is great to be back with you after a week out with Mr. Flu. Thanks to Barnes Allen for filling in for me last week.

SOYBEAN GERMINATION CRITICAL IN 1960

Results of soybean germination tests are pointing to an alarming condition in the seed supply for planting our 1960 soybean crop. According to officials in the Virginia Department of Agriculture, nearly 50% of the soybeans tested had a germination of less than 85%. In a normal year, less than 2% of the soybeans tested will have this low germination.

Soybeans in all areas of Virginia are affected. If we have ideal conditions during planting time, no farmer will have better than a 50-50 chance of getting a decent stand if he plants untested seed. These unusual conditions have prompted the Department of Agriculture to exempt soybeans from the usual quota restrictions for free tests.

I hope the "1960 Soybean Seed Facts," listed below will answer most of your questions about this problem. Please do not hesitate to contact me if other questions are asked.

1960 Soybean Seed Facts

1. The poor germination is a result of the unusual weather conditions last fall and cannot always be detected by the appearance of the seed. Some seeds which appeared to be healthy, germinated only 30 per cent.

2. All soybean samples submitted by farmers will be tested. Free, this spring only.

3. Size of sample: 2 pounds

4. Send samples to: Division of Plant Industry, 1113 State Office Building, Richmond 19, Virginia.

5. This information should accompany each sample:
Name and address of farmer
Kind of seed
Variety
Lot designation

6. To obtain the sample, collect equal portions of seed from several bags or areas in a bin.

7. Samples should be packed in a cloth bag or paper container that will not break in shipment. Free Sample bags can be obtained by writing to the address above.

8. Do not buy or plant seed that has not been tested. (This is never a good practice)

9. If the test shows a germination of less than 80%, growers should locate a source of quality seed as soon as possible.

10. A shortage of good seed of some varieties will probably develop later in the season.

11. This is one year that seed treatment will pay big dividends. Use Arasan, Captan, Panoram, Spergon, etc.

12. Proper seed treatment will not increase germination but it will increase emergence.

13. Inoculants should not be applied to treated seed more than two hours before planting.

Could you afford to gamble the cost of replanting your entire crop against 40¢ (The cost of mailing a sample of your soybeans to Richmond for testing)?

SHEEP SHEARING TIME NEAR

Arrangements have been made with three sheep shearers to come to Princess Anne County the week of April 4th.

Anyone desiring to have their sheep sheared should contact my office as soon as possible.

Bobby Mitgell has been named to the Board of Directors of the Petersburg Feeders/Cull Producers Association. He will serve a three year term.

SMITHFIELD JUNIOR MARKET HOG SHOW AND SALE

Over 150 market hogs will be shown and sold by Junior exhibitors from Isle of Wight, Nansemond, Princess Anne, and Southampton Counties in the 1960 Smithfield Junior Market Hog Show and Sale to be held at the Smithfield Livestock Market on Saturday, March 19, 1960.

All hogs will be graded by Glen R. Carter, Virginia Division of Markets, into the following grades: U.S. No. 1; U.S. No. 2; U.S. No. 3; and Medium. Only barrows and gilts grading U.S. No. 1 and weighing 180 and 240 pounds will be eligible to show; however, the remaining hogs entered will be sold.

Judge for the show will be John Henry Carter, Assistant Extension Animal Husbandman, Suffolk, Virginia. All hogs entered in the show will be sold at public auction. Carroll Mince, Livestock Auctioneer from Hickory, Virginia, will conduct the sale.

In addition to the show, a fitting and showing contest will be held for all owner-exhibitors of market hogs in the show.

Many prizes and ribbons will be awarded. Special awards for the show will be offered by the United Duxie Association, Hampshire Swine Registry, American Berkshire Association, Poland China Record Association, American Yorkshire Club, Virginia Hampshire Breeders' Association, Virginia Yorkshire Breeders' Association, and the V.P.I. Hock and Birdie Club.

Show and sale schedule is as follows for Saturday, March 19: 6:30 a.m. — Weighing, grading, and penning all entries

10:00 a.m. — Judging all entries

1:30 p.m. — Sale of all entries

4-H CLUBS CELEBRATE NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

The 715 4-H Club members in Princess Anne County this week joined with club members throughout the country in observing National 4-H Week.

National 4-H Club Week provides an excellent opportunity for the 4-H Clubs of Princess Anne County to tell everyone about 4-H Club work. It is their time to give people an opportunity to look at 4-H club work as it is being carried on in each community.

During this week reports on 4-H Achievements were given to the nation. Each 4-H Club member in Princess Anne has been encouraged to make this report complete by telling and showing their accomplishments and making plans for the coming year.

Many of the clubs in this county have planned special activities to tell their stories. Some of the activities include displays, exhibits, participation in various adult and school programs, news paper articles, and radio programs.

One of the most important parts of the 4-H Club is project work. Each member must have a project of some type. Through project work club members learn better methods and learn to assume responsibility.

In carrying on an effective 4-H Club program in Princess Anne County, due recognition must be given to the schools, sponsors, and outside adult leaders who have and are now taking an active part in the 4-H clubs of the county. Without their continuing hard work the 4-H Club Program could not survive.

Stanley Oliver, President of Princess Anne Farm Bureau, Alvah Jones, and Alva Malhorne were elected to the Board of Directors of the Association's Annual meeting held February 18, 1960.

POTATO PLANTING RECOMMENDATIONS

The experts recommend that you plant the same potato acreage as last year. This recommendation seems sound in view of the supplies on hand and the acreage intentions of other producing areas.

"How can I make the most profit on my potato crop in 1960?" There are several things I believe you can do that will help you realize the greatest profit from the crop.

1. Use enough seed per acre. Cut the seed piece to 1 1/2 to 2 ounce size for good strong plants.

2. Space the seed piece 10 or 12 inches apart in the row. Most of our potatoes have been spaced 14, or 15 inches apart, if you measure them.

3. Use 2000 to 2200 lbs. of 5-10's per acre if the pH is 5.2, on below, use 1000 lbs. 10-10-10 if pH is above 5.2 and if the calcium and magnesium test is medium to high, and the phosphorus is high.

4. Plan to irrigate if needed and if possible.

5. Control the Colorado Potato Beetle and the Flea Beetle.

Best wishes for a good crop!

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD ISSUE VOTED APRIL 8

Banks to Again Head Advertising Board for City

Sidney Banks and Albin R. Malthe were re-elected chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Virginia Beach Advertising Board at an organizational meeting held Monday in the Convention Center here.

Banks, president of the Cavalier Hotel Corporation, has served as chairman of the advertising group for the past several years. Malthe has been vice-chairman for the past two years.

In addition to Banks and Malthe other members of the board are A. B. Crews, Roy Niet Jr., Frank D. Farrell Jr., Mrs. Lucy Trafton, Charles Sale, Wallace T. Clark, Robert B. Taylor, Rufus S. Kight, Herbert A. Hoy Jr., Richard B. Kestley, John W. McComb, Sidney R. Kellam, James G. Montano, C. B. Shorter and P. M. Durham.

At the Board meeting the group discussed the forthcoming advertising program for the city which is scheduled to begin in metropolitan newspapers next month. A highway billboard program is carried on throughout the year.

Banks announced that it will be the duty of the Board to hold a meeting at least once a month.

County Plans New Courtroom

A second courtroom will be built in the red brick Princess Anne County Courthouse, erected in 1924. The ancient structure now has a courtroom on the second floor which houses the Circuit Court. The first floor is occupied by the School Board offices.

Drawings have been prepared showing the location of a new courtroom which is needed now that the 28th Judicial Circuit will have another judge, Richard B. Kellam, who will be sworn in July 1.

The circuit is being split, Judge Henry W. MacKinnon will sit only in Portsmouth, Judge Robert S. Wahab and Kellam will sit in Princess Anne and Isle of Wight counties.

The new courtroom will be started after the School Board moves into a new building some time after May 1. The courtroom will duplicate the upstairs one and will seat 84 persons.

It is not expected that the new courtroom will be completed by the time Kellam is sworn in.

Scout Sunday Observed at Scott Memorial

Sunday, March 13, in Scott Memorial Methodist Church, Ocean View, one of the largest congregations in recent months attended the Church Worship service on the occasion of Scout Anniversary Sunday.

Three Girl Scout Troops attended the service — Brownie Troop 245, Girl Scout Intermediate Troop 261, and Girl Scout Senior Troop 800. Likewise, three Boy Scout Troops were represented in the group — Cub Pack 62, Boy Scout Troop 82 and the Senior Air Explorers.

The scout troops, with their leaders and parents were welcomed to the service by the Rev. P. H. Striebel, pastor, who preached on the theme, "Growing toward Perfection." The minister pointed out that in the Methodist Church Scouting is recognized as an integral part of the Christian educational work of the local church, related to the Commission on Education. He emphasized the cooperation of the church and the scouting organization, as they work together for the finest possible development of the lives of our boys and girls — "one most cherished possession."

This service was also the occasion of the appearance, for the first time of the Junior Choir of the Church, directed by Mrs. James Hunter, and accompanied by Mrs. Irving J. Upson. Quite appropriately on the Sunday when so many children were being honored in the church service, the Junior Choir sang, "Hallelujah Lord Jesus."

Little Leaguers To Register on Monday, Mar. 21

Registration for American Little League Baseball participation will take place in the lobby of the Convention Center, Sunday, March 20, between 7:30 and 9 p.m. Forms which parents must sign will be distributed at both Linkhorn and W. T. Cooke schools on Friday, March 18.

To be eligible for the American League, a boy must: not attain the age of 13 years before August 1, 1960 live within the league boundaries which are 80th Street on the North, the middle of 31st Street on the South, and Great Neck Creek on the West. Team members from last year must also register for the coming season.

Despite ice hockey weather, America's pastime is getting underway. The American Little League needs help... team managers, assistants, scorekeepers, fund-raisers, amateur labor. Adult volunteers may list their names when the boys are being registered Monday night.

Catholic Census To Be Taken Here on March 20

On Sunday, March 6 and 13 meetings of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Men (DCCM) of Virginia Beach, were held at Star of the Sea Cafeteria. In preparation for the Catholic census to be taken on Sunday, March 20th, Mr. B. C. Williams of the Tidewater Diocese was there to instruct all the men on the proper way to enumerate the census. A door to door campaign coverage will be held to reveal to the Bishop of the Diocese of Richmond, a "census" count of Catholics living in all the areas of Virginia. More than 50 Parishoners, Holy Name Society and Brothers of the Knights of Columbus Council No. 4632 reported in to receive the instructions.

The idea behind the census is to establish information needed for future plans to build hospitals, schools, recreational facilities and other things may be needed for our growing population. In this light it will be appreciated if all Catholic families will please be home to receive the census enumerators when they call. Every door must be knocked on.

CAVALIER SALE IS CONFIRMED

Sidney Banks, veteran hotel operator and managing director of the Cavalier Hotel here, put to rest rumors that the Cavalier Hotel was to be sold to a new corporation, which he will head.

Banks announced last Thursday that while negotiations will continue for 90 days, interest in the transaction prompted him and his associates to issue a pre-sale announcement.

According to Banks his associates in the new corporation, of which he will be president, are Gene Dixon of Charlotte Court House

Assembly Confirms Kellam as Judge

The Virginia General Assembly last Thursday confirmed the nomination of Richard B. Kellam of Princess Anne to be judge of the 28th Judicial Circuit which comprises the counties of Princess Anne and Isle of Wight.

Kellam will be elevated to the Circuit Court bench July 1. He will serve with Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr., who becomes the senior judge of the circuit.

Kellam lives at Princess Anne with his wife, the former Alice Malbon, and their three children.

Sailor Must Pay $600 for Ride

A trip from the Virginia Beach bus station to the west gate of Ft. Story last month in a stolen 45-passenger bus cost a 20-year-old sailor $600 in damages.

George L. Miller, who told police he had never driven a bus before, was charged with grand larceny after he drove the bus the length of the military post and stopped to ask Military Police where he was. The charges were dropped Monday in Police Court.

New State Adjutant Appointed by Governor

Governor Almond Tuesday named Maj. Gen. Paul H. Booth to the post of adjutant general.

Booth, 52, who succeeded the late Maj. Gen. Sheppard M. Greene as adjutant general, was appointed Dec. 16.

Almond signed the commission and delivered it to Booth in the governor's office.

"I know you are qualified to do the job," said the governor to Booth, adding that the most adjutant general had "the confidence of the men and officers" in the Virginia Army National Guard.

FOPA Annual Meet Set for March 30

The annual dinner-meeting of the Fraternal Order of Police Associate Lodge 7 will be held the night of March 30 at the Cavalier Yacht and Country Club, according to Alky Cohen, lodge president.

Principal speaker for the meeting will be Richard B. Kellam, judge-elect of the 28th Judicial Circuit. Kellam will be introduced by Circuit Court Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES SUDDENLY

Frank Giles, a former resident of Virginia Beach, died suddenly Tuesday in Richmond. It was learned today.

Giles resided here for a number of years and was well known in civic and fraternal circles. He was retired after having been employed for many years with the Mergenthaler Linotype Company. Death was attributed to a heart attack, according to the report.

Robert Owen Gets 'Outstanding Achievement Award for 1959'

Mabel Murphy Owens, wife of Mr. R. H. Owen, Assistant Superintendent of Princess Anne County Schools has been named the "Woman of Outstanding Achievement of Princess Anne County for 1959."

The citation was presented to Mrs. Owen Monday night, March 14, during the Biennial Banquet of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Princess Anne County, which sponsors the award. The banquet was held at the Pine Tree Inn.

Mrs. M. P. Strickler, past president of the club, presented the award to Mrs. Owen for her untiring efforts in securing funds for the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County Library and funds for establishing a Mental Hygiene Clinic for Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

Mr. R. Stanley Hudgins, attorney in Norfolk and Princess Anne County, was chairman of the selection committee and announced the award. On the selection committee with Hudgins were James G. Kontopoulos and R. E. Thompson. Hudgins pointed out that several thousand dollars for establishing the Mental Hygiene Clinic was obtained from the Antique Show, originated by Mrs. Owen. Also, perhaps even a greater sum of money was procured through her leadership with the Princess Anne Woman's Club, which was a primary spark in obtaining the Public Library.

Mrs. Owen has devoted much time and energy in being of service to her community. At the present time she is serving in the following capacities:

1. Member of Board of Directors,

2. Member of Board of Directors of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Mental Health Association.
3. Member of the Board of Directors, Council for Brotherhood of Christians and Jews.
4. Member of the Library Committee, Council of Church Women.
5. Member of the Official Board, Scott Memorial Methodist Church.
6. Member of Board of Directors, Woman's Club of Princess Anne County.
7. Chairman of Veterans Affairs Department, Tidewater District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Owen became the fifth person to be so honored by the B.P.W. Club of Princess Anne County. Previous recipients of the award are: Mrs. Louise Hooper Ewell, Mrs. Cecil Henderson Reed, Mrs. Wallace T. Clark and Mrs. Paul B. Maestas. Mrs. Mark H. White, president of the club, presided.

Special music was rendered by Mr. Clarke Graves, Choir Director, Princess Anne High School.

Mr. John W. Diederich, Research Director for Norfolk-Portsmouth Newspapers, Inc., was the evening speaker, using as his subject, "Past, Present and Future Potential of the Norfolk-Portsmouth Metropolitan Area." The information he presented was excellent and most informative.

Miss Irma E. Bell was program chairman.

Recruiter

FIVE NEW SCHOOLS PLANNED TO FILL PRINCESS ANNE NEEDS

Voters of Princess Anne County Tuesday gave an overwhelming vote of approval to a $5,500,000 school construction bond issue. The margin was almost 15 to 1 in favor of the issue.

Official figures for the 19 voting precincts in Princess Anne County showed approval of the bond issue by a vote of 3,905 to 314.

The money realized from the sale of the bonds will be used to build five additional schools in the county to help take care of the exploding school population which is increasing at the rate of 200 pupils per year.

"The results of the school bond referendum are extremely gratifying to the school authorities of the county," Superintendant W. C. Sells said Tuesday, "and would seem to be tangible evidence of the interest of the citizens of the county in meeting school needs on a current basis."

"The school authorities are indebted to the administrative staff, the principals, the supervising staff, the parent-teacher organizations and others who have given their time and energies to bring about this very favorable vote."

The voting was light compared to the more than 10,000 ballots cast in the July 1959 Democratic primary.

This is the first county school referendum since May 1952, when voters by a 9 to 1 margin approved a $2,800,000 school bond issue. The vote then was 2,467 to 226.

The voting was limited to Princess Anne County, Virginia Beach did not participate.

The bond issue will provide for construction of two junior high schools and three or more elementary schools. The elementary schools are due to be completed by September 1961 and the two secondary facilities by September 1962.

"Had the vote been negative, Cass said, all children in grades eight through eleven would have been shifted in the next future."

One junior high school will be located on the Ocean View Road near the existing high school. The other two elementary schools are due to be completed by September 1961 and the two secondary facilities by September 1962.

The residents of Princess Anne County, accommodating 1,600 each, will be located near Argonne Village, in the Rosemont area, and on Bay Shore Road near Davis Corner. The Bay Shore Road school is for Negroes.

Seahawks Golf Team Opening Season Mar. 31

King lists three lettermen — Butch Clark, Randy Zehmer, Mike Clark and Bill Kellam.

The Virginia Beach men's numbers such promising newcomers as Brink Evans Jr., Gary Klahn and Charlie McDowell.

The 1960 Virginia Beach schedule:

May 3 — James Blair at Cavalier; May 5 — Princess Anne, Norview, Virginia Beach at Ocean View; May 12 — Open date; May 20-21 — State tournament at James River Country Club, Newport News.

Easter Seal Drive Begins Here Today

The Easter Seal campaign of the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults will begin here today, R. H. Owen, president of the local chapter of the Easter Seal Society, said that the annual drive to raise funds for work with crippled children and adults in this area will continue until Easter Sunday.

Officers for Bible Class Are Announced

R. R. "Buddy" McChesney has been re-elected president of the Men's Bible Class of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church. It has been announced.

Other officers of the class are: H. L. McLanahan, first vice president; L. C. Mallory, second vice president; A. W. Craft Sr., third vice president; E. Ray Howell, secretary; Dan Townes, assistant secretary; and E. DuVal, treasurer.

Directors are J. G. Watson, Charles E. Gray, Roy V. Dudley, S. R. Whitehurst and C. B. Owens. Harold B. Kellam serves as teacher of the class and Robert B. Hardaway is assistant teacher.

The campaign will be limited primarily to a letter appeal. Easter Seals are being mailed to a majority of the residents of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, along with information on the work of the Society and a request for support in carrying forward its program, according to Owen.

Owen said, "We are limited to children with any particular type of crippling condition. Our sole aim is to render a useful service to any child who is unable to obtain such a service through any other organization. For example, children at Camp Easter Seal Summer Treatment Center in Craig County are handicapped by practically every type of crippling condition. It is true that some of these have received assistance from other agencies, but no other organization has attempted to render such a specific goal." Owen said, "We are confident that the continued generosity of our members have supported our work and we hope that many more will join in the future to help us in our mission to alter this policy."

Persons who may not want Easter Seals in the mail may contribute to the fund by mail or DREN in care of the local master.

Blue ribbons were awarded to Mrs. A. Darden Hunter, Mrs. Harri Baker, Mrs. Ralph Midgely and Mrs. John T. Goode III. Red ribbons went to Mrs. John W. Cromwell, Mrs. R. Dawson Taylor, Mrs. J. Peter Holland III and Mrs. M. Ward Cole. Yellow ribbons were received by Mrs. Richard F. Weston and Mrs. R. Dawson Taylor.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. W. L. Whitehurst, Mrs. Robert S. Heinhardt and Mrs. T. J. White.

Ultra-Soft Look

Drifting, swirling lines are the dominant style features of this season's ultra-soft coils. Half-circle waves and subtle "B" waves float across the back and into a puff of top - height through the crown section. The silhouette of this trend is an easy oval. There is a slight suggestion of fullness but it's definitely less bouffant than in previous seasons, for there's a total absence of forced support or back-combing. The hair length is attractively short.

Yield complexion should be appealing to complement the new hairdo. We give particular attention to skin care and professional facials. Make an appointment now. Crews were heavily saluted, 211 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach. Phone GA 8-3381.

Miss Betty Belch, Gustav Watters Jr. Engaged to Wed

Cecil J. Belch Sr. of Norfolk, N.C. and Mrs. Clara P. Belch of Plymouth, N.C. announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Belch, to Gustav Watters Jr. of Fayetteville, N.C.

Miss Belch, a stewardess for Capital Airlines, attended Chowan College, Murfreesboro, N.C., and is presently residing at Virginia Beach.

Mr. Watters is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Watters of Fayetteville, N.C., and the grandson of Mrs. Kenneth W. Watters of Santa Barbara, Calif., and the late Mr. Watters, and Mrs. Mary Schmidt of Buffalo, N.Y., and the late Mr. Schmidt. He attended Hamilton College, Clinton, N.Y., and is presently a navy pilot at the Naval Air Station, Oceanside.

A summer wedding is planned.

F. M. Forsberg Speaks Before Woman's Club

Mrs. D. W. Gregory, chairman of the garden department of the County, introduced Mrs. F. M. Forsberg, assistant superintendent of parks in Norfolk, as guest speaker at the club's regular luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Pine Tree Inn.

Forsberg spoke on "Trees. He showed slides of live oak, magnolia, American redwood, cedar of Lebanon, cypress, linden and many others giving first their well known name and then the Latin name always recognized by botanists. Of particular interest was the small live linden - a tree that lines the main street in Berlin, and one which is always full of insect and disease. He stated that, although he was not quite sure of the correct freezing temperature, the seeds of a linden can be placed in a deep freeze from 10 to 18 weeks, removed from the freezer for the same period, and then replaced in the freezer six to eight weeks more, and when put in the ground will begin to sprout. Prefacing his statement "man is not a superior creature," he explained that it takes two years for a linden to begin to sprout - the refrigeration period fools the seeds into thinking that it is in a deep freeze.

The club approved a $10 contribution to Idaho Free Refuge and a $25 donation to a needy family.

Mrs. Waverly J. Dickens Jr., president, will represent the club at the Chamberlin Hotel on March 30. Alternates are Mrs. R. H. Owen and Mrs. George E. Russell.

Mrs. Dickens announced that Mrs. Frank Klepper, Mrs. J. Douglas Wilson and Mrs. J. Douglas Wilson were in charge of the luncheon committee for the club, and Mrs. L. W. Meschum, Mrs. Bernard Bateman and Mrs. George E. Miller were appointed to serve on the budget committee.

Mrs. C. L. Hopper, general chairman of the Heart Fund Drive for a part of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach reported that $1,500 was collected for the fund. She is chairman of the club's health and mental health department.

Mrs. H. W. Woodcock, chairman of the club's social committee, reported that a revolving fund for materials to be used for occupational therapy for patients at Eastern State Hospital, a total of $100 was collected.

Mrs. J. Douglas Wilson, chairman of the literature, poetry and drama department, announced that a book review would be held on March 30 at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. K. Winkler.

Members and guests participated in the State Federation Young Women's Convention on the piano by Mrs. G. C. Marshall, music chairman.

Spring Clean-Up Drive To Be Launched May 2

The Council of Garden Clubs of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach is launching its Spring Clean-Up Drive which will begin the first week of May. The schools in this area are encouraged to take an active part in the campaign.

Every citizen, young or old, has a stake in the beauty and cleanliness of his country. We must take the responsibility of keeping it that way by encouraging the children in our classrooms to be crusaders in this work.

The theme for this year is "Good Outdoor Manners" and the poster, slogan and essay aspect is being stressed. Everyone is entitled to clean and beautiful.

Six of our local schools will compete for a silver trophy and $400 cash prize which has been donated by Mr. R. Lee Page. These schools are: Johnstons Park, John B. Day, Thalia, Friends, Everett and Cooke schools.

Mrs. H. O. Freeman Installs Officers

Mrs. H. O. Freeman, president of the Cape Henry Woman's Club, installed officers at a meeting of the newly organized Cape Henry Junior Woman's Club, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at Rose Hall game room.

Mrs. Freeman presented a novel to the club at this time.

Cardinal Garden Club Holds Meet

The Cardinal Garden Club held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon Potter, with Mrs. Irvin Upon co-hostess.

Mr. Charles Hays of Cavalier Nursery was guest speaker. He suggested that everyone should plant their yard so that it has color during all seasons of the year. Members were advised when and how to prune shrubbery in order to increase size of blooms. Mr. Hays described several new and interesting plants, which are now being successfully grown in this area.

OCEAN PARK WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS JUDGE HITCHINGS

The Ocean Park Woman's Club met Wednesday, March 9, at 12:30 p.m. at the new club room of the Ocean Park Fire Station.

The American Home chairman, Mrs. L. D. Ledbetter, announced a game party to be held March 29. The proceeds will be used for new curtains for the club room.

Mrs. Michael Henry, Fine Arts chairman, had a display of arts and crafts which the club women had made in the past year. Mrs. R. J. Vellines, from the Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club and Mrs. Harry Addison from the Norfolk Woman's Club judged the exhibit and awarded ribbons. In the Novice Class landscape, Mrs. Claude Nock; still life, Mrs. E. C. Daughtery and water color Mrs. Daughtery.

Advanced Oil - Mrs. A. F. Main was awarded two ribbons, one for her still life and one for her landscape. Other ribbons were given for ceramics, knitting, crocheting, embroidery and children's dresses.

Mrs. A. F. White, president, announced that the club had raised $41 for the Maxitron, which is one of the projects of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. C. W. Athey reported that $150 had been collected for the March of Dimes and that the Girl Scout Troop helped with the collection.

The Ocean Park Woman's Club in co-operation with the Ocean Park Civic League are obtaining street signs for the area. Forty signs are needed. The ladies will go from door to door to raise the $85 balance that is due on this project.

Mrs. A. F. White was re-elected as president of the club along with the present officers that are now serving.

New members welcomed were: Mrs. A. C. DeLoine, and Mrs. Mary A. Robinson.

Judge Vernon A. Hitchings, judge of the Norfolk Traffic Court, was the speaker. He said "older drivers who have not kept up with the new trend in traffic are a menace."

He also said that the "Driver Training Course offered in the schools has done much to cut down accidents in the younger drivers category. This is offered at Princess Anne High School and the students are given one credit for taking the course." According to Judge Hitchings Virginia would do well to pattern their drivers license after North Carolina. Every four years all drivers are given tests and examinations.

The 1960 session of the Virginia General Assembly is over and while the smoke is clearing somewhat it is obvious that the tensions and pressures that built up in Richmond prevented the clear thinking that has been the trademark of legislative sessions in the past in this state.

It is true that new sources of revenue were finally found to balance the budget and it is also true that Virginia has once again avoided the sales tax. But, instead of avoiding this tax the recently concluded session of the Assembly may have merely postponed a sales tax.

Issues raised in this session were not entirely settled. We believe the recent session points up the need for better fiscal planning and that a thorough investigation into State finances and taxation is very much in order. This is necessary to meet the need for equitable taxation and government efficiency and economy.

Another need is for better tax collection in Virginia. This is indicated in the revelation that a number of those paying federal income taxes do not pay State income taxes. The reason needs to be found—and remedied. One method in this regard would be withholding income taxes as the federal government does, but that system has some disadvantages.

Good government demands that some of these points be given further study before the next session of the Virginia General Assembly.

Mrs. Owen Is Honored

Mrs. R. H. (Mabel Murphy) Owen has been named the "Woman of Outstanding Accomplishment of Princess Anne County for 1959" by a special awards committee of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Princess Anne County.

The award to Mrs. Owen was presented at the biennial banquet of the club held Monday night. A brief review of her civic work and deeds readily reveals that the committee made an excellent selection in Mrs. Owen. She has been a tireless worker for the betterment of this entire area.

Among some of the accomplishments of Mrs. Owen the committee pointed out specifically the several thousands of dollars for establishing the Mental Hygiene Clinic that was realized from the antique show originated by Mrs. Owen.

Another project helped tremendously through the efforts of Mrs. Owen was the public library which received a sum of money from the Princess Anne Women's Club under Mrs. Owen's leadership.

Mrs. Owen is active in crippled children work, in mental hygiene circles, with the library committee, her church, the Woman's Club and the Council for Brotherhood of Christians and Jews.

The selection of Mrs. Owen for this coveted award is well deserved and we congratulate her. It is nice to know that we have such fine citizens among us and it is because of persons of the caliber of Mrs. Owen that we have progressed and advanced as a community.

Secret of American Legion Strength

The American Legion celebrates its 41st birthday, March 15 to 17, 1960. It will keynote its anniversary with the largest collective birthday party in the nation. Some 17,000 American Legion community posts—aided by 14,000 Auxiliary Units—will turn March into a big, joyful observance month from coast to coast.

As the American Legion starts on its 42nd year of service to communities, states, and the nation, its continued virility amazes both friends and critics. Now composed of veterans of the Twentieth Century's three wars, the American Legion continues to flourish and to make its influence felt in vital matters that affect the national welfare.

The secret of its strength lies in the bond that ties Legionnaires together. It is a heart-warming bond—it's devotion to mutual helpfulness. All of its gifts—what it offers its members and its fellowmen—are tied with its heart strings!

This American Legion ideal of mutual helpfulness is all-Embracing. It includes needy children, widows and orphans, hospitalized veterans, and in fact all who are in need of a helping hand. It is this ideal translated into terms of daily living that makes the American Legion a 365-day-a-year Santa Claus. Its unselfish and generous services are not limited to the annual season of good will at Christmas time. It can feel proud that this ideal of devotion to mutual helpfulness today underlies our government's entire program of foreign aid.

In building for warmer neighborhoods in America, the American Legion has set an inspiring pattern for making all the world a better neighborhood.

Corsage Making Demonstrated at Carden Club Meet

Cheesapeake Colony Garden Club met on Thursday, March 10, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Cox.

Mrs. W. M. Gresham demonstrated corsage making, a highly specialized craft requiring imagination, color sense, mechanical knowledge and considerable dexterity. Perhaps the best illustration of these points is the construction of a gladiolus—a lovely camellia-like blossom made from gladiolus petals.

Blue ribbons for horticultural successes were awarded to Mrs. P. C. McCune and Mrs. A. L. Lane. Yellow ribbons were received by Mrs. E. T. Hanson and Mrs. L. W. Hay for all group arrangements and Mrs. T. P. Quinn for a unique St. Patrick's arrangement.

'Blue Angel' Film To Be Shown at Shrine Club Meet

At the regular meeting of the Shrine Club, Friday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m., in the Shrine Club, 1200 E. 1st St., a film, "The Blue Angel," will be shown. The film is a story of a man who is seduced by a woman and ends in tragedy. All members are invited to attend and bring their guests.

Sunday Forum To Hear Cayce

On Sunday, March 20, from 3:30 to 5 p.m., the "Sunday Forum" will feature a talk by Edgar Cayce, younger son of Edgar Cayce, whose 40-year life of psychic readings is preserved by the Edgar Cayce Foundation.

Edgar Evans Cayce has been a member of the Board of Trustees of the Edgar Cayce Foundation for many years. He received his BS degree in E.E. at Duke University in 1939 and then worked up to Captain in the Army Signal Corps and Air Force where he spent four and one-half years in radar work. At present, he is employed by the Virginia Electric & Power Co. in the Planning Dept. "Eckes" is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and also of the National Society of Professional Engineers and registered professional engineer in the State of Virginia.

How About Uniform School Buildings?

The Editor
Virginia Beach Sun-News
Dear Sir:

Now that the school construction bond issue has been approved and I am one of the great majority who voted for it let me ask some questions or make some suggestions, if I may.

First of all, I am wholly unfamiliar with the whys and wherefores of school construction, but I have observed the completed schools, not only in our county, but elsewhere throughout the country. It seems that we have new school buildings of every design and probably each new plan requires a different set of architectural plans.

I may be completely off base but the suggestion I would like to make is to have uniform sets of plans so that each new school building would not require a new set of plans which are expensive.

It may be that we now operate with a certain number of basic building plans. If not, it would seem in the interest of economy to have these or four basic building plans that could be adapted for each new building constructed.

It would seem that we could have basic plans for elementary schools and basic plans for secondary schools. As I have said we may be operating under such basic plans at the present. However, if we are not I strongly urge school officials to consider my suggestion.

An Interested Citizen.

Beach Art Group Slates Exhibit For March 22-27

Professor I. D. Durham, College of William and Mary, will speak on Trends in Modern Art on Wednesday, March 23, at the monthly meeting of the Virginia Beach Art Association. The meeting will be held at the Convention Center where the Annual Spring Exhibit will be shown March 22 through March 27. The exhibit is open to the public daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Featured guest artists are Genia Tzartell Rickerson, Russian born but now a Canadian citizen and a resident of Brighton, Ontario, and Glen Heaton of Baltimore. Mrs. Rickerson is one of Canada's outstanding artists, having exhibited in numerous fine art shows, and has been accepted in the country's leading galleries. For the past two years she has come to Virginia Beach for the Boardwalk Art Show and received honorable mention in 1959. She is delighted with Virginia Beach hospitality and welcomes the opportunity to return. A widow, she lives alone on her apple farm which she manages in the same capable manner with which she paints, designs clothes, and teaches Russian and French to her Canadian neighbors.

Glen Heaton is another local boy making good since he was a resident of Norfolk at the age of three when his father, Capt. Earl O. Heaton, U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, was stationed in Norfolk area. Later he was a student at Granby High School for three years while his father was the Coast Survey District Office. Captain Heaton is now retired and he and Mrs. Heaton reside at 312 47th St. Mr. Heaton studied architecture at the University for two years then into the Marine Corps. He received his B.A. at Maryland Institute of Art in Baltimore and is now working on his Master's degree. He has exhibited in Peale Museum in Baltimore, Maryland Regional Show, Baltimore and was a prize winner in the recent Irene Leach Show at the Norfolk Museum. He married Helen Morison MacLachlan of Baltimore in November, 1959.

Both Mrs. Rickerson and Mr. Heaton have sold a number of paintings in the Tidewater area and some have been loaned for the exhibit. Mr. Durham is one of America's prominent artists. He received his bachelor's degree in art from the University of South Carolina and his masters from the University of Georgia. He studied with such men as Lamar Dodd, Francis Chapin and Ferdinand Warren. He has exhibited at the Gibbs Gallery in Charleston, S.C., and at the Artists Gallery in Columbia, S.C. He was invited to the recent Irene Leach Show at the Norfolk Museum and at the American Water Color Society.

A number of local artists will also exhibit at the Spring Show.

Kite-Flying Time Here; Warnings Issued on Safety

Nobody welcomes spring more than boys. For them, it's warm, sunny days mean many things including fishing, baseball and kite flying. Boys are fascinated by the endless blue expanse of the skies and they envy the birds in their effortless flight.

A boy controlling his gaily colored kite with its funny tail has almost as much fun as if he were actually flying himself. With the space age upon us, and man probing this vast unexplored frontier, kite flying has become increasingly popular.

Kite flying can be fun and it can be extremely dangerous, too, unless young pilots fly them safely. Kite flying can be fun and it can be extremely dangerous, too, unless young pilots fly them safely. Kite flying can be fun and it can be extremely dangerous, too, unless young pilots fly them safely.

However, before the season starts, Reddy has these words of caution for his young friends. "Fly your kite in a level field and away from such things as TV antennas, power lines, rocks and trees. If your kite happens to land in a tree or power line, leave it alone. A new kite won't cost much and having a new one is much better than taking a chance of getting hurt."

"Another thing, make sure you fly a safe kite. A safe kite is one that doesn't have any metal on it anywhere — either in the body, tail or cord. Metal in a kite could cause a serious injury if the kite came in contact with a power line. "Always observe the rules," Reddy said, "be sure you and your buddies fly safely."

Reddy Kilowatt, who works for the Virginia Electric and Power Company, loves kite flying as much as anybody and he loves his kite flying friends.

Albano Cleaners set a new high team set record for the league rolling team games of 505, 494 and 575 for a total of 2544 pins. Andy Holland of Albano Cleaners had first and second high individual games of the night rolling a 224 and 215 respectively. Jake Brammer of C. F. Kadus Co. placed third with a 210. Next week starts the final period of the league series. Winners of all three periods will have a final roll-off May 16 to determine the league champions.

THUNDERBIRDS TAKE THREE POINTS

The Coaches Sporting Goods Thunderbird Bowl to pin team resumed their winning ways last Sunday at Newport News by taking three out of four points from the WVEC-TV quintet. Getting off to a fast start, the Virginia Beach five took the first game by 37 pins in a 212 game by Pete Preston and identical 205 scores by Kent Shaffer and Lee Amundson. Lee's 200 in the second game wasn't enough to compensate for several low scores of teammates and WVEC clocked out a 15-point win with a 980 team game. In the third game, John Montgomery toppled 202 pins and Kent Shaffer 250 to spark the Coaches Thunderbirds to a 922 game and total pinfall which gave the visitors three points and moved them

Panel Discussion Features Meet of University Women

"Women in Public Office" was the subject of a panel discussion at the March meeting of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The panel members, representing various fields of women's activities, were: Mrs. W. T. Clark, Clubwoman; Mrs. Joseph Harrell, Supervisor; Princess Anne School; Mrs. S. W. Hicks, Child Welfare Worker, Princess Anne County; and Miss Margaret White, Social Studies Teacher, Maury High School.

The moderator was Mrs. John C. Brashaw Jr., Branch Chairman of the Social and Economic Issue and Status of Women Committee.

Members and guests met at 8 p.m., March 16, at the Country Day School.

one notch higher on the ladder towards the very near top spot.

While the Thunderbirds were winning three points, the top team in the Intercity Traveling League was losing two. Zales met the Hopewell team on their home lanes and found the going rough, barely managing to have the match and thereby dropping to within three points of the second place. Pin Path, holding down the third rung, dropped all four points to Hopewell in a match that was originally postponed, then dropped one more point to Colonial in its regularly scheduled match Sunday. In losing five points, the Pin Path five left considering the light between themselves and the second place Virginia Beach team.

Next Sunday the Coaches Thunderbirds will meet Colonial Heights on the home lanes, then journey to Hopewell for a postponed match at 6 p.m. With only nine league matches remaining after those next Sunday, these two titles will figure heavily in the chances of the local team to take top honors. By winning them all, first place will be only three points away; if two or more are dropped, any chance to gain ground on the leaders will be almost irretrievably lost. Co-sponsors Fred Isaacs and Joe Phelps announced their team has been entered in the Virginia State Tournament to be held at the Thunderbird Lanes, Virginia Beach, commencing April 22. Pairings and schedules will be announced by the tournament committee at a later date.

Stars, Hawks County Champs

OCEANA — The Aragona Village Shooting Stars and the London Bridge Hawks are the newly crowned midget and junior basketball champions for Princess Anne County.

Donnie Tyler Stars had to go into an overtime period with the Virginia Beach Lions in order to win the championship. The score was tied 9 all at the end of the regulation game. The Stars, led by Billy Stagg, scored 5 points in the overtime period while holding their opponent to no points and the game ended 14 to 9. Stagg was the top scorer for the Aragona Five with 5 points and James Batchler scored 5 for the Lions.

The London Bridge Hawks, led by 5 points at the close of the first half, scored 21 points in the second half to defeat the Diamond Springs Comets, 27 to 16, for the junior championship. James Tarter, stellar center for the Hawks, was top scorer for the Hawks with 9 points, scoring 8 of them in the second half. Robert Cartwright tallied 7 points for the Comets.

The Courthouse Braves won the junior consolation game by defeating the Kempville Aces, 33 to 28.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

The MIXING HOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

by LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables . . . for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Howl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

A poet once wrote of the difficulty of counting the cats of Zanzibar. It would be even harder to count the many uses of Zanzibar's most important export—cloves.

As every good cook knows, this pungent, potent spice makes its fragrant, palate-exhilarating contribution to every department of the menu. Cloves flavor meats, gravies, pickled and cooked fruits, baked goods, desserts, cookies and candies.

Nor does the clove's busy-ness stop in the culinary world. Clove oil, distilled from the clove buds, is the basis for many a fabulous French perfume (in this guise it smells like carnations), and it supplies the delicate aroma of certain expensive cigarettes and pipe tobacco blends. Medically, it's a good antiseptic, and a temporary queller of toothaches.

Back in China's Han period (206 B.C.) cloves were one of the "chicken tongue spice" because courtiers approaching the emperor's throne were required to hold cloves under their tongues so that their breaths would be sweet. This probably gave the gentlemen's mouths a chicken-tongue look.

The word "clove" comes from the French "clou," meaning nail which is what the spice looks like. The clove is actually the dried, unopened bud of an evergreen tree of the myrtle family.

Clove buds, which consist of the little ball of unexpanded petals, gripped by four tiny prongs, must be picked by hand one at a time, and at exactly the right degree of maturity. The buds grow in clusters of 10 to 50 heads on a main stem and are harvested twice a year. Since it takes from 4,000 to 7,000 buds to make one pound of spice, the number of man hours involved in picking, sorting and drying is prodigious.

Zanzibar and Madagascar are our major suppliers of cloves.

Both whole and ground cloves are available on the market. The American Spice Trade Association has developed the following recipes which point up the charming clove's versatile versatility.

Clove Apple Cakes
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 cup shortening
1 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1 medium ripe cooking apple
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 tablespoon light corn syrup
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine

Sift first 4 ingredients into a mixing bowl. Add shortening and cut it in with a pastry blender or two knives until the mixture resembles coarse meal. Combine milk, egg and pure vanilla extract and stir into the dry ingredients. Mix well. Drop a tablespoon of batter into each of 12 well-greased muffin tins or custard cups. Peel apples, core and cut into 1-inch slices.

Crosswise, place a slice over each cup of batter. Fill centers with a mixture of sugar, salt and spices. Brush top with mixture of corn syrup and melted butter or margarine. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400°F.) 20 to 25 minutes or until apples are tender. Serve warm, for dessert, with whipped cream sweetened with 1 tablespoon to each 1 cup heavy cream. Dust with cloves and cinnamon. Or, if desired, serve as coffee cake for breakfast without cream. (YIELD: 12 servings.)

French Pork in a Marinade
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ground sage
1 teaspoon ground thyme
1 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 teaspoon whole cloves
1 teaspoon whole allspice
1 bay leaf, crumbled
1 tablespoon sliced lemon rind
2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
4 to 5 pound loin or pork roast, or fresh ham

1. tablespoon fat
1 cup sliced onions
1 cup sliced carrots
Heat the first 5 ingredients just to the boiling point. Pour over pork roast. Cool. Marinate in the refrigerator 24 hours, turning several times. Remove meat from the marinade. Save liquid. Brown on all sides in hot fat in a Dutch oven or heavy saucepan. Add marinade, onions and carrots and cover. Simmer until meat is tender, about 2 hours. If desired, bake in a covered roaster in a preheated slow oven (325°F.) 2 hours. Remove meat from roasting pan. Strain gravy and thicken, using 1 tablespoon flour for each cup of gravy. Season to taste. (YIELD: 6 to 8 servings.)

Spiced Chocolate Hermit
1 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 to 1 cup sour milk
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup chopped nuts
2 cup seedless raisins

Cream shortening and sugar together until fluffy. Stir in melted chocolate. Add salt, cinnamon, cloves and soda. Beat in egg. Add sour milk alternately with flour. Stir in nuts and raisins. Drop dough from a teaspoon onto lightly greased cookie sheets. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375°F.)

15 minutes or until done. Cool on wire rack. Store in a tightly covered container. (YIELD: 4 dozen.)

SPICE TIPS
Spiced Lenten Special
Spike a can of cream of mushroom soup with a generous dash of ground cloves and nutmeg. Add 1 cup evaporated milk and 1 cup finely cut cooked cauliflower. Heat, stirring frequently, until smooth. Fold in a can of white-meat tuna fish and serve over hot, buttered noodles.

Clove Fruit Juice
For something specially refreshing, combine equal parts chilled apricot nectar and apple juice with half as much pineapple juice. Flavor it with ground cloves and sugar to taste and shake well in a tightly covered jar. Serve over ice.

Clove-Butter Carrots
Flavor cooked sliced carrots with a spicy browned-butter sauce. For 3 cups carrots, melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine with 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground black pepper and 1 teaspoon each ground cloves and cinnamon. Brown butter slowly and lightly and pour over hot carrots.

Country Day School Presents "Evening Of Theatre" Here

On Friday evening, March 11, the Country Day School for Girls presented an "Evening of Theatre" in the Guild Hall of the First Presbyterian Church. The evening included two plays, a piano solo by Betty Lou Burton, and a program by the Chorus, under the direction of the Rev. Henry Morgan, pastor of First Presbyterian.

In the first play, "Come, Fill the Cup," a farce-comedy in one act by Peg Harig, produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., Mary Douglas, cast as the mother of five daughters, was outstanding. On stage through the entire play, Miss Douglas played her role with poise and sureness. She was ably supported by Carol Warner, Wing Todd, Laura Lamb, Betty Lou Burton and Nancy West as her daughters, and Deborah Moxley in the lone male role.

The second play, "Mrs. Harper's Bazaar," a farce in one act by Bobette Hughes, produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, featured Jeanne Payne as Mrs. Harper, beset by problems which she desperately tries to solve. Others in the cast were Betty Lou Burton in a movie actress, Judy Hunt as a legitimate actress, Caroline Horton the town's social leader, and Carole Weiler, Becky Adkinson, Lynn Church, and Linda Snow as women of the town. Susan Crommelin was Mrs. Harper's niece.

Special laurels go to Betty Lou Burton, who stepped in at the last minute to substitute for Julie Whitehurst in "Come, Fill the Cup." She did the part with ease and understanding, stepping from that to her piano solo, thence to accompany the Chorus, and finally to portray convincingly the hard-boiled movie actress in "Mrs. Harper's Bazaar."

Staff for both plays were Mrs. William Sills, director; Abby Starke, stage manager; Betty Scott, prompter; Becky Adkinson, props

Scott Memorial Woman's Society Year Successful

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of Scott Memorial Methodist Church, Oceana, has had a very rewarding year through its program and member participation. Under the fine leadership of the president, Mrs. P. A. Newberry and the four circle leaders, Mrs. W. F. Hubner, Mrs. Curtis Reid, Mrs. S. C. Malloy and Mrs. F. H. Strieby this group has accomplished many things. The guidance of the vice president, Mrs. H. E. Reich, has resulted in inspirational and informative programs each month. The March meeting was very helpful in presenting stewardship to the many members. The leaders, Mrs. C. VanHaren and Mrs. W. O. Godfrey inspired the members to greater stewardship. The "World Bank" were dedicated and in a tangible way witnessed to the devotion of the members.

Local activity work has been continuous through the year under the leadership of Mrs. Irvin Evans. Particular work in this area has also been done by Mrs. Carl Hampton, director of youth work. The students of the church have been remembered by the student secretary, Mrs. H. E. Brown Jr., and her committee in planning the sending of cookies, literature, cards and letters to those away from home. Shut-ins have been well remembered as have the frequent calls for help in families in need. The Spiritual Life of the society has been strengthened under the leadership of Mrs. W. O. Godfrey directing five prayer groups and the continuous study of the Gospel of Luke. Three Jurisdictional study classes under the direction of Missionary Education Secretary, Mrs. P. K. Olesby, have broadened the world vision of the members. Other leaders in their respective fields have been Mrs. H. E. Frizzell, Mrs. H. P. Ives and Mrs. Lawrence Wise. The Christian Social Relations work has made good progress under the leadership of Mrs. S. Hiltz. The treasurer, Mrs. Mary Scott, has been busy this year with the additional funds raised for all phases of the work of the WSCS. It is well recognized that the faithful participation of the members has made the work of the executive officers successful.

Miss Fannie Brock was honored on a district level as being the oldest charter member of the district.

The Quadrennium theme "The Spirit of Christ for all of Life" has been truly been developed in this organization.

"Mrs. Harper's Bazaar": Susan Thomas props "Come Fill the Cup"; sets the Seniors, under the direction of Susan Thomas.

THE STORY BEHIND THE WATER CONSERVATION STAMP

The fact that water is vital and limiting natural resources is dramatized by the latest in a series of conservation commemorative postage stamps — the recent water conservation stamp to be issued in Washington, D.C. on April 18, 1960. No other resource so directly affects the welfare, comfort, and happiness of all the people.

Our national and personal need for water for domestic use, for sanitation, for manufacture, and for agriculture is multiplied each year by our expanding population. Without water, we cannot produce the food and fiber needed to nourish and clothe our rapidly increasing population.

More and more people each year are turning to water and water sports for leisure time enjoyment. But there is just so much water. The earth's water supply remains constant. We can meet these vital and rising demands for water only by better use of what we have — by reducing needless waste and pollution — by protecting the watershed upon which our water falls as rain and snow — by finding more efficient ways for its use.

Most problems of water shortage, poor water, or floods trace back directly to the land.

Whether or not the land in each watershed is eroded or is mantled by protective cover of grass and trees — whether there are small dams and other flood-preventing structures along the channels — whether steps have been taken to reduce pollution — these determine in large measure whether water supplies are ample and reliable.

It is because of the dependence of water supply on watersheds that the commemorative stamp will be formally issued at the 80th National Watershed Congress in the nation's capital on April 18.

The new water resources commemorative stamp will be available in local post offices on April 19, the day following its official issuance.

The unique two-panel stamp portrays a closeup view of a drop of water falling from a leaf, which symbolizes watershed influences upon water supply. This design leads the eye to the right-hand panel depicting an actual watershed panorama. A town and farm in the foreground are dependent on the upstream watershed with its well-managed farm and forest lands and small dams for flood prevention and water storage.

MANAGED MILKING, HOW DOES IT WORK?

Simple, just follow the same procedure with each milker unit down the line. One, check the milk from each quarter with a good strip cup. Two, prepare the cow properly. Wash and massage the udder with clean warm water to remove dirt, and to stimulate milk letdown. Three, attach the machine within one minute after preparation. Four, repeat one and two with the next cow. Five, turn to first cow, and machine strip — six, release vacuum and remove machine gently. Seven, with milk line open, dip test cups first in clean water, then in a good disinfectant solution. Eight, place milk on second cow. Nine, dip tests of first cow in solution of 1 soluble pine oil, and 1 tincture of green soap.

SPECIAL CARE FOR LAMBS

If you lose more than 15% of your lambs, your lambing season has not been a success. You can cut losses by taking good care of these lambs during their early life. After making sure that the lamb will be warm and dry, treat the navel with iodine to prevent navel ill disease. Don't use old iodine that has evaporated, since this will probably be too strong.

It is important that lambs nurse within 30 minutes after birth. It may be necessary to start the milk from the ewe, and assist the lamb to nurse, but thereafter let him in a good way of getting the milk off to a healthy start. There can possibly be trouble with digestive disorders, which are due to failure to maintain good sanitary conditions. While some of the newer medicines may be helpful, there is nothing as good as prevention through removal of the actual cause. Clean, dry bedding, and thoroughly disinfected quarters will reduce these troubles.

Occasionally a ewe will down her lambs. Using lambing pens, and a good ration for the ewe to enjoy plenty of milk for the lamb will keep this problem at a minimum.

PRESENT STATUS OF WEED CONTROL IN SOYBEANS

Because the gross return of an acre of soybeans is much less than the crops such as corn, any weed control practice must be relatively cheap.

Several herbicides have shown good performance of soybeans, but the cost per acre on some of these has made them impractical for wide usage. Some growers have used 2-4-D as a pre-emergence herbicide, but crop tolerance is rather critical under certain soil and moisture conditions. Excessive moisture has caused extensive damage. The same is true with other materials, such as Chlora IPC, Alanap and dinitro, although to a lesser extent. A review of the performance of some of the materials that have shown most promise in Experiment Station tests since 1950, indicates that Chlora IPC at six pounds per acre has given satisfactory weed control in about 90% of the cases. Eight pounds has been 100% effective. Dinitro, at six pounds has been effective in 67% of the trials, while nine pounds has been 87% effective. Alanap-3 at 2 or 4 pounds has been satisfactory in over one-half of the tests, while six pounds gave good performance in 85% of the trials.

Crop injury has been observed in all materials in certain years. Predictions on the performance of a material used as a pre-emergence treatment cannot be made. At present, there are no satisfactory post-emergence treatments for weeds in soybeans. 2-4-D at low rates, 1 pound per acre, has been used at the early stages of the crop and weeds, but the cases of crop injury are numerous. Varietal differences in the response to 2-4-D is indicated with Ogden, Clarke, and 520 showing the most tolerance.

All the materials discussed are commercially available, and certain ones are being promoted more than others. The decision to use a material rests entirely with the grower, and no prediction or guarantee can be made as to the performance by the Experiment Station or the manufacturer. Trial applications over a few seasons will indicate trends of material, and the experience and observations of you, alone, will determine if feasible, under your conditions.

STRIPPING FRUIT IN THE HOME GARDEN

Are you one of the unlucky persons who has gone to the expense of purchasing various fruit trees for your back yard, and have never harvested your first apple, or peach?

There are many people in this "belt," and the reasons most often given is that it is too much trouble to spray, the fruit trees are small. This was probably true several years ago, when a home owner with a few trees would have to use all of the various mixtures of chemicals that were recommended for the commercial orchard growers. Today, we have something much more convenient to use and easy to use. This material is called an All Purpose Spray. Generally, it is a combination of methoxychlor, malathion, plus captan. The same material is used for spraying each time.

The horticultural department at VPI has prepared a very brief but most informative circular called "Spraying Fruit, A Spray Program for the Home Gardener." This circular is available free from my office, and you can receive your copy by addressing a post card to me. This circular has in it a spray chart which will tell you when to spray all of the fruits you can possibly have. It is an excellent spray chart and will give you the answers to many of the problems you may have regarding the spraying of a few fruit trees.

THE WHEEL TRACK METHOD

The Wheel Track method, a new way to plant and grow corn, is causing a lot of questions in minds of Princess Anne County born producers.

The Wheel Track method consists of plowing, planting in tractor wheel tracks, applying a pre-emergence spray as the corn is planted, and cultivating once when the corn is knee-high. In order to have a closer look at this method here at home, one of two demonstrations will be conducted in Princess Anne this year. The farmers to cooperate in this demonstration have not been selected at this time.

It is still in the experimental stage, and is not yet being recommended to farmers as a general practice to follow.

GARDENING TIME NEAR

Although the weather has been relatively cold, it won't be long before we will be in the vegetable gardens, planting some of our early vegetables. In fact, just as soon as the weather is permissible, there are several vegetables that need to be planted now.

I have a very excellent bulletin called "Vegetable Gardening" that is hot off the press. This bulletin should be of tremendous help to you in selecting varieties to grow, rate of seeding or planting, fertilization, and other facts that you will need information on.

For your free copy of vegetable gardening, send a card to me.

LAWN PROBLEMS

Do you have difficulty getting grass to grow under large trees in your yard?

If you do, you will probably be interested in knowing that Kentucky 31 Fescue is adapted to growing in shade areas.

This is one of the topics discussed in a new bulletin called "Lawn for Virginia," available free from my office. A card to me will be sufficient to get your free copy.

INSECT AND DISEASE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR VEGETABLE CROPS

Two new bulletins have just been released from the Virginia Truck Experiment Station. One bulletin, Disease Control Recommendations for Truck Crops in Eastern Virginia, the other is Insect Control Recommendations for Vegetable Crops in Eastern Virginia. A copy of both of these bulletins can be secured by writing my office.

AGRONOMISTS REPORT CORN HYBRID TESTS

Corn hybrids, tailored to meet specific needs of Virginia farmers, are the aim of exhaustive tests conducted by the VPI Agricultural Experiment Station throughout the state.

And when the farmer goes to choose his corn hybrid this year, he will find some detailed data on which to base his choice. Agronomists at VPI explain that many farmers elect a hybrid because of its various characteristics. So the "recommended" list published in past years has been dispensed with this year. Instead the agronomists have underscored the outstanding characteristics of the hybrids tested, hoping that the farmer can thus more readily and easily select the hybrid that will best suit his needs.

The report on corn hybrid tests can be scrutinized at my office. Such factors as plant and ear blight, length of shank, length of husk, and disease ratings are reported. Meanwhile, the VPI scientists release this list of hybrids which did as well as or better than the standard check varieties in the various areas:

Southern coastal plain, 58 Pothontas, Funk G26, Pioneer 301A, Todd 902, Funk G91, Funk G134, DeKalb 503A, VPI 646, Wood V289, Funk G144, Pioneer 312A, Weed

V44, Funk G704, PGA 444, and Pioneer 308A.

While such factors as yield, standability, moisture at harvest, and quality of grain, are extremely important, other characteristics often determine how desirable a hybrid is on an individual farm, the scientists say.

FORT STORY TELLINGS
 FORT STORY JUNIOR RIFLE CLUB STAYS BUSY
 The newly formed Fort Story Junior Rifle Club won the first match against the Junior Rifle and Pistol Club of the U.S. Naval facility at Dam Neck last Thursday, with a score of 2,007 to 1,711 points.
 Boys and girls of Fort Story, with ages ranging from 10 to 18 years, make up the Story team and fired 50 rounds per person using the .22 Caliber Rifle at a distance of 50 feet at the Post indoor range.
 These Fort Story teams rated by qualifying scores, competed against three Dam Neck teams with an average equal score. Because of a shortage of Dam Neck rifles, the lowest score on each of the three Fort Story teams was subtracted to equal the Dam Neck line-up.
 The highest score in the match was obtained by John Gordon, aged 15, of Fort Story with 191 points out of the possible 200.
 Sponsored by the National Rifle Association, the Fort Story Junior Rifle Club meets every Wednesday morning from 8:30-12. The club is open to all dependent youngsters of Fort Story.
 Capt. Marvyn A. Gordon is the club's leader and Lt. Col. R. F. Fisher is the club's instructor. In addition to shooting, members are taught safety and familiarization of weapons.
 The Civilian Marksmanship Program also taught by the Junior Rifle Club, lends guidance to the club and requires members to shoot for qualification and have their scores registered in Washington, D.C.
 CPT. HOPKINS REENLISTS
 Cpl. Donald Lee Hopkins, of the 155th Transportation Company, reenlisted March 4 in a ceremony held at the 14th Terminal Battalion headquarters. Lt. George Mehl, commanding officer of the 155th, performed the ceremony.
 Corporal Hopkins reenlisted for three years service and will be the second year in his present company. He has six months of active duty in 1957 and reenlisted the Army last November. After his basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C., Corporal Hopkins came to Fort Story.
 Hopkins comes from Columbia Beach and is married and has two children.
 NEW DENTAL OFFICER ARRIVES AT FORT STORY
 Lt. Col. Myron Martin, from Brooklyn, N.Y., has recently been assigned to duty at Fort Story, as a dental officer.
 A graduate of New York University and the University of Pennsylvania Dental School, the colonel's assignment prior to coming to Fort Story was with the Dental Clinic, Headquarters Department, U. S. Eighth Army Area, Korea. He is a member of the American Dental Association, Academy of Anesthesiology, Roosevelt Dental Society, Korea, and the Armed Forces Dental Association.
 While on duty here, Colonel Martin will aid in performing the assigned mission of the Army's Dental Division, which provides dental care to personnel of the U.S. Army Transportation Training Command, at Fort Story.
 Colonel Martin's wife, Sylvia, now lives in Tacoma, Wash., and will join him soon at Fort Story.

GETTING THE MOST FROM YOUR GARDEN
 by Dr. Peter Agrow
EARLY INDOOR PLANTING FOR EARLY HARVEST
 Starting plants indoors is easy, interesting and profitable. If you are tired of this long winter, you can begin the garden season right now. By having seedlings ready to set out when the frost has gone, you can gain weeks of an earlier, longer harvesting season.

 The four easy stages of raising seedlings. A. Wooden flats, with openings in the bottom for drainage. B. Marking little furrows for the seeds. C. Tapping the seeds gently from packet to flat. D. The flat covered with a sheet of paper.
 1. Begin by making a plan of your garden to show what plants you will grow and how many. This gives you a target to aim for. No two gardens are exactly alike, fortunately, and there is plenty of room to follow your own preference.
 From your plan, make a list of the plants to be started indoors now. Here are some that can be grown quite easily that way. For vegetables: broccoli, cabbage, eggplant, lettuce, melons, onions, peppers and tomatoes. Flowers: chrysanthemums, columbine, dahlia (dwarf), marigolds, pansies, phlox, verbena, zinnias. Usually it takes six to eight weeks for plants to reach transplanting stage, so don't start warm weather plants too early.
 2. There are several ways to start indoor plantings. You can begin by seeding in rows, using shallow, topless boxes, known as flats. You can make your own flats from vegetable crates or you can buy them, in wood, metal, or plastic, at your garden supply shop or hardware store.
 If you plan to start your seedlings in soil taken from your garden, sterilize it first, either with a chemical obtained from your garden shop, or by baking it in the oven for 30 minutes at about 200°. Don't be alarmed by the odor. This process kills the fungi in the soil which cause damping-off, soon when seedlings shrink and die.
 3. Many gardeners get good results when they grow their seedlings in peat moss, which is sold in bags and is used as a potting medium. Peat moss is a naturally good medium. Both are sterile and free from damping-off.
 4. Next Week: Early Lawn Care
 To get more enjoyment from your garden read for Gifts from Your Garden, a free booklet of vegetable recipes. Address postcard to Agrow, P.O. Box 405H, New Haven 2, Conn.

Keister Ad Service Wins 6th Award
 Readers of the Virginia Beach Sun-News will be interested to learn that the Keister "Support the Church" series, currently appearing on these pages, has received the sixth award from the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa. Announcement that the series again received the George Washington Honor Medal was made on Washington's Birthday. The conferring of the honor will take place in the old Supreme Court Chamber of the National Capitol, Washington, D.C. at a later date.
 This is the sixth annual award that the Keister organization has received for its "Support the Church" series, which is currently running in over 500 newspapers in the USA and Canada.
 The award is presented for "an outstanding achievement in helping to bring about a better understanding of the American Way of Life."
 The Keister series has appeared in the Virginia Beach Sun-News for five years, and sponsors and all individuals making this program possible will undoubtedly take pride in this most recent award.
Mrs. W. A. Gietz Heads Jr. Women
 Mrs. William A. Gietz was elected president of the Junior Women's Club of Princess Anne County at the March meeting Tuesday evening, to succeed Mrs. William C. Kutz Jr. Other officers elected were Mrs. William Myers, first vice president; Mrs. S. H. Leonard, second vice president; Mrs. J. F. Curran, third vice president; Mrs. Jeanne Yates, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Tallaferra, recording secretary; Mrs. A. L. Craft Jr., treasurer. The installation of officers will take place in May.
 Delegates Mrs. W. C. Kutz and Mrs. William A. Gietz will attend the Tidewater District meeting at the Chamberlain Hotel March 30. Mrs. C. Samuel Mason and Mrs. S. H. Leonard were elected alternate delegates.
 At their March meeting, held at the El Camino Restaurant, the Women's Club of Chesapeake Beach elected new officers for the 1959-60 club year.
 Mrs. Frederick Rieder was elected to the presidency of the club. "Louise" as she is known to her many friends, has been the very efficient and beloved treasurer for the Chesapeake Beach Club for over eight years. She was chosen "First Citizen" by unanimous vote of the club members in May of 1958. Mrs. Rieder is a native of East Prussia, Germany, and is well known for her church and civic activities in Bayside. Her garden, both flowers and vegetables, which she attends herself, are a thing of beauty to her area, as well as enjoyment, since she generously shares both with her friends and neighbors. Louise makes birthday cakes for her grandchildren, friends and neighbors for a hobby. She and her husband moved to the Bayside area in 1957.
 Elected to serve the Women's Club with Mrs. Rieder, were Mrs. Thomas B. Petty, first vice president; Mrs. Colon L. Powers, second vice president; Mrs. Roy M. Harkness, secretary; and Mrs. Ronald K. Irving, treasurer.
 The Women's Club voted to assist in financing the studies of a foreign student at the Princess Anne High School next year. The Educational Department, Mrs. J. N. Scarborough, chairman, reported that $125 had been raised for the club's new scholarship fund, and that, through card parties sponsored by her department, a gift of $25 would be presented to the Princess Anne High School Library. Biennial By-Law changes were presented by Mrs. O. T. Edmondson.
 Mrs. Ray M. Harkness was elected to attend the Tidewater District meeting of Women's Clubs at the Chamberlain Hotel on March 30. Mrs. Fred Basiger was elected as alternate delegate.
 Annual reports were made by the following department chairmen: Mrs. W. E. Downs, Health and Mental Health; Mrs. R. J. Vellines, Fine Arts, who also announced that registrations were now being considered for the Art Club which will be presented immediately following the one now in progress. Classes are conducted at the Chesapeake Beach Community Center under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth DeAuria.
 Mrs. Ronald K. Irving, International Relations Chairman, announced that her department had collected approximately 100 pairs of old eyeglasses which are being collected in the United States for distribution to the needy all over the world. She also reported that the Women's Club had raised their quota of $1 per member for CARE for Vietnam.
 It was reported that the Educational Department, Mrs. J. N. Scarborough, chairman, had raised $25 at a recent dance for the new scholarship fund for the Women's Club. Also, proceeds from a party sponsored by Mrs. Scarborough, which will be presented to the Princess Anne High School Library.
 Dr. Michael Keith was speaker for the day. Dr. Keith is a prominent Norfolk Psychiatrist and cited the great need for a change in the attitude of the public toward psychiatric needs of patients. Dr. Keith also presented the serious needs for doctors and nursing facilities in our institutions. "We would not send our T.B., cancer or pneumonia patients anywhere not prepared to give the best of care to those people, yet through apathy we allow our institutions to sag under loads often too heavy to carry for lack of proper facilities." Research, said Dr. Keith, is of the utmost importance in this field, which has come such a long way, yet has hardly scratched its comparison with treatment and cure found in other fields of illness.
 Mrs. W. E. Downs and Mrs. Jean Canning were in charge of the program and decorations.

COUNCIL ASKED TO DONATE LAND FOR HOSPITAL

Advance Forms Being Mailed

Advance Report Forms for the 1960 Census of Population and Housing will be distributed by Post Office employees this week to all households in this area, District Supervisor Jennings H. Rhen announced today.

The Advance Report Form is a new census-taking device which is designed to speed up the field canvass and provide more accurate statistics. Distribution of this form before the start of the house-to-house canvass gives the family a chance to assemble information about each member in advance of the census taker's visit. The district supervisor urges all residents to fill out the form and have it ready for the census takers when they start their rounds on April 1.

The Advance Report Form contains seven questions about every person in the household and six questions about the household's dwelling. The household information asked for is name, address, sex, color or race, month and year of birth, whether married or single, and relationship to the head of the household. The information about the dwelling includes the number of rooms, cooking facilities, plumbing, and whether rented or owned.

At every fourth household, the census taker will leave a Census Questionnaire, which contains additional questions covering education and housing characteristics, which are being asked of a new sample of the nation's population. Householders are requested to fill out the questionnaire and mail it within three days to the local census district office. A pre-addressed, postage-free envelope is being provided for this purpose.

The "sample" population questions include inquiries on country of birth, mother tongue of foreign born, schooling, employment, income and related items. The additional housing questions relate to rent or value of dwelling, heating equipment, water supply, and other facilities and equipment.

The district supervisor pointed out that information about individuals and their homes furnished to the Census Bureau is kept confidential under Federal law. Only statistical totals and averages are published. No individual person can be identified in published reports and census information cannot be used for regulation, investigation, or taxation.

Sailor Charged With Larceny

John C. Elchberger, 18, of Oceana Naval Air Station was charged with grand larceny and destroying private property early Tuesday.

He was arrested shortly after 2 a.m. by Detective Henry Cappe and Patrolmen J. J. Waterfield and Joe Perez after he reportedly broke a drug store window at 17th Street and Pacific Avenue and took a 12-gauge automatic shotgun, valued at $106.

Guessing Game — Who Are They?

President

Mrs. Freeman New President of Cape Henry Woman's Club

The Cape Henry Woman's Club held its March meeting at the Princess Anne Country Club March 17. The table decorations were carried out in the St. Patrick Day theme by Mrs. J. P. Parker.

Mrs. Earnest Turnbull presented the doll she dressed for the club to send to the Vietnam club women, as a good will gesture. The 10 inch doll along with dolls from other clubs in the state, will be in Room 106 for the State Convention in June. The doll, dressed in the style of Virginia gentlemen in the 1820's, wore a long soft skirt with a low-cut, short waisted bodice finished with square tabs above the waist. The sleeves are full and reach a little below the elbow, with ruffles of lace; a wide collar of the same lace about the neck allowing throat and neck to show. Soft breast knots of ribbon were also worn. No farthingale is worn with this gown which falls in soft folds to the ground. The hair was curled over the brow and arranged in a knot in back. Petticoats were gay and trimmed with lace, while gown was made of flowered silk.

Mrs. Henry C. Todd, second vice president of the Tidewater District installed the new officers for the coming year. Mrs. Herbert O. Freeman, president; Mrs. Gilbert E. Keene, first vice president; Mrs. John J. Collins, second vice president; Mrs. William P. Kellam, third vice president; Mrs. L. C. Brennan, secretary; and Mrs. James G. Darden, treasurer.

Mrs. Leonard S. Hiteshew, historian, read the history for the past year. Some of the high lights of the year was the "Lotus Festival," club teaching and nursing scholarship funds, sponsoring the Cape Henry Junior Woman's Club and sending $219 to the Medical Foundation in Richmond for the Max-Ton.

Mrs. K. L. Jand introduced Mr. Charles Dawes, band teacher in Princess Anne County Schools, who sang several selections appropriate for the season. He was accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Windsor, at the piano.

The club has sent 47 books to the libraries of Princess Anne High and Linkhorn Park School.

The April meeting will be the sixth birthday and will be held at the Shore Drive Inn at noon April 21.

Magazine Issues Warning on Phony Price Tags

The hot competition for the consumer dollar has made shopping around worthwhile, but it also has spawned phony price practices, according to the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine.

An article in the current edition of the magazine advises consumers to take advantage of the bargains created by competition, but warns against misleading price tags. Quoting the Federal Trade Commission, the editors list two widely used price practices to guard against.

Prebidding: The manufacturer tags goods at an inflated price, and to fix it firmly in the customer's mind advertises it widely on TV or in national magazines. Then when the dealer offers a much lower price it looks like a bargain.

Another form of prebidding occurs when the dealer himself attaches an inflated price tag with the manufacturer's connivance. He will compare his low price, now with the manufacturer's list, but with some vague standard — "originally priced at," "made to sell for," "suggested price," "value" and so on.

The phony double price tag has spread into virtually every merchandise field, the editors note, but it probably is worst in sales of watches and jewelry, mattresses, small appliances, TV sets, furs, furniture and other household goods.

Two-for-one sale: This is a variation of the double price tag. So is the "one-cent sale" that offers a second item for a penny when the regular price is paid for the first.

The catch may be that the retailer is using the inflated list price as the "regular" price during the sale, even though he usually sells the item below list. So the sale price isn't the bargain it seems.

To make dollars really go further, the editors advise the following shopping practices:

Ignore the higher price on a double price tag. Phony comparisons are so common that all drastic cuts can be suspect, even though some of them might be honest ones.

Judge value by the actual selling price. The test of value is not what the article used to cost, or what a retailer claims is its worth, but how much it costs today as compared with the same or similar articles at other stores.

Stick to name-brand goods. An unfamiliar brand might be a good buy, but if the price looks suspicious take another look. Be extra careful at a discount house. The "innovations" in the retail merchandising world have done much to bring about price competition, it is true, but to be on the safe side shop at the well-established ones, and make sure the price quoted for an appliance that can't be carried home includes all charges, including delivery and installation.

The editors point out that all the rules in the world won't save shopping dollars unless the shopper takes the time to look around and compare — that, they state, is the best bet for licking the confusion in prices and the high cost of living.

News for VETERANS

Each veteran and each widow of a veteran drawing a veterans Administration pension received with the February 20th check a pamphlet explaining the new pension law which goes into effect July 1, 1960. A punched card for electing benefits under the new law was also enclosed.

I repeat the word of caution which came in the pamphlet: If you switch to the new law, you give up your rights under the present law and can never go back to it.

If you have no dependents and your annual income is over $600, or if you have a dependent and your yearly income is over $1,000, be extra careful in making your decision. You might be entitled to a greater pension for a while, but some unforeseen income could cut your pension in half.

Look just as far ahead as you can so that you won't make the mistake of choosing the pension law which pays more beginning July 1st, but may pay less later on. Do not mail the card in if you want to remain under the old law. If you need advice, please call on me. If you can't decide now which law is better for you, you still have the right to make a choice later.

Veterans, just as do other segments of our population, sometimes land in jail. A special federal law provides that no pension administered by the Veterans Administration shall be paid to or for any individual imprisoned in a federal, state, or local penal institution because of conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, for any period beginning sixty one days after the prison term begins, and ending when the imprisonment ends.

In order to help take care of the family of a veteran so disqualified, the VA is authorized under this law to pay to his wife and children the amount of pension such veteran would receive but for his imprisonment. If the imprisoned veteran has no wife or child he gets no pension at all after the first sixty days in jail, and it can not start again until his release.

If any widow of a deceased veteran is disqualified under this law, the VA may pay the child or children just as if there were no widow. If a child is so disqualified, the widow will receive her pension just as if there were no child.

This law applies only to pensions, and has no bearing whatever on compensation paid by the VA for service incurred disabilities or death.

A vast army of 160,000 census takers will start out on their jobs in a house to house canvass next April 1st, with each of the workers carrying a map showing not only every inhabited road but almost every building as well. The government has prepared some 4,000,000 square feet of maps to help the enumerators find all the people who must be included in this year's national census. Each census taker will visit some 400 households, from mansions to shanties, collecting vital statistics on about 1800 to 1200 persons. Uncle Sam needs to collect a lot of useful information from this, the biggest count of heads ever made. After the high speed electronic computers have performed their calculations the Bureau of the Census will have a comprehensive collection of information about the American people, including sex, age, race, occupation, time of dwelling, even cooking equipment. As provided in the Constitution the new count will reapportion the states the number of seats in the House of Representatives.

Of more than usual interest to veterans will be a special questionnaire to be left at every fourth household, so that the Census Bureau can gather the latest, accurate figures on Veterans population, as well as grouping by war periods. For the next ten years, statistics collected from this census will be used when matters pertaining to veterans come under consideration.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

The Matter of Firearms

It is difficult to forget quickly the double slaying tragedy that took place recently in the City of Norfolk and it points up the urgent need for the tightening of regulations concerning the purchase and possession of firearms.

The problem is certainly worthy of a full discussion with a view to making more stringent rules pertaining to firearms. We do not believe the problem is confined to any one community or area, but that it is a national problem.

While Norfolk City does require a permit to purchase a weapon we understand that it is relatively simple to secure such a permit. However, in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, it is understood, no permit is required to purchase a firearm. A permit is required to carry a weapon. As we have said the problem is not confined to Norfolk or Princess Anne County or Virginia Beach. It is a national problem that is a difficult one.

It has been suggested that all firearms should require a national registration. This sounds like a step in the right direction.

We don't profess to know the answer to this problem, if there be one, but it does seem like the time to investigate the matter thoroughly. At the present time it is far too simple and too easy for weapons of all types to fall into hands of those who have no concept of their proper use.

Spring and the Season Ahead

Last Sunday, according to the calendar, marked the beginning of spring, and that means that just around the corner is the summer tourist season. To many it has seemed like a long time between seasons and it has been.

But with spring upon us it is time to give serious thought to the summer tourist season just ahead. There is much preparation to be made to get our house in order so that we may present our best view to the visitor.

Right now is not too early to start fixing and painting and improving our tourist facilities. After the winds, the rains and the snows of the winter there is much face lifting to be done.

Yet all of the preparation should not be confined to the physical picture that Virginia Beach will present. We must be in the right frame of mind to make Virginia Beach more attractive to the tourist than our competitors.

Our hotel and motel operators, our business people and our ordinary citizen must remember that Virginia Beach is lacking in some respects, particularly in the entertainment field and that for this reason we should go out of our way to see that our visitor enjoys his stay in Virginia Beach.

It is up to each individual to put out the welcome mat to our visitors and to be solicitous of his needs and wants. Real Virginia hospitality can overcome any faults that our friends may find.

So we should strive to not only fix-up with paint, hammers and nails, but we should take stock of our treatment of those who visit us each year to spend a fun-filled vacation at the seashore.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Motor Mayhem Menace Muffled

It's a pretty safe assumption that the people of Virginia — or a vast majority of them — want motor vehicle laws stringent enough to stop the killing on the State's highways. One doesn't have to meet many people these days to hear a common complaint that highway travel is an ordeal and not a pleasure. The highway death statistics point the reason. There are too many killers abroad on the highways endangering the lives and limbs of the people who want to drive within safe speed limits, who fear the drunk and careless driver and the speeder.

In spite of all this the members of the Courts of Justice Committees of the House of Delegates and the Senate in Virginia, seem to have other ideas. In the just-closed session of the General Assembly every proposed new law favored by competent students of our highway dangers died in one of the other committee, mostly on technicalities. Most of these committee members are trial lawyers whose practice includes defense of people charged with violations of our traffic codes, a circumstance that might unconsciously or subconsciously affect their viewpoint.

Perhaps, also, they think that Virginians don't want any better highway safety laws, like the implied consent bill under which those arrested on drunk driving charges would be presumed to have consented to blood tests for alcohol content when they purchased their drivers' license. That would make the tests mandatory whereas now the accused has to consent.

That is not to say that Virginia traffic laws aren't good laws. They rate quite well among safety authorities. But they are not sharp enough tools to make Virginia outstanding among the states for traffic safety as we believe the vast majority of Virginia motor vehicle owners and drivers want it to be.

The time has come in Virginia for the people who want safe driving to make their demand for needed legislation so clear and unmistakable that their legislators will give safety authorities the sharp tools they need to excise the cancer of highway deaths and maimings.

If they are in doubt they need but to look at what happened in Connecticut whose highways are regarded as the safest in the nation. Governor Abraham Ribicoff was elected initially on a highway safety platform. He showed he meant business and since then has been reelected almost by acclamation by people who were tired of having incompetent drivers risk their lives and limbs. We believe Virginians will react similarly. They need to become vocal so the politicians will scent the sweet odor of votes among them for highway safety candidates.

Goode House on Garden Tour

The John T. Goode House 100 Ridge Road By ANNE WATSON

A house designed for the comfort and pleasure of the entire family is that of the Jack Goode family's daily living quarters. This lovely house overlooks Lintonh Bay and is set in the midst of towering pines and native shrubbery. A large lawn affords plenty of play space for the children and exercise for the lord and master during the summer months.

The interior of this home is a practical combination of the formal and informal, an ideal arrangement for family living. Today, on either side of the front hall, which is carpeted in blue and white, are the living and dining rooms.

At the end of this hall are the family's daily living quarters, this consists of a den that leads into a breakfast room and joins the kitchen area. The walls in this section are a very light panel with the exception of one end which is a built-in charcoal grill, complete with rotisserie, gourmet's delight.

It will be apparent to anyone who has an opportunity to visit this charming home that the Goode's have skillfully combined all of the better features of the old, the new, the formal, indoor and outdoor living, thus providing a general atmosphere of cheerful hospitality.

Joseph McDonald, property protection chairman, said the Princess Anne County Planning Commission is expected to act March 28 on zoning proposals for property adjoining Thoroughgood to which the league objects.

Electrical Inspectors Meeting At Beach on April 4 and 5

The Virginia Chapter of the International Association of Electrical Inspectors will hold its 24th annual meeting at the Cape Colony Club, Virginia Beach, on April 4th and 5th.

The association through these meetings endeavors to create a favorable popular attitude toward the association, its members, and electrical inspection, through an understanding and interpretation of the National Electrical Code that will benefit the public by maintaining uniform installations combined with economical production.

We are very fortunate to have ten of the top code authorities in the country to make up our code panel.

The major portion of time will be spent in panel discussions to exchange ideas, experience, and experiences from the view point of the code.

Plans Readied For '80 Census

Census takers who will visit every dwelling unit in the area during the 1980 Census of Population and Housing which starts April 1 will participate in three training sessions, the first being a strict supervisory training. It is announced today.

The training sessions, to be conducted by the area census manager, will be held on March 28, 29 and 30. Each census taker will receive a total of approximately nine hours of instruction. Emphasis will be placed on the importance of a systematic, thorough canvass of every dwelling unit during the census to insure a complete count. Class room training will cover proper manner of asking questions, use of the Census questionnaire, Census definitions, and map reading.

Map reading is an important Census skill. Census takers will be shown how to use a map to locate a dwelling unit. Each census taker will be assigned a specific area to canvass. The area will be divided into blocks. Each block will be assigned to a specific census taker. The census taker will be shown how to use a map to locate a dwelling unit.

Common sense and a good map are essential for a successful census. The census taker will be shown how to use a map to locate a dwelling unit.

Many Books on Art To Be Found at Public Library

Artists, art lovers and those interested in art, attending the annual exhibit of the Virginia Beach Art Association this week will find many books of interest at the Virginia Beach Public Library.

The Skira Collection contains biographical and critical study of famous artists including among others, Bi Greco, Van Gogh, Dali, Goya, Cezanne, Gauguin and Botticelli.

The volume on Bi Greco relates a biographical summary and has 53 color-plates of the artist's work, including some detail pictures.

In the World of Van Gogh, the reader will find that in his art, color came to assume a constructive value that revealed a new way of rendering space and it is also in this book that the reader will find that Van Gogh was a man of a medium of expression in which he combined the symbols of his inner feelings.

For the general reader, Helen Gardner's "Art Through the Ages" is recommended. This book examines the art of all periods and countries, and is a book of the standard world history of art.

Available for those interested in learning are books on several mediums including: Course in French Etching by Ernest W. Watson; The Quaker's Way to Paris by Fudrick Tumbler; Pencil Drawings and Oil Painting Step-by-Step, both by Arthur L. Quipili.

JUDGE TO SPEAK AT MEN'S CLUB MEETING

Judge Robert S. Wabab Jr. of the 24th Judicial Circuit will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the St. Gregory the Great Church Men's Club.

The meeting is scheduled to be held Monday, March 28 at the Davis Corner Fire Department hall starting at 8 p.m.

Formerly Commonwealth's Attorney, Judge Wabab was appointed to his present judicial position in November, 1955 to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Floyd E. Kellen.

The inspector, contractor, manufacturer and utility. The meeting also provides educational opportunities for the inspector to become acquainted with new electrical developments.

Easter Seal Drive Under Way in Area

The 1960 Easter Seal campaign for crippled children started last Thursday with the mailing of money orders to individuals throughout the area.

The association welcomes anyone interested in the sale and distribution of electrical equipment for the protection of lives and property, to join them in these exchanges of ideas.

"Easter Seal Fight Crippling" is the slogan for this year's appeal. The number of handicapped individuals continues to mount with each passing year, Owen said. "Our noble drive is being a fight against a particular disease. While disease is a major factor in crippling, we cannot count on the number of accidents which are a result of accidents. To even keep abreast of the problem and it is one of the most serious problems our people face today, will require expanded facilities for treatment, research, and education. Support of the Easter Seal Society through voluntary contributions to its established program will go a long way toward meeting and overcoming the situation. I am sure that everyone who has the well-being of his neighbor and his community at heart will want to have a share in this momentous task," Owen concluded.

This year's drive is being conducted simultaneously with over 100 other Easter Seal affiliates throughout the nation and marks the completion of 16 years of service to crippled children and adults.

BEACH RESIDENT DIOCESAN PRESIDENT

Mary Sale, of Galilee Episcopal Church, was elected Diocesan President of the Episcopal Young Churchmen of the Diocese of Southern Virginia at the annual convention held at Old Black College (Virginia Methodist Episcopal Center) last weekend.

She will begin her term of office immediately; she succeeds Bill Harrison of St. Andrew's, Newport News.

Cavalier CAR Entertains County DAR Chapter

Cavalier Chapter Children of the American Revolution entertained the Princess Anne Chapter D.A.R. at a luncheon at the Hotel Blandford, Virginia Beach.

Mrs. John H. Hiett, Senior President of the Cavalier Chapter, was in charge of the program. Betty Ripston, president of Cavalier C.A.R., gave a report that she had presented at the State Conference in Roanoke. They also presented a letter from the Princess Anne Chapter for the invitation to be guest of honor at the May meeting.

After the meeting Mrs. Owen Moore Jr. entertained the chapter with a beautifully arranged tea.

The 44th Annual Conference of the Children of the American Revolution at the Hotel Blandford, Roanoke, March 15, 16 and 17, was attended by Mrs. E. G. Robertson, Regent, Mrs. A. H. Hiett, Mrs. D. Y. Malbon, Mrs. C. L. Adams and Mrs. William J. Joy.

The chapter won highest honor in the state in percentage of subscription to the D.A.R. magazine, second prize for an essay written by Boots Farnley, a sixth grade pupil, on historic trails, was submitted by Mrs. Fred M. Robinson, Historian of Princess Anne County Chapter. The chapter was also honored by having four full pages of publicity in the State yearbook, submitted by the Chapter Drama Relations Chairman, Mrs. C. H. Cornick.

On Oct. 3, 1921, the 198 Olympic flag was sent from Newport, R.I., by train to return the body of the WWI Unknown Soldier for burial at Arlington, Va.

Local Jaycees Announce High School Winner

Ruth A. Johnson recently won the "My True Security" Contest, conducted locally by the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce for high school seniors at Virginia Beach High School.

The "My True Security" program, with all seniors competing, is a script writing and oral delivery competition. It encourages seniors to truly express the importance of personal initiative and self-reliance—those American characteristics which have made our country great.

Other winners include Darla B. Whitehurst, second place, and Charles T. Cayce, third place. First and second place winners received watches and third place winner received a savings bond at a special dinner held in their honor last night. Judge Robert Wahab, guest speaker at the Jaycee dinner meeting, presented the winner a certificate of merit.

The local winners' script and speech will be entered into regional competition the end of this month. The State winner of "My True Security" will receive an all expenses paid trip to the National Finals to be held in Washington, D.C., in June.

Health Officials Urge Polio Shots Now for Protection

Dr. Mack I. Shanholtz, State Health Commissioner made an urgent plea to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia to take advantage of Polio vaccination now in order to be protected next summer.

He stated that vaccinations must be stepped up immediately in order for the boys and girls to have the best chance for protection before Polio strikes.

Dr. Shanholtz stated that there is no question now concerning the effectiveness and safety of the Salk vaccine. This vaccine has strikingly reduced Polio among those who have received it since it became available in 1955, and it will protect many thousands more in 1960 if it is used widely and in time.

The safety of the vaccine is assured by close surveillance by the U. S. Public Health Service which controls the manufacture of other biological products. Large samples of material are tested at repeated intervals during the manufacturing process. A random sampling test for live virus in the actual bottles in which the vaccine is shipped also must be conducted. At several points during manufacture the material from which the vaccine is being made is tested in live animals. These are some of the more important safeguards.

Dr. Shanholtz recommends completion of the basic series of three injections of the Salk type Polio vaccine for all persons under 40 years of age who have not yet been vaccinated, or who have received fewer than three doses. This is particularly applicable to those under five years of age, the most susceptible group. Vaccination of persons over 40 years of age can also be beneficial; however, it is less urgent since Polio occurs less frequently in older individuals. Dr. Shanholtz urged that the family physician be consulted for information concerning the schedule for receiving the shots.

He concluded by saying that Polio is not conquered yet, but if people take advantage of the protection available it can be reduced to one of the minor threats to human health and happiness. The recent session of the General Assembly passed a resolution authorizing the State Department of Health to encourage immunization against Polio and a similar resolution has been adopted by the Medical Society of Virginia.

Vepco Net Income Continues to Rise

During February net income of the Virginia Electric and Power Company rose 4.5 per cent over the previous month, a year ago, according to President A. H. McDowell Jr.

The company's operating revenues for the month were up 6.1 per cent over the same month in 1959. Net income last month was $2,654,000 compared to $2,545,000 in February 1959. Operating revenues were $10,655,000 compared to $12,868,000 February a year ago.

McDowell reported earnings of $1.72 per share of common stock for the current 12 months, based on 14,910,000 shares of common outstanding February 29, compared to $1.68 on 710,000 fewer shares outstanding in February 1959.

An increase of 22,000 electric customers and 3,000 gas customers was noted over the previous year. The company now has approximately 745,000 electric and 98,000 gas customers.

Construction work on the company's new 17,000 kilowatt unit at the Chesterfield Power Station is nearing completion and the station is expected to be placed in operation during May of this year. Completion of this unit will increase the station's capacity to 370,000 kilowatts.

Construction on a new 200,000 kilowatt unit began a few days ago at the Portsmouth Power Station. When this unit is completed in 1962, the total capacity of the station will be increased to 550,000 kilowatts.

Also under construction and scheduled for completion in 1962 is a 200,000 kilowatt addition to Vepco's Possum Point Power Station, near Quantico, Va. The capacity of this station will be raised to 420,000 kilowatts when the unit is completed.

Vepco's Board of Directors recently approved a 1960 construction budget of $28,000,000, which is some $11,500,000 more than the $47,016,000 spent on new construction last year.

McDowell said the largest items in this year's budget will be for new additions at Portsmouth and Possum Point. The company also expects to start construction of a new 200,000 kilowatt hydroelectric station on the Roanoke River near Gaston, N.C. as soon as a license is granted by the Federal Power Commission. The project is estimated to cost $50,000,000. The company's stockholders' meeting will be held April 29, 1960, at the Electric Building at Richmond.

Miss Thom McAn To Be Chosen at Store Opening

African Violet Society Celebrates 10th Anniversary

The Princess Anna African Violet Society celebrated its tenth anniversary at its monthly meeting March 17th at the home of its president, Mrs. A. J. Ketaules, in Virginia Beach. Mrs. Harry Ames gave a resume of the organization and history of the society. The remainder of the program was conducted by Mrs. Leo Herman, and various members read poems and extracts pertaining to African Violets or St. Paulias.

The table centerpiece consisted of a purple African Violet plant surrounded by Camellia leaves among which white Carnations were nestled. The cake was beautifully decorated with violets and green candles.

Mrs. Harry Ames, Mrs. Lawrence Lockwood, and Mrs. L. C. Mallory, past presidents, poured tea, and Mrs. Ketaules cut the cake.

V.F.W. WRITERS' WORKSHOP TO MEET MARCH 25

The writers workshop sponsored by the fine arts department of the Tidewater District of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs will meet March 25th at 7:45 p.m. at the Norfolk Woman's Club, Fairfax Avenue.

The session will be directed by Phyllis Hanson, author and poet, and instruction and critical guidance in all forms of writing will be offered to members of district federated clubs.

Two Cattle Sales Slated in March

This An' That

Use of oxygen by U.S. ice hockey players between periods of the Olympic games might have created quite a stir had it happened some years ago. The incident also recalls to mind that use of oxygen figured in an Olympic contest 28 years ago—in the 1908 Japanese swimmers swept first-place honors, a U. S. coach charged that the team had been "doped" with oxygen . . . It probably came as a surprise to nobody that lowering Will "The Salt" Chamberlain was named both the No. 1 rookie and most valuable player in the National Basketball Association by New York basketball writers . . . Pete Newell will resign after this season as coach of the California Golden Bears cage team to become Bears' athletic director. Newell, who coached the Bears to the N.C.A.A. championship last year gave "jagged nerves" as the reason for his change in jobs. The same reason was given by Phil Woopert of San Francisco, who took a year's leave of absence.

March 21 in Richmond and March 31 in Fredericksburg will wind up this year's schedule.

In sales held thus far, prices have been running neck and neck with Chicago and Baltimore which is considered pretty good price-wise. In some instances they have even exceeded Chicago and Baltimore. And a recently completed sampling of the 946 head which have been graded by the Virginia Department of Agriculture livestock graders show an 82.3 per cent correlation of live grade to carcass grade.

For further information concerning these sales see your county agent or the farm organization sponsoring the sale in your area. Richmond sales are under the sponsorship of the Farm Bureau and the Tidewater Beef Cattle Association sponsors the Fredericksburg sales.

FIVE RECEIVE GED CERTIFICATES

Five men of the 14th Terminal Battalion have received the Army's equivalent of a high school diploma as they were presented General Educational Development (GED) examination certificates at a ceremony in Battalion Headquarters.

Major Warren J. Higgins, Battalion Commander, presented the certificates to PFC Robert E. Vrechota, 854th Transportation Company; PFC Harry F. Verity, 554th Transportation Company; Specialist, Fourth Class, William F. Davis of the 554th Transportation Company. A certificate was also received by PFC Lester L. Balfor of the 155th Transportation company.

The High School GED certificates are awarded to members of the armed forces who successfully complete tests showing that they have sufficient knowledge of English, Social Studies and General Mathematics to qualify them for a High School Diploma.

After congratulating the men on their achievement, Major Higgins urged them to continue their studies on the college level.

461st TRANS. CO WINS BEST MEATS AWARD AT FORT STORY

Fort Story's "Best Meats Hall of the Month" award for February was presented to the 461st Transportation Company, by Colonel William P. Pope, Post Commander. The award is presented after an inspection of such points as cleanliness, management, food preparation, storage, personnel and waste.

CWO KENNETH R. IVEY DEPARTS FORT STORY

CWO Kenneth R. Ivey, Military Personnel Officer here, left Fort Story for reassignment to the Allied Land Forces, NATO Command, in South Eastern Europe.

CWO Ivey came to Fort Story from NATO Command in Naples, Italy where he served in the capacity of Assistant Adjutant and Assistant Personnel Officer. His new position will be as an administrative officer of the Intelligence Division.

Included in CWO Ivey's decorations are the Bronze Star with cluster and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Mr. Ivey is married and the father of three children.

UNITS OF FORT STORY PARTICIPATE IN ATT

The chief umpire for Army Training Tests for the U.S. Army Transportation Command at Fort Eustis, announced Monday that the third of a series of training tests will be conducted at Fort Story during the period of March 22 through 24, 1960.

The test, which is given annually, is designed to evaluate and test the state of tactical and technical training of the units and their ability to perform their missions. Tests are given under simulated combat conditions. Lt. Col. Jerome K. Hostetter, USA, Assistant Chief of Staff, is the Director of Operations. Opposing Aggressor Forces and friendly support will be provided by Transportation Corps units that are not otherwise participating in the training test.

The following elements of Fort Story, commanded by Col. William P. Pope, USA, will participate in the various phases of the test: Headquarters 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C"; 10th Transportation Battalion, commanded by Lt. Col. Jack W. Tooley, USA; 14th Transportation Battalion, commanded by Maj. Warren J. Higgins, USA; 34th Transportation Co. (Amph Trk.); 34th Transportation Co. (Amph Trk.); 461st Transportation Co. ## Reduced Speed Limits for Autos Towing Boat and Other Trailers

RICHMOND — With the coming of spring, Col. C. W. Woodson Jr., Superintendent of State Police and Chairman of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee, today warned small boat enthusiasts and other motorists who might use trailers that they must limit their speeds to 45 miles per hour.

"The Motor Vehicle Laws of Virginia (Section 46.1-183(b)), he said, "provide that any combination of vehicles designed to transport property must not be driven in excess of 45 miles per hour." He stated further that a speed in excess of 65 by such a combination of vehicles is listed as reckless driving in itself (46.1-180(1)).

Colonel Woodson stated that the law definitely applies to small trailers customarily designed to transport small boats or other property and that the law must be enforced. The plea that a motorist is not aware of such a law cannot be accepted, he said. He further pointed out that the fact a trailer might be empty does not exempt the driver of the towing vehicle from the law.

He added, however, that the 45-mile limit does not apply on the Richmond - Petersburg Turnpike, where the limit is 60, but that the law defining reckless driving as a speed in excess of 65 does.

Beachlawn Baptist Building Program Now Under Way

The Beachlawn Baptist Church launched its $200,000 building program this week. Having become a church just last October and accepted into the Norfolk Association only last week, Beachlawn has recorded a phenomenal growth in its young life. Temporarily meeting in Cooke School, Beachlawn has stressed "family" worship by providing a graded Sunday School for every age, and establishing graded nurseries to provide for the infants and toddlers while the remainder of the family worships together.

Beachlawn, whose membership comes from the whole community including North and South Virginia Beach, London Bridge, Oceana, and even Norfolk, is organized under a full Southern Baptist Convention program, including the various youth organizations.

The complete building program of the church provides for a sanctuary, seating 400 persons, and educational facilities for 1000 persons—both fully air conditioned. Phase I of the building program is the construction of a two-story, brick, colonial parsonage, valued at $25,000. The construction of this lovely home on Southside Road in Rudee Heights began this week.

Rev. Richard G. Salter, the pastor of Beachlawn, extends the warm invitation of his congregation to all in the area who do not have a church home to worship with Beachlawn. Sundays at Cooke School: Sunday School—9:45 a.m.; Morning worship—11 a.m.; BTU—6:30 p.m.; Evening worship—7:30 p.m.

Boat Registration Applications at Post Office April 1

The Post Office Department will begin the accepting of applications from owners of boats of more than 10 horsepower which are not yet numbered under the Federal Boating Act of 1958, on April 1, 1960. Application forms will be available at post offices in those states which have not yet adopted their own numbering systems.

The completed application form and a $3.00 fee must be filed with the Post Office. At that time the upper portion of the two-part Federal Boating stamp will be attached to a temporary certificate and returned to the applicant as proof of compliance with the law until such time as the application has been processed.

The lower portion of the stamp affixed to the completed application will be sent to the Coast Guard by the Post Office. After processing, a permanent pocket size Certificate of Number will be issued to the boat owner on an embossed plastic card.

There are to be two denominations. The $3.00 Boating stamp, in blue, will cover the filing of a completed application and will be valid for a three year period. A red $1.00 Boating stamp will cover charges for the issuance of a lost or destroyed Certificate of Number.

William K. Schrage of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing designed the stamps. Charles A. Brooke engraved the vignette and Matthew D. Fenton the ornament. The tint was done by William R. Burnell and the outline frame, denominations and the word "Stub" by Robert J. Jones. All other lettering is in type face, and the entire stamp was produced by the offset printing process.

The Boating stamps were produced in sheets of 60 subjects, divided into six panes of ten stamps each. The plate number appears in the lower left corner of each pane of ten—there being no selvage at top and bottom, and right side.

Plate numbers used for the $3.00 Boating stamps are 54493, 54495, 54532 and 54534. Only plate 54493 was used for the $1.00 denomination. The stamps and stubs are rouletted for purpose of separation.

Each stamp and its stub bear identical black numbers, as for

Beach Art Assn. Entertains at Reception

The Virginia Beach Art Association entertained members and invited guests at a reception on Wednesday evening, March 23, at the Virginia Beach Convention Dome where the Annual Spring Exhibit is in progress. The reception was in honor of guest artists Genia Tertell Rickerson of Brighton, Ontario, Canada; Glen Heaton of Baltimore, and Professor I. D. Durham, College of William and Mary, Norfolk, who spoke on "Trends in Modern Art" prior to the reception. Mrs. Donald M. Jefferson, president of the Association, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Harry H. example, 001000 1, 001000 2, 001000 3, to 001001 0.

Through special arrangements, stocks of the $3.00 and $1.00 Federal Boating stamps will be available in unused and unprepared condition at the Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D.C. They may not be purchased at local post offices for collecting purposes.

Collectors ordering these stamps in multiples of four or more may request plate number blocks. Full sheets, as noted, contain ten stamps.

GETTING THE MOST FROM YOUR GARDEN

by Dr. Peter Asgrow

EARLY LAWN CARE

When the worst of the winter is over it is time to begin putting your lawn in shape for the coming season. The earlier you begin the better, particularly if you are going to seed this year.

Below is an easy schedule to follow. It will help you get the job done without killing yourself!

First Week
Naturally your soil gets first attention, and you can begin with an application of lime, preferably ground limestone, even before the frost is out of the ground. A soil analysis is the surest way to tell, but your lawn probably needs lime if you haven't applied it recently. On the other hand, if the garden shops in your vicinity do not carry lime, you may live in an area where it isn't needed. Here is a simple rule of thumb to guide you.

If you have never used lime—Apply 30 lb. per 1,000 sq. ft.

Every two or three years—Apply 25 lb. per 1,000 sq. ft.

For hydrated lime use only half as much and apply before growth begins. Do not use quicklime.

Late winter is also a good time to remove all the leaves and other trash that have collected on the lawn over the winter. Rake lightly with a bamboo or other flexible lawn rake, so as not to tear grass plants by the roots.

Second Week
The next step is fertilizing. The grass plants in your lawn need nourishment, so make a liberal application of plant food before growth begins. This stimulates leaf and root growth and gives the grass the quick initial spurt that will help those plants to compete with the weeds and crabgrass later on.

Fertilizers differ in their composition and in their effect, so don't be afraid to ask your garden supply store for help in choosing the right one for your lawn. Some are especially prepared for lawns and contain high amounts of organic nitrogen. Though usually higher-priced, they are often worth the extra money, as they take effect more slowly, without burning the foliage, and last longer than ordinary fertilizers with inorganic nitrogen. Learn to read and understand the formula printed on the container, and above all, follow the instructions.

Third Week
Now you are ready to sow whatever lawn seed may be needed this year, and the earlier you do this job the better. It will help the new plants to become well established before the heat and drought of summer. This is particularly important if you are using a permanent lawn seed mixture. The perennial grasses in such mixtures give you the best looking and longest lasting lawn, but they take a long time to sprout—as much as four weeks, even under laboratory conditions—and longer still to become established. So, for best results, allow at least eight weeks between planting and the normal arrival of hot summer weather.

Though our grandfathers grew good lawns for centuries before the invention of the lawn seeder, this handy tool makes seeding and seeding really a simple matter, letting you apply the right amount, with little or no waste, and saving you money in the long run.

Hoppy Saturday At Princess Anne Country Club

And a Hoppy Saturday to you. March 26, 1960 the Princess Anne Country Club will become a hutch for the most sophisticated cottontails ever to bed down in the same warren. Callie Anderson will present her witty satire on the fables of human characteristics. For instance, there is Dr. I. M. Flimsy, the local psychiatrist, Dr. Will I. Springem, the obstetrician, and his humor the Mayor, Mr. I. M. Fuller Offit. In addition, there are 98 other cultured Cottontails who populate this Hoppy Adventure in Bunny Wonderland. Adult members and their guests will enjoy this Hoppportunity for good times, and will be pleased to know that dinner and dancing will add to the fun.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

The Spanish do wonderful things with fish. And little wonder. A fleet of some 47,000 small fishing vessels ply the waters of the Mediterranean and Atlantic surrounding the Iberian Peninsula, assuring its people of an ever fresh and abundant supply. Add to this the fact that Spain is the native land of the pimiento-stuffed green olive and that this peppery little fruit is used lavishly as a seafood seasoner, and you have two good reasons why fish dishes that originate in Spain are something very special. For your Lenten pleasure, here are a couple of typical traditional recipes.

Bacalao Con Patatas
(Cod and Potatoes)
(Makes about 6 servings)
1 medium-sized potatoes, pared and sliced.
2 1-pound packages frozen cod fillets, thawed and cut into 1-inch pieces.
1 large onion, sliced.
1 medium-sized green pepper, sliced.
1/2 cup sliced canned sweet red peppers.
1/2 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed green olives.
4 medium-sized tomatoes, sliced.
1 teaspoon garlic powder.
2 bay leaves, crushed.
1-1/2 teaspoons salt.
1 teaspoon pepper.
2 tablespoons salad or olive oil.
Layer potatoes, cod, onion, green pepper, red peppers, olives and tomatoes in greased 13X9X2-in. baking pan. Combine garlic powder, bay leaves, salt and pepper; mix and sprinkle over tomatoes. Sprinkle with oil. Cover and bake in moderate oven (375°) 1-1/2 hours, or until potatoes are tender.

Salmon Con Aceitunas
(Salmon with Olives)
(Makes 4 servings)
2 12-ounce packages frozen salmon steaks.
1 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed green olives.
1 cup chopped parsley.
1 medium-sized onion, chopped.
2 whole peppercorns.
Salt to taste.
1 cup salad or olive oil.
1 tablespoon vinegar.
1 tablespoon butter or margarine.
Hard-cooked egg, finely chopped.
Arrange salmon, olives, parsley, onion and peppercorns in shallow baking dish. Combine salt, oil and vinegar; mix well. Pour over salmon mixture. Dot with butter or margarine. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 25-30 minutes, or until fish flakes with fork. Sprinkle with egg.

Among the most versatile of all foods, rock lobster tails have become extremely popular with

Americans since they were introduced a few years ago. They richly deserve this popularity because not only are they good to eat, but are economical to buy and easy to prepare. Once out of the shell, they are no waste food. Here are suggestions from the National Fisheries Institute on National timer or make note of time. Cook

Baked Lobster Tails—Hot or Cold
To boil South African Rock Lobster Tails, place tails, either thawed or frozen, into a large kettle of boiling water with 1 teaspoon salt for each quart of water. When water reboils, lower heat and set frozen packages everywhere. With both foods in good supply—both one minute longer than the individual weight in ounces of thawed lobster tails. If frozen, add two minutes to boiling time. Count on one lobster tail for each serving.

To serve hot, drain and take to table immediately, providing kitchen scissors for cutting through the under-shell and hot melted butter for dunking.

To serve cold, drain off hot water, drench with cold water. Cut through under-shell with scissors. Insert fingers between shell and meat and pull firmly. Chill and serve with homemade mayonnaise or cold Hollandaise Sauce.

"This is a fine year for nuts generally, and an all-time record-breaking year for almonds," the U. S. Department of Agriculture tells us. And on the National Fisheries Institute's Plentiful List are fillets of cod, flounder, haddock and ocean perch—all, of course, available in attractive, convenient frozen packages everywhere. With both foods in good supply—both generously endowed with nutrients we need for our health and a feeling of well-being—a recipe combining both foods is especially timely. This one for Fish Fillets with Chopped Almonds will help to balance top-heavy holiday-food budgets, and yet is a festive company dish, to be served with spiced apricots, peaches or crab apples. Not only is this dish high in protein, vitamins and minerals, but if you use a corn-oil margarine in the preparation you have two foods that are actually cholesterol-depressants (fish and corn-oil), according to recent research findings.

Fish Fillets with Chopped Almonds
2 pounds frozen fish fillets (cod, haddock, ocean perch, or flounder).
1 cup shelled almonds.
1 stick (1/2 lb.) corn-oil margarine.
Grated peel of 1 lemon.
1 teaspoon paprika.
1 teaspoon salt.
1 teaspoon pepper.
Let fillets thaw on refrigerator.

Fishback And Lea Relocates

Diamond mullioned windows and doors give a distinctive appearance to Fishback and Lea's new men's shop at 211 E. Main St.

NORFOLK — Fishback and Lea, Ltd., specialists in Madison Avenue-type men's clothing and man-tailored sportswear for women, have opened a new store at 211 E. Main Street.

The firm recently moved from 117 W. Plum St. in advance of demolition of buildings in that area to clear the site for a new ABC Board office building.

The enlarged operation is in a distinctive setting, occupying three floors and two additional levels. The exterior features diamond mullioned windows and doors. The interior is done in English Tudor and paneled walnut.

A hammered copper shield, built in fireplace, mosaic-like pictures and distinctive fixtures combine to make the store one of the most picturesque in the area.

W. O. Fishback and James L. Lea Jr., owner-partners, have a long background in the business. The former at one time was resident partner with Jack Wood Ltd. The firm pioneered the introduction here of various exclusive lines of men's clothing and furnishings and has attracted customers from Tidewater Virginia and north-eastern North Carolina.

New Cubmaster For Cub Pack 65

The committee for Pack 65, Lynnhaven, Cub Scouts, which is sponsored by the Thalia Methodist Church, met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Boesch, Ben Mother of Den 4, in Thalia Shores, Lynnhaven.

Mr. Rod Brown, chairman of the committee announced that Mr. Clay Atkins would be the new cubmaster for the pack, due to an illness in the family of Mr. Martin Old, present cubmaster. Mr. Old will, however, remain a committee-man in the pack.

Mr. Brown asked the full cooperation of all the adult leaders and parents in the pack be given to Mr. Atkins so that the pack might continue to grow as it has in the past.

The next regularly scheduled pack meeting will be held at the Thalia Methodist Church on March 28 at 7:30 p.m. All interested parents and boys 8-10 are invited to attend. The theme for the month of March is "My Home State." Displays concerning Virginia's history, growth, industries, wildlife, etc., are being prepared by each den and awards for the best display will be made by the judges.

Colonial Stores Sales Increase

ATLANTA, GA.—Colonial Stores reported sales for the 1959-1960 period ending February 27, 1960 amounted to $33,890,775 compared with $33,717,918 for the corresponding period last year — an increase of 2.4 per cent. Sales for the year to date were reported as $67,811,361 — an increase of 2.6 per cent over sales of $65,933,548 at the same time last year. The above sales reflect company operations in ten states and indicate there were 462 stores in operation Feb. 27, 1960 compared to 478 a year ago.

Eng's Restaurant Opens in Janaf Shopping Center

William Eng, owner, recently opened the new and modern Eng's Restaurant in Janaf Shopping Center. Thalia is the first location entering the center from Virginia Beach Blvd. Ample free parking space is available at all times.

Eng's features delicious Chinese and American foods. A Chinese chef of many years experience prepares your choice of exotic or plain good foods, served in the delightful Chinese atmosphere of calm and relaxation assures the customer complete enjoyment of leisurely dining.

The Eng family have been serving patrons of the area for almost a quarter of a century. The first restaurant was opened in August 1927 by William Eng and his father. The present operation also includes his son, giving a continuity of three generations. Many of their old customers will recall dining in their restaurant which was located at Botetourt and West York streets, in Norfolk. The building was demolished along with others in the block from West York to the Hague to clear the area for the new scenic boulevard and park.

The restaurant also specializes in orders to take out. A call to UL 3-2948 will receive courteous and prompt attention. The business hours are from 11 a.m. 'til 11 p.m.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new luxuries, new appliances, A.V. equipment, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us so we can help you determine if the insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Stanton, and May 3, Richmond. The breed associations award the equivalent of $10 per heifer shown in the spring shows, and also give a trophy to the exhibitor of the grand champion heifer. Junior yearling and summer yearling classes are set up for each breed, and champions are selected for each breed. Special awards are also offered by the national breed associations. Fitting and showing contests. The V.P. Block and Bridle Club awards a show stick to the winner of the fitting and showing contests.

Last year 232 4-H beef heifer projects, involving 328 animals, were completed in Virginia, and 24 beef herd projects, involving 279 animals, were completed. Six junior purebred heifer shows, with 128 heifers were held.

METHOXYCHLOR, MALATHION NOW RECOMMENDED ON ALFALFA

Farmers who fail to get a heifer treatment on their alfalfa by last week (March 9) now will have to resort to methoxychlor or malathion to control the alfalfa weevil.

Dr. J. Q. Rowell, entomologist at VPI, says farmers should check alfalfa stands closely and often. When most of the plant tops show some feeding injury, apply the first treatment of one of the insecticides. For most areas of Virginia, this time will occur any time from early April to the first of May, but will vary considerably with location, elevation, etc.

If the spray is applied too early, the effectiveness of the residue will be lost before the larvae come in contact with it. The residue of Methoxychlor is effective from 5 to 7 days; of malathion, from 3 to 5 days.

In most seasons, the spring alfalfa weevil eggs continue to hatch over an extended period, and a single spray treatment is not enough to protect the alfalfa. Repeat spray treatments as often as necessary. Be sure to allow at least 7 days between the last treatment and harvest of the alfalfa for hay or use of the crop pasture.

Methoxychlor will control spittlebugs, also, Dr. Rowell says. The weevil is believed to be present throughout Virginia, and Dr. Rowell says if alfalfa is to be grown in infested areas, insecticides must be used. The weevil may destroy the first cutting, and in severely infested fields, kill much of the stand.

Specific directions for using methoxychlor or malathion are available from your county agricultural agents.

Little League Practice too Begin Saturday, April 2

Registration in American Little League baseball took place Monday night at the Convention Center. Well over 400 prospects were checked for eligibility. Practice for team try-outs will begin Saturday, April 2 at the Virginia Beach High School stadium. These sessions will continue for six weeks, at which time the player auction will be held and needed players will be chosen for the four uniformed teams.

American League teams and their sponsors are: Rotarians, Virginia Beach Rotary Club; Tigers, Rosewood Memorial Park; Gordon Ware, president; Sports, Virginia Beach Sports Club; Cubs, men of the Presbyterian Church.

Little League operates solely on donations and volunteer help. A drive for funds to replace uniforms and equipment will be under way soon. Adults are badly needed for team managers, assistants, and scorekeepers.

Officers of the American League for the coming season are: D. E. Entminger, president; Mrs. Nellie P. Mathews, vice president; Mrs. Katherine Coates, secretary; Mrs. Lillian Entminger, treasurer.

Mah Jong Classes New Feature of YWCA Series

Mah Jong classes will be a new feature of the Ladies Day Out Series of the YWCA. Mrs. Jay Klein of Birchwood Gardens will be the instructor.

Registration for this interesting course may be made at the Registration Coffee and Fashion Show on March 30, 10 a.m.-12 noon at the Central YWCA.

Fashion-Co-Round will be presented by Florence Wilson, commentary by Alice Brewer White with models from Virginia Beach and Norfolk.

CLIFFORD HERZER TO GIVE TWO CONCERTS IN FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Herzer left yesterday for Florida. Mr. Herzer, local pianist, will have two concerts in Miami Friday and Saturday. The concerts are being arranged by one of the foremost women composers, Mana-Zucca. Mr. Herzer will introduce one of her compositions. They will return to Virginia Beach on Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Herzer's mother, Mrs. William Butler, of Islamorada, Fla.

PRINCESS ANNE POST NO. 113

W. GARDNER BARKER, President, Thomas J. Lipton, Inc., makes the first call on the millionth C&P telephone in Virginia. This phone was installed March 14, in the LIPTON TEA processing plant in Suffolk. With Mr. Barker are J. Rhodes Mitchell, Vice President, C&P Telephone Company of Virginia; J. T. Flynn, Suffolk Manager, C&P; and J. N. Byrne, Suffolk Plant Manager, Lipton Tea.

First call on Virginia's MILLIONTH C&P PHONE

as C & P service keeps pace with Virginia's vigorous industrial growth

You're looking at the millionth C&P telephone in Virginia. And, fittingly, it occupies a key spot in one of the new multi-million-dollar plants that have already helped push the Commonwealth's industrial investment growth to more than one billion dollars in the last seven years.

Every dollar of plant investment means new jobs... new payroll dollars... new wholesale and retail volume... new families, new homes. In turn, these create a need for still more phones and phone service.

In the last 10 years, more than 500,000 phones have been installed by C&P in Virginia—more than all the phones installed in the same area in the previous 70 years. We of the C&P Telephone Company of Virginia appreciate the public acceptance which made this milestone possible. We will continue to direct our efforts to meet the needs of Virginia's vigorous industrial upsurge. This installation of the millionth telephone is symbolic of C&P's service to the Commonwealth.

LIPTON TEAS SUFFOLK PLANT, opened in October 1955, now processes 3 billion cups of tea per year. A million-dollar Instant Tea addition began production in December, 1959, culminating 14 years of research on this new product. Lipton is America's largest tea company.

LISTEN TO YOUR COUNTY AGENT
9:30 THURSDAYS, 12:30 SATURDAY, STATION WTAR

The teacher was giving the youngsters a mental drill. "Now, Ambrose, tell me which month has 28 days in it?"

Ambrose pondered the matter for a moment. Then he had an inspiration. "Teacher," he said, "they all have."

VPI COMMODITY COMMITTEES

Advancing technology and increasing complex agricultural problems make it more necessary today than ever before that the activities and programs of VPI Extension Service be planned by and for the people of this county. Last week, 65 men, serving on seven different commodity committees, met with me to study problems of the county and to outline programs that will overcome the most pressing problems of the commodity.

After these activities and programs have been approved by the VPI Agricultural Extension Service Board of the county, we will inform you of these programs so that you can see what the VPI Extension Service is doing in Princess Anne County to assist in solving some of the problems that we have.

WHEAT FERTILIZATION DEMONSTRATION

I have been asked by several of the farmers in the county to write a brief story about the 1960 Wheat Fertilization Demonstration that we are conducting. This demonstration has created a great deal of interest among all small grain producers, and fertilizer representatives.

Cooperating in this demonstration are: L. J. Furlough, on whose farm the demonstration is being conducted; Dr. S. F. Thornton, of Royster Guano Company, who has furnished the complete fertilizer; W. T. Townsend, agronomist for the Arcadian Nitrogen Division, who supplied the liquid nitrogen; and Irvin McClannan, of the Farmers Fertilizer and Seed Corporation, who applied the nitrogen.

The purpose of the demonstration is to demonstrate the proper and recommended practice of wheat fertilization. We wish to further demonstrate that greater and more economical yields of soybeans can be received by proper fertilization of the preceding wheat crop.

In this demonstration there are five plots, each 1.8 acres in size. The variety on each of these plots is Atlas 65. This variety was planted at the rate of two bushels per acre on November 6, 1959. The plots that received fertilizer last fall were fertilized the same day of seeding.

Plot No. 1 — As seeding time, this plot received 18 pounds of nitrogen, 60 pounds of phosphate, and 60 pounds of potash in the form of 3-18-18. At side dressing time February 22, it received 45 pounds of nitrogen.

Plot No. 2 — This plot received 27 pounds of nitrogen, 55 pounds of phosphate, and 55 pounds of potash at seeding time in the form of 3-18-18. On February 22, it received 30 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre.

Plot No. 3 — This plot received 55 pounds of nitrogen, 55 pounds of phosphate, and 55 pounds of potash at seeding time in the form of 3-18-18. This plot did not and will not receive any further fertilizer of any kind as a top dressing.

Plot No. 4 — This plot is somewhat like the preceding one in that the same amount of nitrogen, phosphate, and potash was applied, however, this was applied in the spring with no fertilizer at seeding time.

Plot No. 5 — This plot did not receive any complete fertilizer in the fall. At top dressing time, it received 58 pounds of nitrogen per acre.

An observation tour was held at this demonstration on March 1, and farmers were able to see a tremendous difference between the plots that were fertilized last fall and those that were not. During the latter part of May, another tour is going to be scheduled to view this demonstration to further determine the value of the proper fertilization of small grain.

The wheat for meach of these plots will be accurately weighed, so that an accurate account be kept on the cost and returns of proper fertilization.

After the wheat is harvested, each of these plots will be planted in soybeans, and these will be accurately weighed, also, so that complete analysis of cost and returns can be secured on this demonstration.

POULTRY SCHOOL SUMMARY

The Poultry School, sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, with the assistance of the Extension Agents of Norfolk and Princess Anne was very successful. I would like to give you a brief summary of some of the important discussions given by the group of experts from VPI Poultry Department.

Dr. C. E. Howes, head of the Poultry Department at VPI, discussed the egg price situation. Dr. Howes stated that 1959 was very difficult, however, Virginia fared somewhat above the average of the nation. He said that the difficulty was due to a consumption decrease.

Now, in looking to 1960, he stated that hatching numbers are down for January, February, and March. And this will indicate smaller laying numbers, at least for the first half of the year. However, this will be somewhat offset by increase in production. Dr. Howes stated that prices should be somewhat better in 1960 than they were in 1959, and he forecast a 30 cents or 37 cents average price per dozen.

Dr. Howes stated 5 cent increase per dozen means 8000 dollars per one thousand birds. He further stated that in order to continue in business with the tremendous price cost squeeze, that poultry producers are going to have to shoot for a 30 cent per dozen production cost. He stated that if Virginia producers could not do this, that some other producer from another area would do this and we would have to do so or else get out of business. Dr. Howes also did some forecasting of things to come. He stated that poultry producers would have to start selling rather than delivering. Another thing to look into all possibilities of a home grown grain mix, using all of your home grown grains that you possibly can.

Another thing that was very strong in his mind was the organization of a marketing co-op. This would bring together large numbers of eggs with which we could compete with other large producing areas. And last, he said that we must continue to push for increase in size of production with a decrease in the cost of production.

Danver Dragg, Associate Extension Husbandman at VPI, stated that producers could save considerable labor if they would purchase some labor saving equipment for their poultry flocks. He placed most of his emphasis on new equipment for egg handling. He stated that equipment is now on the market that would enable you to gather your eggs into special perforated plastic flats, and they would never have to be touched again by human hands until they reached the whole sale house.

R. H. Burtner, from the Poultry Department, discussed the use of home grown grains in the poultry ration. He said that corn, barley, and oats, with a good protein supplement can be used very satisfactorily. He listed some rations that were in use in Virginia, and ones that were giving satisfactory results. Anyone interested in these particular rations, please contact my office. In summary of his discussion, he stated that from $12.95 to $10.49 could be saved on the cost of feed per ton.

Dr. R. T. DuBoise, poultry pathologist at VPI discussed vaccination and disease prevention. However, one of his biggest topics was sanitation. He stated that sanitation is much more than a good soaking with a strong stinking disinfectant. Dr. DuBoise listed all of the various diseases that we have in the poultry field and gave recommendations for the prevention and control of these diseases.

Mr. Dan Kite, Agricultural Engineer at VPI, discussed increased profits from proper poultry housing. Mr. Kite is one of the leading farm building specialists in Southeastern United States. We are very proud to have him on the VPI staff. He outlined many, many factors involved in good housing: Any poultry producer, planning to improve or renovate buildings or build new ones are requested to contact my office for plans and suggestions that may be helpful to you in planning your poultry housing.

DIVERSIFICATION ON FARM HELPS KEEP INCOME STEADY

basket" is forthcoming from agricultural economists at VPI.

The farmer who "diversifies"—who has more than one money-making farm operation—will have less trouble with ups and downs of his income, says Economist Paul Hoepner.

This fact is pointed up in a report from Minnesota. Hoepner says. He points out that while variation exists between Minnesota and Virginia conditions, the work has interest in this state. After removing individual differences between farmers, the Minnesota test results show variation in income attributed to risk. It was found that dairy farmers had less variation in their income than hog producers.

Dairymen had an average gross income of $4,875. In two out of three years this income could be expected to fluctuate by 86 percent, or fall between $3,120 and $6,550. Hog producers had an average of $4,354, but with a 42 percent fluctuation. Their income could be expected to be between $3,975 and $9,733 in two-thirds of the years.

There was less relative variation in income on a diversified dairy and hog operation than there was for one specializing in either dairy or hogs. A 65 percent dairy and 35 percent hog operation produced an average gross income of $5,508 and had a minimum fluctuation of 32 percent.

The diversified income could be expected to fall between $3,452 and $7,549 in two-thirds of the years. In this case, the increased certainty was obtained at some sacrifice in income.

So, it may be concluded that a combined dairy-hog operation is one means of decreasing income uncertainty in Minnesota. More important, diversification, while it may tend to decrease average income, should also prove to be an important means of lowering relative variations in income in Virginia.

PUREBRED HEIFERS SHOWS SCHEDULED IN SPRING

Many Virginia 4-H club members are well on the way to becoming purebred cattle breeders. Arlen N. Huff, 4-H livestock specialists at VPI, says the junior purebred heifer project encourages boys and girls on adapted farms to get, grow out, and breed registered beef heifers. By expanding the project, members can eventually build up herds of registered cattle. This project is sponsored by the three beef breed (Hereford, Aberdeen Angus, and Shorthorn) associations in Virginia.

Purebred heifer shows will be held this spring in conjunction with the following state shows: April 14, Roanoke; April 18, Midway; April 18, Bristol; April 22, Petersburg.

Theft Thwarted Here as Private Citizens React

Three alert citizens assisted in the apprehension of three men attempting to steal a safe Monday night from a Virginia Beach business establishment.

As a result Virginia Beach police charged three men with burglary shortly before midnight on Monday.

Those charged are Jerome Victor Batts, 36, of the 1000 block of Holt Street, Norfolk; James Leroy Smith, 22, of the 500 block of Clay Avenue, Norfolk; and Herman C. Weaver, 45, of the 500 block of 24th Street, Virginia Beach.

According to a police report the three men were seen carrying a safe from the W. W. Johnson real estate office at 301 and Pacific Avenue. They were seen by F. Beal Wilhoit of the 100 block of Pine-wood Road, James Bridges and Nat Meekins.

The citizen trio heard breaking glass and followed the would-be burglars, and forced their car to the curb at Atlantic Avenue. State Trooper R. E. Coffelt came upon the scene and took in Batts, Smith and Weaver.

Virginia Beach Detective Henry Capps investigated along with Patrolmen M. P. Garrison, C. E. McChesney Jr., C. H. Payne and R. A. Frederick.

School Census Will Be Taken

The quinquennial school census of children will be made this year in Princess Anne County during April and May. This census, taken every five years, has been authorized by the General Assembly and includes all persons between the ages of one and 20 years of age. Persons of school age domiciled in orphanages or living on any federal military or Naval reservation or other federal property shall be included in the census.

At the time the school census is made a separate census of deaf and blind persons and those children who are mentally retarded, will be made.

The school census, not to be confused with the federal census, is under the supervision of Joseph J. Owens Jr., Director of Research in the Princess Anne County Schools. The enumerators will be identified by a special badge and will carry a letter from the Division Superintendent of Schools, F. W. Cox, as a means of identification to allow the public to know these people.

The public is asked to cooperate with these enumerators.

DOG SHOW FRIDAY

The German Shepherd Dog Club of Eastern Virginia will present a dog show at the Oceana Stadium on Friday, April 1 at 6 p.m.

Several of the dogs will perform in a drill team, which will be the highlight of the evening's performance.

Mr. Harold Hardin, of Kansas City, Kansas, will act as judge for the show.

Champ Speller, Runner-up

Miss Susan Sharp, left, is the spelling champion of the W. T. Cooke School here. She is the daughter of Mrs. G. A. Sharp. At right is Bart Theberge, who was runner-up in the spelling bee. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Theberge. Both students are in the seventh grade. (Simmons Photo.)

Help Prepare Annual Cancer Drive Kits

P.A. Band Trip Promotion Tops Expectations

If the weekend performance of the Princess Anne High School band is any indication, its 30 members will march in the National School Safety Patrol Parade on May 14 in Washington, D.C.

To participate in the event, which will include 31,000 marchers, the band hit on the idea of selling boxes of Peco Flake and Saltwater Taffee, made by a Virginia Beach candy firm.

Each member of the band must sell 40 boxes of the candy to raise the necessary funds.

Although the campaign was not scheduled to start until Monday, band members had sold more than 1000 boxes by Sunday night and was well on the way toward disposing of 2400 boxes late Monday.

"This thing has gone over far better than we expected," G. L. Bailey, band director, stated. "Any excess money received will go into our treasury," he added.

The band has appeared in the Oyster Bowl, the Winechester Blossom Festival, the Cherry Blossom Festival, Parade in Washington and other similar events during the past few years.

Bill Curns is captain, Jim Wilson co-captain and Jo Ellen Klop-tenberg secretary.

Cancer Drive Set to Commence Friday; Local Goal Is $15,000

The annual Cancer fund campaign begins officially in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Friday with the kickoff of residential solicitations getting under way.

Fred A. Haycox Jr., general drive chairman, has urged all workers to get the job done quickly. The drive officially will end on April 27, but we want to reach our goal in the first week of the drive," Haycox stated.

The goal for the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society has been set at $15,000. The general theme of the drive is "Guard Your Family—Fight Cancer With a Checkup and a Check."

Grayson K. Willis is heading the special gifts section of the campaign and this committee has been at work for the past three weeks. No report has been made thus far for this committee.

Mrs. George O. Shipp is chairman of the residential solicitation. Mrs. Shipp has named a committee consisting of Mrs. John J. Collins, Mrs. J. E. Dudley, Mrs. Earl Teasdale, Mrs. J. E. Teasdale, Mrs. M. G. Teasdale, Mrs. Harvey W. Teasdale, Mrs. James H. Teasdale, Mrs. Alfred W. Craft Jr., and Mrs. Andrea M. Hodgson.

While the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne drive is under way so will similar drives throughout Virginia and the nation be held. Richard S. Gillis Jr., of Ashland, is the director of activities for the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce and is serving as the 1960 crusade chairman for the Virginia Division.

New Bowling Center Given Approval by Supervisors

Another bowling establishment is in prospect for Princess Anne County as a result of action by the County Board of Supervisors Monday in approving the application of Bayshore Bowl, Inc. for the erection of bowling lanes in the Bay-side area.

The new bowling lanes will be located opposite the Bayshore post office and present plans call for 24 lanes. The new recreation center is expected to cost $200,000 and is expected to be opened in September.

At the same time the Board tabled a request by the Navy that a strip of open beach at the Fleet Air Defense Training Command, Dam Neck, be transferred from state to federal ownership by deed. The board turned down an application for a change of zoning from Rural Residential District 1 to Residential Suburban District 2 on land said to be owned by W. W. Oliver Jr. The zoning change application of Charles Norton by Clayton Shoemaker was for 130 lots on land bounded by Thoroughgood, Ewell road, Bayshore road and other property. The application was denied because the board wants to make an overall study of zoning problems in this area. It was stated.

W. W. Oliver Jr. told the board "We will probably make an appeal to the court on your decision." Building Inspector Edward Williams told the board 507 new building permits have been issued since Jan. 1. This represents construction worth an estimated $5,300,480. Almost half the total was in the Bayshore District.

Beach, Military Leaders Map Plans for Armed Forces Week

Plans for the Armed Forces Week celebration to be held from May 12, through the 22nd, have been announced by Capt. G. R. Luker, USN, Commanding Officer of the Oceana Naval Air Station.

Events of the celebration include a business men's luncheon, an open house at the Oceana Naval Air Station for school children in the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne area, a parade in Virginia Beach, and an open house of the Naval Air Station for the general public.

The business men's luncheon will be held on Wednesday, May 18, and will be attended by some 120 business men from the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne area. Guest speakers at the luncheon will be commanding officers of military activities in the area.

An open house, for children of school age in the local area, will be held on Friday, May 20 at the Oceana Naval Air Station. Static displays of jet aircraft from the Navy and Air Force, as well as an aircraft display of the Army, guided missiles, rescue equipment and fire-fighting equipment are some of the exhibits that will be displayed.

An Armed Forces Day Parade will be held on Atlantic Avenue Saturday, May 21. Approximately 120 units comprised of bands, drill teams, floats, guided missiles, and other exhibits will participate.

Plaques will be awarded to outstanding units in the parade by the City of Virginia Beach. Presentations will be made in front of the Coast Guard Station on Atlantic Avenue immediately after the parade.

Immediately following the parade an open house will be held at NAS Oceana. The general public will be able to see first hand some of the latest and fastest jet aircraft of the Navy and Air Force. Static displays of crash and rescue, survival and electronics equipment, will be shown.

News Digest

State Bowling to Set Record Here

More than 200 teams have entered the Virginia State Tenpin Bowling tournament to be held on the Thunderbird Bowling Lanes here, according to Joseph Phelps, manager of the local recreation center. The 200-plus team entries establishes a new record breaking the previous mark of 165. The tournament is scheduled to be played over three weekends starting April 23, but Phelps indicated that the huge entry list may extend the meet to a fourth weekend.

Lenten Service at Galilee Tonight

The Rev. Cotesworth Lewis, rector of Bruton Parish church in Williamsburg, is scheduled to preach tonight (Thursday) at the Galilee Episcopal Church here. The Rev. Mr. Lewis is another in a series of Lenten speakers. The next scheduled speaker on April 7 is the Rev. Treadwell Davidson of St. James' Church, Montross, Virginia.

Hotel-Motel Class Starting Monday

The first session in a special series of classes in simplified accounting for hotel-motel operators is scheduled to be held next Monday night in the Virginia Beach Convention Center. It has been announced.

The classes will be under the direction of Rudy L. Leone of the Norfolk office of Horwath and Horwath, nationally known accountants in the hotel-motel field.

These classes are being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the Virginia Beach Hotel, Motel and Cottage Association, the Distribution Education Service, and the Tidewater Chapter of the Virginia Motel Association.

Bloodmobile at Bayside Monday

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile is scheduled to visit the Bayside area of Princess Anne County next Monday. The Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Ocean Park Fire Station from 12 noon until 6 p.m.

The visit of the Bloodmobile to Bayside is being sponsored by the Bayside Lions Club, according to a spokesman for the Red Cross.

'Free TV' Taken Literally Here

Two men charged with burglary made the mistake of interpreting a "Free TV" sign literally, police said Tuesday.

James Lawrence Seifhimer, USN, 19, and Robert Edward Wilson, USN, 22, both of the Norfolk Naval Air Station, are charged with burglary.

They reportedly smashed plate glass worth $85 on the first floor of the Saxony Motel last Feb. 18 and made off with a portable TV set, a TV stand, two framed paintings and four pillows. The lot has been recovered.

Supervisors Ponder Tax Increase Due To School Bond Issue and Growth

New county school construction approved in a March 15 referendum will probably result in a tax increase of approximately 45 cents per $100 valuation for Princess Anne County taxpayers next year. It was indicated at the Board of Supervisors meeting Monday.

Officials pointed out that the tax increase will be needed to take care of the $5,500,000 school bond issue.

While no tax rate nor budget figures were released Monday it appears that the tax rate will vary with the district. In seven out of 10 tax districts it appears that a 45 cent increase will be necessary. The Blackwater District increase will probably be 30 cents and the Fungo District 25 cents. All of the figures are estimates.

The overall county budget is expected to be in the neighborhood of $9,000,000. The budget for the current year which ends June 30 is $5,577,000.

Advertising of the proposed tax rate was approved for April 10 and a public hearing authorized for April 23.

Expected to be included in the new budget is $2,500,000 for school construction, about $100,000 in addition to the county last year's $40,000 for a new circuit courtroom. A $800 increase in base pay for degree school teachers in the county is also anticipated in the budget.

Webben Cites County's Growth

Richard J. Webben, executive secretary to the Princess Anne Board of Supervisors, issued the following statement concerning the proposed tax rate increase for Princess Anne County.

"The proposed expenditure of approximately $9 million dollars in Princess Anne County in the fiscal year 1960-1961 is a reflection and a result of the tremendous growth and expansion of Princess Anne County and its public facilities. It is anticipated that the growth will continue, perhaps not on as rapid a pace, but certainly continue. The peak of the so-called 'population explosion' has not been reached and it is reasonable to assume that this area will increase proportionately to other areas of the county."

"The Princess Anne County expenditures are not based upon anticipated needs, but upon needs which presently exist. Our schools are overcrowded, and the Circuit Court handles the second largest number of cases of any Circuit Court in the State and as our population increases the demands upon our public facilities are increasing."

"From a population in 1950 of 10,000, the population in 1960 is expected to be 20,000. This is a tremendous change."

"The proposed tax rate shows an increase of from 45 cents to 90 cents per hundred of assessed value depending upon the Magisterial District it should be borne in mind that this is the first time in four years that the increase of the money raised by the development of real properties, both residential and commercial has been sufficient to meet the needs, however, with the new five and one-half million dollar bond issue which has just been approved by the people, increased costs of construction and increased teachers' salaries, the point has now been reached at which the increased levy is necessary to preserve the present financial condition of the County."

"It is not believed that continued yearly increases in the tax rate will be necessary as the increased appropriation of State funds for school purposes as a result of the 1960 census should be reflected in 1961 certified by 1962. School funds are distributed by the State upon a formula utilizing population, daily in-fundus transportation and certain other factors. It is evident that if the funds are assigned on a basis of 37,000 that they must be increased when a basis of 92,000 is used."

"Increases in population will also increase the availability of Federal funds if they are made available by the Congress and are acceptable to the several States."

"Increased property values due to large building projects will eventually assist in maintaining a constant tax rate."

"The location of industries in the County will help our tax situation, as industry provides tax money without requiring services to the great extent."

"Objectively viewed the Board of Supervisors has exercised great care in appropriating public funds, utilizing where available all sources not directly raised from real estate taxes."

"It is hoped that the economic operation which has prevailed in the last four years will maintain the continued support of the county even during the period of tax increase and be a benefit to the people."

News and Views of Aragona Village

By ELSIE HARVEY

EMERGENCY FIRST AID TRAINING CLASSES

The Aragona Community Recreation Center, Inc., will sponsor a class in emergency first aid and every adult resident in the Aragona Village area is invited to attend. A member of the American Red Cross will conduct the class of instruction every Tuesday evening, starting at 8 p.m. at the Aragona School auditorium. The first class was held on March 29. The course consists of a two-hour class weekly for five consecutive weeks.

PRE-TEEN DANCES TO CONTINUE

Announcement is made that the Pre-Teen Club will continue its regular monthly dances on the last Friday evening of each month. Boys and girls between the ages of nine through 12 years are eligible as members. There are now 204 registered members and the dances are held at the Aragona School auditorium and there are several adult supervisors present at each club dance.

ACRC, INC. PLANS DANCE FOR ADULTS

The Aragona Community Recreation Center has announced plans for a dance which will be held on Friday, April 22 from 8:30 p.m.

(Adv.)

At 12:30 a.m. at the Moose Lodge Building, Virginia Beach (17th St. Extended). Music for the evening will be provided by "The Corsairs" which is the group which furnished the information music for the Musical Revue last fall. Donations will be $2 per person.

NUCLEON GROUP FOR VILLAGE DISCUSSION GROUP

Mrs. John C. Bradshaw Jr. of Salem Road, Telephone GY 7-1754, recently announced that she would be happy to help in building a Discussion Group for the residents of Aragona Village. Mrs. Bradshaw stated that there were numerous subjects which might be of interest to many adults in the area.

HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The third meeting of the newly organized Aragona Village Home Demonstration Club will be held at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, April 13, at the home of Mrs. Rene Cunningham, 1020 Raff Road. Anyone desiring further information pertaining to the Home Demonstration Club activities in the village, please communicate with Mrs. Jean Martin, telephone GY 7-1502.

ARAGONA GARDEN CLUB

All residents in Aragona Village are profiting by the Garden Club's Prettiest Lawn Contest, which will be judged by Mrs. Frances Ganche and Mrs. O. Shumate and Mr. Fred Huette early in May. Garden Club members are, together with old man weather and the elusive entity called spring, laboriously creating what are bound to be beauty spots to be enjoyed by all. Of course, there are many beautiful lawns and flower beds, and shrub arrangements produced by others who are not members of the garden club, yet it can be said that the club does give some added impetus to the urge to put the green thumb to work.

The Aragona Garden Club, with Mrs. Peggy Womble serving as chairman in charge of the arrangements, is official hostess for the Federation of Garden Clubs of Norfolk and vicinity's card party which is scheduled to be held at their building on 29th Street in Norfolk, on April 7.

Mrs. J. F. Patterson will be the guest speaker for the regular monthly meeting in April and has chosen "The Making of Corsets" as her subject for presentation.

ARAGONA MIDGETS WIN P. A. BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

The Aragona Midgets, sponsored by Price's Inc., won the Princess Anne County Basketball Tournament by defeating the Virginia Beach team 14 to 9 in an overtime game. During the first season of play, the Aragona Midgets had a 14-1 record which put them in second place for the season. First place Kempville was beaten by 14-13 by Virginia Beach. Aragona played Virginia Beach in a play-off for the title. At the end of the game the two teams were in a 9-9 tie and had to go into overtime. In the overtime, Aragona's Billy

Telephone GY 7-3539

Skaggs scored the first two points Leary and one point by Larry Bowman, giving Aragona their first championship by a score of 14-9.

This championship team was coached by Don Tyler with Bill Skaggs as assistant coach. The team roster is made up of the following players: Ronnie Boone, team manager; Kenny Neigenfind, Billy Skaggs, Paul Lewis, Larry Bowman, Billy Dubosky, Joe Boone, Don Pickett, George Leary, Jimmy Pusey, Stanley Hooper, Ronny Reid and Gary Mennan.

Dog Show Set for Saturday, April 2 At Norview Hi

On Saturday, April 2, the Tidewater Kennel Club of Virginia will hold its 21st All Breed Dog Show at Norview High School Stadium and Gymnasium located at Chesapeake Blvd. and Middleton Place in Norfolk. Also participating in the event will be the Hampton Roads Obedience Training Club. Judging will commence at 9 a.m. with Boxers, Bulldogs and Norwegian Elkhounds being the first breeds to come under the scrutiny of the judges. Obedience judging will get under way at the same time. There are 500 dogs entered in the show with 27 dogs entered in obedience classes. Judges are coming from as far as California and Canada for this show and it promises to be an outstanding event.

Thalia Methodists To Consecrate New Building

Thalia Methodist Church will consecrate a new $40,000 educational building Sunday at 4 p.m. in the newly furnished sanctuary on Virginia Beach Blvd. Dr. Joseph Johnston, Methodist superintendent of the Norfolk District, will deliver the consecration sermon. The Rev. B. J. Garrett, pastor, will lead services. The new building, designed by Wilson B. Dodson II, of Norfolk, is the second unit in a three unit building program. Constructed by L. J. Hoy, at a cost of $40,000, the building includes ten classrooms in addition to modern kitchen and rest room facilities. In addition to the educational building, new sanctuary furnishings and a new organ will be consecrated at Sunday's service. Thalia Church was organized Easter, 1933 under the sponsorship of Scott Memorial Methodist Church at Oceana with 33 charter members. The membership is now 534. The sanctuary was completed in 1956, and has just been refurbished by the congregation at a cost of approximately $4,500. Music will be furnished by the Junior and Senior choir; reception afterwards in new social hall.

Barner-Wallace Wedding Plans Are Announced

NORFOLK—Dr. and Mrs. Karl Kenneth Wallace announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anne Sydney Wallace of Richmond, to Lt. George Bette Barner Jr., USMC.

Lt. Barner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bette Barner of Richmond and Virginia Beach.

Miss Wallace was graduated from Fairfax Hall Junior College in Waynesboro. She was presented to society several seasons ago at a ball given by the Norfolk German Club.

Lt. Barner was graduated from Hampden-Sydney College where he was a member of Chi Phi society, fraternity and Pi Delta Epsilon, and Eta Sigma Phi honorary fraternities. He is stationed aboard the USS Essex.

A June wedding is planned.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lawrence Grimes Jr. of Virginia Beach announce the birth of their second child, first son, Albert Lawrence III, on Wednesday, March 16, at Leigh Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Grimes is the former Miss Stuart Scarborough of Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reed Godfrey of London Bridge announce the birth of their first child, a son, William Reed, on Saturday, March 19, at Leigh Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Godfrey is the former Miss Frances Ann Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phelps. Mr. Godfrey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Godfrey.

Lt. B. E. Lodge, USN, and Mrs. Lodge of 504 Davenport Lane, Laurel Manor, announce the birth of their second child, first daughter, Elizabeth Allison, on March 6 at Norfolk General Hospital. Mrs. Lodge is the former Miss Marian Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Marshall of Bay Colony. Lt. Lodge is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. Shelton Lodge of Norfolk.

Day by Day Hair Care

You can't remedy several months' neglect with a one-week crash program. The prettiest coiffure is disappointing unless the hair is well-groomed. Adopt a routine. Shampoo your hair as often as it needs it. Washing your comb and brush even more often than your hair. Give your hair the time-honored hundred strokes at night with a good brush. For your weekly or twice-weekly shampoo, allow plenty of time for a careful job. Rub until your hair squeaks as you rub it between your fingers.

You cannot have an attractive coiff without a good permanent for foundation. For a good spring wave, make an appointment with us. Creekmore Beauty Salon, 2611 Atlantic Avenue, Virginia Beach, Phone GARDen 8-2091.

Atlantic Parkway
Repairs Discussed

A committee from the Council of Garden Clubs recently met with State Highway officials to discuss the needed repair for the Atlantic Parkway. The committee consisting of Council President Mrs. John W. Field Jr., Mrs. Arthur Winder, Mrs. Ellipter Tillbrook, Mrs. Lawrence Tucker, remarked that the meeting was very productive and the officials could not have been more helpful.

Badly needed topsoil is now being placed on the Parkway. The shrubs are being pruned and later in the spring they will be sprayed. The Council also hopes to obtain enough fertilizer in the next few weeks to give the Parkway a good feeding. Committee members are now working on this problem. Some 12 tons of fertilizer is needed.

There will also be a good clean-up of the area roads in the near future. Inclement weather has delayed this project. The committee was successful in obtaining two trash receptacles to be placed on the Shore Drive-Atlantic Avenue cut-off, which of late has been in a terribly littered condition. Mrs. Field requested that when this road is cleaned and the trash receptacles placed, we sincerely hope the public will use them. It cost the taxpayers thousands of dollars when the highway department has to spend time and equipment in cleaning up after us.

The Council is now preparing a drive to see that "litter-bugs" are not only fined but also publicly given to their cases hoping to bring to the public notice of the seriousness of this litter problem.

Boosting Your Insurance

Here is a sound Rule-of-Thumb that every property owner can follow: If your fire insurance has been in effect for a number of years without review or revision, it's an odds on bet that you are seriously under-insured.

Since 1945, the statistics show, the cost of home building has just about doubled so if your home was insured in 1945 and you have not increased the amount of insurance that you carried as of that date, you can imagine what could happen to your pocketbook if fire strikes.

What is true of your home itself is true of practically everything inside it. For instance, the cost of household furniture, clothing, appliances—almost every item found in the home—has more than doubled since 1940. Then too you have added new furniture, new appliances, T.V. sets, sewing machines, and many other items and you probably have neglected to increase the insurance on your household and personal effects. These "little things" add up to a surprisingly big total when an accurate inventory is made.

The remedy is for you to review your present coverage, the amount of insurance you carry on your dwelling and the amount of insurance you carry on your household and personal effects. Don't be caught half-insured in the event that disaster strikes you.

We would be pleased for you to consult us to see if the amount of insurance you are now carrying is in line with present day values.

Colonial Stores to Dedicate Distribution Center Sunday

NORFOLK — The massive machinery behind America's position as the world's best fed nation is graphically demonstrated in a tour of the new Colonial Stores Norfolk Food Distribution Center.

Costing $5,000,000 and located on a 38-acre tract in Norfolk's new Industrial Park, the Center concentrates under one roof Colonial warehousing, manufacturing and refrigeration facilities which formerly were scattered in several buildings throughout the city. Formal dedication of the new Center is set for next Sunday, April 3.

The main building covers 14 acres. Adjoining the main building is an automotive maintenance shop with complete facilities for upkeep of Colonial's own fleet of more than 100 trucks.

Colonial served 34 stores in Southern Maryland, Eastern Virginia and Northeastern North Carolina from the Norfolk Distribution Center. In addition to the mammoth food handling facilities, the Center also houses the Eastern Region offices of Colonial and the Norfolk Division offices.

J. W. Wood, who began his Colonial career in 1919, is vice president in charge of the Eastern Region, which, in addition to the Norfolk Division, includes a Division Office in Raleigh which operates 81 stores in the Western part of Virginia and in North Carolina.

Kenneth J. Brethauer, who began his Colonial career in Norfolk as a part time store employee during after school hours, is the General Manager of Colonial's Norfolk Division and is charged with operation of the new Distribution Center.

The full-time services of more than 450 people are required to operate the center.

The impressive entrance to the Center is surrounded by spacious facilities for the parking of more than 400 automobiles. In addition to reserved parking spaces for employees, special areas are reserved for visiting salesmen and other businessmen who call upon Colonial.

The nerve center of the entire installation is the regional executive, buying and accounting office and the Norfolk Division office which supervises the 84 stores served by the Center.

In the regional accounting office, veteran Colonial Executive Walter Barnwell, supervises the more than 100 persons who maintain the records and process the orders that keep the huge Colonial operation in Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina going at top pace.

Buyers select the more than 7,000 food items that make up the stock of the average Colonial supermarket.

A complete engineering department draws plans for new stores and stores development. Chief Saxon Holt travels thousands of miles each year to personally inspect sites and bring back recommendations regarding new store locations.

In the accounting office, the latest electronic business machines sort the cards on which a perpetual Colonial Stores will formally dedicate its new $5,000,000 Norfolk Food Distribution Center next Sunday, April 3. Largest installation of its type in Virginia, the new Center is located on a 38-acre tract in Norfolk's new Industrial Park. The 14-acre building which houses the center is shown here from the air. Adjacent to the main building is a complete fleet maintenance shop. The Center will serve Colonial supermarkets in Southern Maryland, Eastern Virginia and Northeastern North Carolina.

Inventory is maintained and automatically print orders from the retail stores for shipment from the Center. These machines also prepare automatically the checks that make up Colonial's $3,300,000 annual payroll in Tidewater Virginia. In the Norfolk Division offices, merchandising committees study new products, decide upon bargain buys and draft advertising layouts to call the customers attention to these buys. Thousands of personnel records are maintained and checked periodically to assure that the efforts of each Colonial employee are properly recognized. Public Relations Manager Dave Woodson gives personal attention to Colonial's contributions to worthy activities and to Colonial's participation in every civic endeavor designed to make the area in which Colonial operates a better place to live.

Merchandising instructions to the stores go through a modern communication center for rapid transmission by mail, teletype or telephone.

In the grocery warehouse, which has six acres of floor space and is divided into 100-foot aisles, three entire football fields end-to-end, more than 7,000 individual items are stored.

Fork lift trucks place the various containers in stacks more than 20 feet high. Floor space is at a premium, and every inch of air space must be efficiently utilized.

Orders come into the warehouse from the machine records section, and, after being processed, are given to selectors who load the orders onto selector trucks which are pulled around the warehouse by means of a half-mile long endless tow chain.

When completed orders have been placed on the selector trucks, the trucks are lined up for loading upon Colonial's own trucks for movement to the stores. When trailers have been loaded, a Colonial tractor hooks on to the trailer and moves it to the retail store.

Last year these Colonial trucks traveled 1,600,000 miles, delivering the more than 800,000 tons of food and other merchandise to stores from the grocery warehouse.

More than 1,500 tons of food and other items move into the warehouse each week by truck and rail. An indoor railroad, sufficient to accommodate 28 cars at one time, completely protects all foods being unloaded from the weather.

There is a special candy room, where a constant year-around temperature of 65 degrees is maintained to assure that all candy shipped from the Center is as fresh as the day it was made. Special machinery automatically places tax stamps on cigarettes which are sold in Virginia cities having a cigarette tax.

The Center's 400,000 cubic-foot freezer locker is a sight within itself. This freezer has a capacity of more than 100 freight car loads of frozen foods. A constant temperature of 0 degrees below zero is maintained within the freezer. To protect themselves against this extreme cold, employees who work in the freezer wear heavy arctic clothing. In one end of the room is a flash freezer capable of producing temperatures of 40 degrees below zero and of freezing food packages in 20 minutes. Frozen foods move from the freezer to the retail stores in special suzer-zero freezer compartments in Colonial's own refrigerated trucks.

The meat plant is another spectacular sight. Designed to handle more than 1,000,000 pounds of fresh meats each week, the plant is the largest, most modern and efficient installation of its type in the entire area. All meat coming into the plant is inspected and graded by the U. S. Government. In addition, all meat is further inspected for quality and tenderness by Colonial's own experienced meat buyers. Temperatures within the meat plant and on the loading and unloading docks are maintained constantly in a 32 to 36 degree range. Beef is hung in the cooler on a one-half mile long rail capable of holding 20 carloads or more than one-half million pounds of beef. Before movement to the stores, special meat cutters trim the excess fat and bone from the beef.

Fresh pork is carefully protected in special refrigerators. Special refrigeration also is provided for up to one-half million pounds of fresh poultry which Colonial moves through this plant in a week's time. Special ice-making machines keep a continuous flow of ice available for the ice packing of poultry and fish.

The entire meat plant is under constant surveillance of a resident U. S. Government Inspector.

Adjacent to the meat plant is one of the most modern and up-to-date delicatessen departments in the eastern United States. Within this department are almost 100 percent mechanized. Potatoes are peeled, salad materials chopped and mixed and packaged without being touched by human hands. A revolving oven has a baking capacity of 120 Smithfield hams or 2,000 deviled crabs each hour. The walls and floors of the delicatessen department are washable tile and all equipment and tables are of stainless steel.

John B. Dey Delegates Attend District Meeting

The Parent-Teacher workshop for the Tidewater District held a two-day meeting, March 23 and 24 at the John Tyler Elementary School in Portsmouth. The topic for discussion was "The Exceptional Child." Dr. James Decker of the University of Virginia made the opening address. He told the group that there are many gifted children in the schools today and that the Board of Education is making great strides toward seeking them out and promoting their desire for greater and faster knowledge.

Those attending were: Mrs. Dorothy Turpin, president of the local unit; Mrs. Vernon Bryan, second vice president; Mrs. Roy Newton, chairman of Parent and Child Education; and Mrs. W. E. Maltz, active local member.

1960 EXTENSION ACTIVITIES

M. R. H. DeFord, Jr., was elected chairman of the County Board of Agriculture at its Annual Meeting held March 23. Levy Whitehurst was elected vice-chairman.

Last week, in our notes, I told you that the VPI Extension Commodity Committees were busy working on recommendations for the Extension Service for 1960. These recommendations were approved at the County Board of Agriculture Meeting.

Briefly, I would like to point out the major activities that will be conducted by the Extension Service in 1960.

DAIRY RECOMMENDATIONS

The Dairy Committee has recommended the following activities: (1) To establish an appeal or review board which will assist dairymen with some of their problems. They have suggested that this board be conducted primarily by the Dairy Department at VPI; (2) Work out arrangements whereby dairymen could get a quick test of insecticide residues on hay; (3) They would like for the health department to specify the type of bacteria present so that the source of trouble can be found and quickly erased; (4) They have suggested the holding of an afternoon dairy tour to discuss and show the raising of an animal from calf to cow; (5) Recommended to the Agriculture Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce that the dairy Short Course continue in 1960; (6) To hold small office discussions on DHIA Owner-Sampler analysis when the need arises.

LIVESTOCK

The Livestock Committee has recommended the following activities for 1960: (1) Continue to stress the importance of good meat type boars; (2) Encourage producers to get top market dollar by suggesting that get telephone or personal bids on hogs before selling; (3) Give personal assistance to farmers building pig parlors; (4) Encourage and increase in central farrowing houses; (5) Encourage breeders and feeders to get together so that each can depend on a safe supply; (6) Get commercial sheep shearers to shear sheep in the county; (7) Hold three lamb sales in cooperation with other counties; (8) Hold County Wool Bank; (9) Continue in stress and inform beef cattle producers of the importance of good management; (10) Encourage as many producers as possible to sell through organized feeder calf sales.

POULTRY RECOMMENDATIONS

In order for Virginia Egg Producers to compete for markets on a national level, the poultry committee feels that Virginia must have a State-wide egg marketing cooperative. They have therefore recommended to the Poultry Department at VPI that the ground work be laid immediately for the establishment of a Virginia Egg Marketing Coop. They have further recommended that Princess Anne give whatever support needed for this movement.

POTATO AND VEGETABLES

Potato and Vegetable committee has recommended the establishment of a Princess Anne County Sweet Potato Marketing Association. They have outlined a series of five meetings which will give potato growers information in order for them to make up their own minds about the establishment of an association.

SOYBEAN RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) Hold varietal demonstrations of new varieties; (2) Mail out production series; (3) Follow through on soybeans with wheat fertilization demonstration and corn demonstrations; (4) Set aside three weeks during the insect season for the purpose of assisting farmers in checking their soybeans for insects.

PASTURE AND FORAGE CROP RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) To continue to mail out pertinent information promptly to all users of forage. Special attention should be given to insecticide information; (2) Conduct a Red Clover field day to further promote the use of red clover as a hay crop; (3) Conduct two forage demonstrations showing all of the new summer grasses. Also hold a tour to these demonstrations; (4) One of the most interesting topics discussed with this committee was the holding of kitchen type bull session meetings from time to time. Farmers will be invited to discuss their ways of producing forage.

CORN AND SMALL GRAIN RECOMMENDATIONS

(1) Continue through 1960 the ten Corn Net Return Demonstrations started in 1958; (2) Distribute to all producers, seedmen and fertilizer representatives production series of both corn and grain sorghum; (3) Give assistance to any individual farmers on grain storage as requests occur; (4) Ask VPI to compile and mail in December results of experiments on varietal tests; (5) Recommend to the Agriculture Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce an area wide agronomy school to be held in 1961; (6) Assist the Virginia Department of Agriculture in securing pesticide and insecticide residue laboratory; (7) Hold two wheel truck, minimum tillage demonstrations, and hold three tours to these demonstrations; (8) Continue with the wheat fertilization demonstration conducted in 1959.

This is a rather large order, and I have printed these so that you can get a very good idea of the major activities conducted by the VPI Extension Service in order to assist farmers, and agribusiness and others with their every day problems.

PLANT FOOD ABSORBED BY CORN

Many people are asking about the proper analysis of fertilizer to use in fertilizing corn this year. In order to assist you with your fertilizer program, I think it is wise that we have a good understanding of what the corn plant actually absorbs during different stages of growth.

During the first month after planting, the corn crop can take only about 2% of the total nitrogen absorbed during the entire growing season. This will amount to about three pounds per acre. During the second month, the corn plant will absorb 35 pounds of nitrogen per acre, and 68 pounds during the third month. The fourth month, the corn plant will absorb about 17 pounds of nitrogen. This adds up to a total need of 143 pounds of nitrogen per acre to produce an average of 100 bushels of corn. This indicates to us, that in order to do a good job of fertilizing your crop, you should apply a complete fertilizer at planting time that is low in nitrogen and high in phosphate and potash. This would mean, generally, an analysis such as 2-12-12 or 3-18-18. The additional nitrogen needed should be applied as a side dressing at the last cultivation.

SOYBEAN GERMINATION DRAMATIC

Will your soybeans come up this year? Odds are 50-50 that you won't get a good stand if you plant untested and untreated soybeans.

Due to the unusual weather conditions last year, more than 50% of the soybeans have a poor germination of 70% or less. This is true throughout Virginia. Can you afford to gamble the cost of re-planting your entire acreage against 40 cents? This is the amount of postage needed to send a sample for germination test. Send a representative two-pound sample of the soybeans you intend to plant to the Division of Plant Industry, 1112 State Office Building, Richmond 19, Va.

SHEEP SHEARING TIME NEAR

From all indications, it looks like the clover leaf will be late in arriving this year. However, we are expecting it to arrive in mid-June, and on April 4th we will begin to shear sheep. Many of our sheep producers in the county have already signed up to have their sheep sheared. However, there are a few that have not.

If you want your sheep sheared by the Commercial Sheep Shearers that we have obtained, then please call or write my office immediately.

For those of you who have already signed up to have your sheep sheared, I will contact you prior to the day of shearing at your farm.

4-H TALENT SHOW MARCH 31

Fifty nine 4-H club members will compete in the Princess Anne County 4-H Share the Fun or Talent Program at Oceana School on March 31 at 7:30 p.m. These boys and girls were selected from the 195 4-H members participating in the 15 club contests. Each 4-H Club in Princess Anne County held its own contest as its program for March. The outstanding acts from each of these contests were selected to compete in this county event.

There are four divisions in which Junior 4-H'ers will be competing. These divisions are vocal, instrumental, dance and general. The winner in the Senior Division will represent Princess Anne County in the state contest at VPI during the 4-H Short Course in June. The winner of each division will also receive a scholarship to 4-H Camp this summer.

This is an annual 4-H event in Princess Anne County. It gives 4-H members an opportunity to have fun along with their project work and other activities. This is

PHABLES FOR PHONERS

The terrible trip of Oscar the optimist

Really, Oscar felt very unlucky. Every motel he came to wore a No Vacancy sign. Every one, that is, until the one he found at 2 a.m. It had a vacancy—a 3-room cottage that cost him $35 for a very short night.

Late next afternoon when Oscar reached his Old Home Town, tired and temperish, he discovered his friends and relatives were away on their own vacations. So he had to go to a hotel. Naturally there was a convention in town—all they had left was the bridal suite. After reluctantly signing up for that, he whiled away the evening in the last seat left at the local Opera House—behind a pillar.

Later, Oscar told a business associate about his terrible trip. He said, "Why, a few phone calls would have made all the difference. Motel, hotels, ticket agents and relatives—they'll all trot out their best, if you phone 'em in advance. Learn to use your phone, phonyish man! It'll save you twenty times its cost in comfort, convenience—and money!"

FEED YOUR SOIL ENOUGH LIME

Have you fed your soil lime (calcium and magnesium) recently? If not, did you take a sample of soil for analysis to check the pulse (pH) of your soil? Your answer to these questions can be very important. In fact, if lime is needed, each dollar invested in it will probably return three to ten fold the first year.

To those who ask, "Why use lime?" In some respects it is the lubricant to the soil — it keeps this mechanism operating smoothly. It reduces toxicity (friction) of aluminum and magnesium in the soil. "Friction" is further reduced through increased availability of certain plant nutrients, particularly phosphorus.

Lime lubricates the biologic mechanism of the soil, increasing nitrogen fixation by legumes. It also effects an increase in activity of the organisms that decompose organic matter. This is important since the benefits derived from organic matter in the soil result primarily from its decomposition. Through liming calcium and magnesium, two of the elements needed in rather large amounts by plants, are added to the soil. These are needed by plants as well as by the micro-organisms which help legumes fix nitrogen and those which help decompose organic matter.

To aid in determining your lime needs, take a soil sample today.

4-H AWARDS

There are many awards available for 4-Hers in Princess Anne and Virginia. These range from county to state and national honors. Some of the awards available on a state basis are trips to the National 4-H Club Congress, college scholarships, and watches.

These awards are available in practically every project taken by 4-H members in Princess Anne. 4-H members must be 14 years old to compete for the state awards. Members competing must assemble a record of their accomplishments in 4-H. These records are then submitted to the State 4-H Club Department.

County awards are also available in most 4-H projects and activities. These awards are presented at the 4-H Achievement Program in April. The county winners are selected from the various county contests or from their Project Records.

Now is the time for you 4-Hers to act. Finish your project records and turn them into your club leader or Extension Agent. You will be glad you did and you may be one of the top winners.

Hilliard House on Garden Tours

by Augustine Allen Tyler

Closely hugging the shore line of Lynnhaven Bay, on the North Bay Drive in Bay Colony, is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Hilliard, Jr. This is truly a home in every sense of the word—warm and friendly. To be a guest there is a memory to treasure. To approach the ivy covered brick house as you enter a lane bordered with dogwood trees is to see a mass of white glory in the Spring. From the living room and dining room there is a superb view of the quiet waters of the bay. At sunset the blaze of colors, reflect in the water, seen from every window, is a picture of rare beauty. Of interest in the living room is a piano forte more than a century and a half old. The piano was made by the leading craftsman in England in 1788, at the request of one of Mrs. Hilliard's ancestors, and shipped to America so his daughters could have piano accompaniment for their dancing lessons. A duplicate instrument is now in the Governor's Palace in Williamsburg. On the living room walls are four magnificent panels of birds and wistaria, hand embroidered on Chinese silk. These panels are most unusual in detail and shading. They were brought to Mrs. Hilliard's mother, Mrs. George Bernard, of Petersburg, from China, by her brother, Mr. John Gilliam.

Adjoining a large porch is a charming den—paneled walls are lined with attractive duck prints. On the cornice above the window decoys are lined, giving the room a gay note. Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard's house will be open for the Virginia Beach Garden Club on Tuesday, April 26th during Historic Garden Week.

"INTELLECTUAL INTRIGUE" PARTY AT NORTHWESTERN

Nancy A. Douglas, of 102 Ridge Road, recently attended the "Intellectual Intrigue" party at Northwestern University, given by Mortar Board, national senior women's honorary.

The party is held each year to recognize those women who received a high B average or better for the fall quarter. Richard Ellman, Northwestern English professor and author of the highly acclaimed book, "James Joyce," spoke to the group on "The Composition of the modern Biography."

of fresh fruits and vegetables each week, is unique in that it is completely refrigerated with temperature constant at 35 degrees. This assures that all produce moving through the warehouse maintains its complete freshness. Special wet and dry refrigerator boxes with constant temperatures of 35 to 40 degrees keep fruits and vegetables at the proper humidity to assure that they maintain their garden freshness. Cheese, butter and other dairy products are stored in special boxes in departments ranging from 35 to 40 degrees.

Prepacking is an ever-expanding operation in Colonial Stores. Intricate machinery weighs, grades and uniformly sizes and packages onions before they are moved into the retail stores.

Another feature of the new plant are the banana ripening rooms where more than 60,000 pounds of bananas are brought to their flavor peak each week before they are shipped to the retail stores. Bananas arrive from the tropical countries while they still are green. Under controlled heat, they are ripened to a golden yellow.

The Center also includes a completely equipped clinic capable of handling emergency medical needs of the more than 450 employees. A nurse is on regular duty and a doctor on call.

Trusty, wholesome and delicious lunches are available for the Center's employees in a beautiful cafeteria. More than 200 hot meals are served every day.

Two huge power master boilers heat the 14 acres of floor space within the Center. These boilers have a dual fuel capacity and burn either gas or oil. The average consumption of oil on an average 40 degree temperature day is 800 gallons. Approximately 75,000 cubic feet of gas will be consumed on the same day.

A real innovation in the Center is the Nancy Carter Kitchen. This modernized-the-1940s kitchen and its spacious adjoining meeting rooms are designed to accommodate meetings or groups interested in food preparation. The kitchen is staffed by Colonial's own graduate home economist.

BAKE HOT CROSS BUN "LITTLE LOAVES"

Ever since the days of 13th century England, hot cross buns have been a specialty on Good Friday and Easter. In America, these raisin-and-fruit studded buns make an appearance all during Lent. Try them in a new form, baked as "little loaves" in miniature bread pans. The pans are available in dime stores and toy departments.

HOT CROSS BUN LOAVES (Makes 8 Miniature Loaves)

 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cup shortening
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cup warm, not hot, water

1 package of cake yeast, active dry or compressed
 $4\frac{1}{2}$  cups sifted enriched flour (about)
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cup chopped raisins or currants
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup chopped candied fruit
1 egg yolk

Scald milk. Add sugar, salt and shortening; stir and cool to lukewarm. Measure water into bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in 2 cups of the flour and beat until smooth; add remaining flour and turn dough out on lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic, about 5 minutes. Place in greased bowl; brush top lightly with melted shortening. Cover and let rise in warm place (85°), free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Punch dough down and turn out on lightly floured board. Knead the raisins and fruit into the dough. Divide dough into 8 equal pieces; shape into small loaves (elongated rolls). Press into miniature bread pans  $4\frac{1}{2} \times 2\frac{1}{2} \times 1\frac{1}{2}$  inches. Beat egg yolk and 2 tablespoons cold water together and brush loaves with egg mixture. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about  $1\frac{1}{4}$  hours. Cut 3 crosses on top of each loaf with sharp knife. Bake in 375-degree oven 25 to 30 minutes. Cool and fill crosses with icing, made by combining  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup sifted confectioners' sugar with  $1\frac{1}{2}$  to 2 teaspoons milk and  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon vanilla extract.

BAKE HOT CROSS BUNS "Little Loaves"

Plan to celebrate Good Friday with this traditional custom of serving Hot Cross Buns.

Here is another recipe from The Wheat Flour Institute—One-a-penny, Two-a-penny.

How To Bake Hot Cross Buns "One-a-penny, two-a-penny Hot Cross Buns." How your family will enjoy these fragrant, spicy buns in the tradition of England on Good Friday.

The step-by-step photographs show just how to bake these tempting buns. Currant, cinnamon and allspice flavor the sweet yeast dough. Your family will welcome these buns at mealtime throughout Lent.

Serve them for breakfast with fruit, eggs or cereal and a beverage. Try them for lunch with a salad plate or main dish casserole. They're not only fine eating, but good for you.

Nutritionists recommend four or more servings of enriched, whole grain or enriched bread and cereals every day. Bread baked with enriched flour supply needed food iron and the three B vitamins, thiamine, riboflavin and niacin.

The English attributed even greater powers to Hot Cross Buns. They hung one in the chimney place on Good Friday to prevent evil spirits from coming down the chimney during the year. They thought these spirits might ruin bread baking and cause other domestic troubles.

HOT CROSS BUNS

2 packages yeast, compressed or
1 cup water (lukewarm or compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
1 cup shortening
2 eggs
5 cups sifted enriched flour (about) pastry tube or paper cornucopia to form crosses on buns.

Makes about 2 dozen buns.

Serve Hot Cross Buns fresh from the oven. If buns are baked in advance and frozen, reheat, wrapped in foil, in a slow oven; then frost with crosses just before serving.

Cut Quick Lemon Saily Lunn into small squares and serve piping hot. Lemon sugar gives a crusty topping. Shredded eggs and bacon are also on the breakfast menu.

QUICK LEMON SAILY LUNN

2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon lemon extract
Lemon Sugar Topping

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with milk and lemon extract, mixing well after each addition. Pour into greased

8-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle Lemon Sugar Topping over batter. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 30 to 35 minutes.

LEMON SUGAR TOPPING

1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine

Mix sugar, rind and nutmeg in order given and blend with butter. Makes 1 cup topping. If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt.

Oceana Employees Receive Award

Two Civil Service employees at the Oceana Naval Air Station were recipients of an award totalling $300 after their beneficial suggestion was adopted for use.

The award, which was divided by Mr. Emmett D. Stewart and Mr. David A. Dieterich, was presented by Capt. G. R. Luker, USN, Commanding Officer of NAS Oceana on March 10th. It was the largest award ever presented at Oceana for an adopted beneficial suggestion.

As a result of their joint efforts, a "Buckeye" hydrant adapter was installed on the fuel inlet line of the truck that supplies fuel to jet aircraft. This adapter is identical to the fuel inlet line on the aircraft. Thus, when the fuel truck itself is being filled, this adapter enables the pressure refueling nozzle to be tested for fuel leakage under actual operating conditions with no danger to aircraft being involved. Prior to the adoption of this idea, fuel leakage occurring during jet aircraft refueling operations presented a fire hazard to aircraft.

Mr. Stewart resides at 1133 Hillside Avenue in Norfolk and Mr. Dieterich lives in Lynnhaven.

Appointed

John A. Tucker, Jr. of Virginia Beach has been appointed assistant general agent for the Pilot Life Insurance Company for the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County area. It has been announced by W. Roy Parsons Jr., general agent for the company.

Mrs. J. H. Van Loon Speaker at Club Meeting March 23

Mrs. J. H. Van Loon was the speaker for the March meeting of the Bay Shore Garden Club of Virginia Beach which was held on March 23 at the home of Mrs. E. W. Regel. Mrs. A. Hodson was co-hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Van Loon's subject was "Beauty Spots." She pointed out that "living pictures" should be created outside of our homes as well as inside. The entrance, doorway and walk, should have a welcoming impression and should be designed to point out not the size of the area but the color effect.

Mailboxes and garbage containers should be treated in such a way as to divert rather than attract attention. Mrs. Van Loon stressed a white fence as a perfect background for local area plants such as azaleas and small holly.

Flowers planted along walking paths and edging terraces were also suggested as outstanding ways of creating a "living picture." At the conclusion of Mrs. Van Loon's presentation, slides were shown of Longwood Gardens, rose gardens, pansy beds and other interesting flower gardens and arrangements.

The April meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Creekmore on Abington Rd.

Mrs. Ira Hubbard Heads Cape Henry Junior Women

Mrs. Ira Hubbard was installed as president of the Cape Henry Junior Woman's Club in a candle lighting ceremony Wednesday evening, March 23 at 8 o'clock in the Ross Hall game room.

Mrs. H. O. Freeman, president of the Cape Henry Senior Woman's Club, presented a gavel to the Junior Club and installed the following officers: Mrs. Paul Chevillier, first vice president; Mrs. John R. Averilles, second vice president; Mrs. Garland M. Barlow, third vice president; Mrs. James M. Rose, recording secretary; Mrs. Marvin Hardy, corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Lavrischoff, treasurer; and Mrs. Gilbert Keene, contact chairman.

Mrs. Freeman stressed the need for co-operation among club women in all club activities.

In a talk on club ethics, Mrs. Gilbert Keene gave the "Clubwoman's ABC" and the "Beauties of a leader."

Visiting clubwomen were Mrs. George Weibler and Mrs. Graydon Early.

Garden Clubbers Will Find Books of Interest at Library

Garden clubbers will find many new books on how to arrange spring flowers on the shelves of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County Public Library. A few of the titles are: Flower Arranging for Fun by Hazel P. Dunlap; An 18th Century Garland — the Flower and Fruit Arrangements of Colonial Williamsburg by Louise B. Fisher; New Ways with Dried Flowers by Ruth Cannon; An Easy Guide to Color for Flower Arrangers by Margaret Dodson; Flower Arrangements for all Occasions by Marie Johnson Port and Symbolism in Flower Arrangement by Ervin S. Perry.

For the children, a new Dr. Seuss book, Happy Birthday To You has been added; a counting book entitled Brown Cow Farm by Daktow Ipcar and Katy Comes Next by Laura Bannon. Also, added are On Beyond Zebra and Scrambled Eggs Super, two more titles by Dr. Seuss, published some time ago but not available from the shelves of the library until now.

On the best seller list, Thane's (Beebe), Washington's Lady; Harper's, Gentlemen, Scholars and Scoundrels; Ryans, The Longest Day; and Bernstein's, Joy of Music are now available for circulation.

On Saturday, April 2nd, the Hookmobile will be at the BaySide Shopping Center from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Exercise Classes To Continue at Virginia Beach

The popular exercise classes sponsored by the Virginia Beach Committee of the Norfolk YWCA will be continued for another six weeks series. The classes will be held at the Dunes Motel, 9th Street and Atlantic Avenue.

Registration dates are: Night classes, 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 31; Day classes, 10 a.m. Monday, April 4.

Classes begin: Night class, April 4, 7:30-8:30 p.m.; Monday and Thursday, Day class, April 4, (after registration) 10 a.m.-11 a.m.; Monday and Thursday.

Daffodil Show Set for April 9

The annual Daffodil Show of the Garden Club of Gloucester takes place on Saturday, April 9 and Sunday, April 10 at Ware Parish House on Route 14. Hours are from 3 to 9 on Saturday and 12 to 6 on Sunday.

All amateur growers may enter; information and schedules may be obtained from Mrs. L. B. Boyd, Nuttall, Gloucester, Va.

A local commercial grower, handling more than 1,600 varieties, plans a large exhibit.

'Gay Is the Party' Theme for Tour

The Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach Council of Garden Clubs are sponsoring a tour featuring party ideas on Wednesday, May 11th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Eight homes in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach will be decorated by individual Garden Clubs with different party themes. Part of the proceeds from the tour will be used for the Allied Arts Building Fund and for further planting and developing of Atlantic Parkway and Laskin Road.

Beautification of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County has been of great interest to the Council for many years. They called on merchants of Virginia Beach and asked that petunias be planted in front of their business establishments to help improve the appearance of the business district. Shrubs were planted by the Council around the Amphitheatre when it was constructed.

Each year the Council sponsors a clean-up campaign and contacts all schools in the area asking them to participate. A silver trophy is given each year to the winning school.

Committee members for the tour are Mrs. E. F. Black, Mrs. Alvin Jarrett, Mrs. J. W. Field, Mrs. R. P. Maul and Mrs. James R. Bryant Jr.

Tickets for the tour may be bought from Garden Club members.

SIX-PASSENGER CAR OR STATION SEDAN ...CORVAIR IS BOTH!

A wonderfully useful folding seat makes every Corvair two cars in one. Just one quick flip and you increase the luggage and parcel space to 28.5 cubic feet. And just as simply, you're back to comfortable six-passenger capacity. It's standard equipment ... and extraordinarily practical.

Corvair does car-pool duty with the biggest and best of them. Going to work or school or out for the evening, you've got a genuine six-seater. As for carting around piles of stuff instead of people, just look at Corvair's station-sedan load space with the rear seat folded. And when that's full you can start on the trunk. Corvair, you see, is no ordinary compact car. No others are so versatile, so ingeniously engineered—with independent suspension at all four wheels, an air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze. You just can't compare anything else coming out these days with a Corvair. Drive one... soon.

For economical transportation—corvair BY CHEVROLET

This is the Corvair 700 4-Door Sedan

Spending a Story

Think back, grown-up! There haven't been many joys in life that compare to the thrill of being read to. Remember—we came to know most of those stories by heart—and we read them more each time we heard them.

Robin Hood and Little John—King Arthur and Sir Lancelot—they became old friends. And the heroes of our Bible stories—David and Daniel and the Boy Jesus in the Temple—they lived before our eyes as though the centuries had melted away.

Those stories helped to mold our lives. They taught us courage and faith. We sought to be like the heroes we loved.

Today, grown-up, your child needs the right stories. Are you taking advantage of the Church's program of religious education for youth? Are you giving your youngster the best start in life by making yours a worshiping, a church-supporting home?
